Core Scientific Operating Company f/k/a Core Scientific, Inc. (“Core”)² and its debtor affiliates in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases, as debtors and debtors in possession

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, are as follows: Core Scientific Mining LLC (6971); Core Scientific, Inc. (3837); Core Scientific Acquired Mining LLC (6074); Core Scientific Operating Company (5526); Radar Relay, Inc. (0496); Core Scientific Specialty Mining (Oklahoma) LLC (4327); American Property Acquisition, LLC (0825); Starboard Capital LLC (6677); RADAR LLC (5106); American Property Acquisitions I, LLC (9717); and American Property Acquisitions, VII, LLC (3198). The Debtors’ corporate headquarters and service address is 210 Barton Springs Road, Suite 300, Austin, Texas 78704.

² As discussed in the First Day Declaration, Core Scientific, Inc. changed its name to Core Scientific Operating Company in January 2022. See First Day Decl. ¶ 31. Therefore, any claims against Core Scientific, Inc., are more properly claims against Core Scientific Operating Company.

(collectively, the “Debtors”), hereby move for summary judgment (the “Motion”) with respect to certain purely legal issues identified in the Debtors’ objection (the “Objection”) to Proofs of Claim Nos. 425 and 497 (together, the “Celsius Claim”) filed by Celsius Mining LLC (“Celsius,” and, together with Core, the “Parties”) that substantially reduce the amounts that Celsius could potentially recover in connection with the Celsius Claim. A proposed order is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Preliminary Statement

1. Celsius has filed proofs of claim against Core seeking over $312 million in alleged damages related to Hosting Agreements³ between the Parties. This is the largest single claim submitted against the Debtors and, as the Objection makes plain, is strenuously disputed by the Debtors. Given the asserted amount, resolution of the Celsius Claim as quickly as possible will aid in the administration of the Debtors’ estate and will benefit all stakeholders. To that end, resolving the purely legal issues relating to the applicability of the contractual limitations of liability provisions will materially impact the size of the Celsius Claim and set outer parameters of the Debtors’ potential liability, if any, to Celsius. Indeed, in asserting its claim for over $312 million, Celsius itself indicated that the claim amounts were based on the “assum[ption] that any limitations of liability in the contracts do not apply.” Thus, Celsius acknowledges the significance of these provisions and their impact on the Celsius Claim. Accordingly, a ruling that the limitations of liability provisions contained in the underlying contract apply, as a matter of law, will materially advance resolution of the Celsius Claim.⁴

³ Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Objection.

⁴ The Parties are working to schedule a mediation with Judge Christopher Lopez in the coming weeks in an effort to determine if they can reach a global resolution of their competing claims. While the Debtors are hopeful that the mediation will be successful, given the amount of the Celsius Claim and the Debtors’ eagerness to move swiftly to a plan of reorganization and emergence, adjudication of this Motion as soon as possible after the mediation has

2. As set forth more fully below, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter judgment that, as a matter of law, the unambiguous limitations of liability provisions set forth in the MSA (1) limit Core's total liability to one-months fee (here, $5.7 million), and separately also (2) prevent Celsius from recovering lost profits; loss of business; loss of revenues; loss, interruption or use of data or loss of use of Celsius equipment; any consequential, or indirect damages; or cost of cover, incidental, special, reliance or punitive damages (which reduces Celsius's claim as asserted by over $300 million).

Relevant Facts

A. The Hosting Agreements

3. On December 18, 2020, Core and Celsius entered into a Master Services Agreement (the "2020 MSA") for Core to host Celsius's Bitcoin mining equipment (the "Miners") at Core's data centers and provide certain related services to Celsius. Pursuant to the 2020 MSA, the Debtors and Celsius executed separate work orders (the "Orders"),⁵ which are governed by the 2020 MSA and contain certain additional specific terms. A true and correct copy of the 2020 MSA and the Orders are attached to the accompanying Declaration of Jeff Pratt (the "Pratt Decl.") as Exhibit A.

4. On December 3, 2021, Core and Celsius entered into another Master Services Agreement (the "2021 MSA" and, together with the 2020 MSA, the "MSA"). In connection with the 2021 MSA, the Debtors and Celsius executed Master Services Agreement Order #1-A, dated December 3, 2021 ("Order #1-A," together with the 2020 MSA, the Orders, concluded (assuming no resolution is reached) is necessary and appropriate and will aid the administration of these chapter 11 cases.

⁵ Order No. 8 was terminated in May 2021 and Order No. 5 was replaced by Order No. 9, and thus cannot be the subject of the Celsius Claim. To the extent Celsius contends that those Orders are still relevant, they are also subject to the same limitations provisions discussed herein, as they too were governed by the 2020 MSA.

and the 2021 MSA, the “Hosting Agreements”). A true and correct copy of the 2021 MSA and Order #1-A are attached as Exhibit B to the Pratt Decl.

5. The 2020 MSA and the 2021 MSA contain the same terms and are otherwise indistinguishable for purposes of the Motion. For ease of reference, they are therefore referred to and cited herein as one singular MSA.

6. Delaware law governs the Hosting Agreements. Pratt Decl., Exhibit A, MSA § 8(f). As relevant to this Motion, the MSA contains two unambiguous provisions that limit Core’s potential liability to Celsius in both amount and type of damages:

7. First, the MSA limits the amount of Core’s total liability to Celsius:

NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, [CORE’S] TOTAL LIABILITY TO [CELSIUS] IN THE AGGREGATE FOR THE ENTIRE TERM (REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE CLAIMS ARE BROUGHT DURING OR AFTER THE TERM) WITH RESPECT TO ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ATTORNEYS’ FEES) WILL NOT EXCEED AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO ONE (1) MONTHS FEE PAYABLE TO [CORE] PURSUANT TO THE APPLICABLE ORDER.

See Pratt Decl., Exhibit A, MSA § 5(d) (emphasis added).

8. Second, the MSA limits the type of damages that give rise to liability:

NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR (I) LOST PROFITS; (II) LOSS OF BUSINESS; (III) LOSS OF REVENUES (EXCEPT THAT [CELSIUS] SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY FEES OR OTHER AMOUNTS OWED TO [CORE] UNDER THIS AGREEMENT); (IV) LOSS, INTERRUPTION OR USE OF DATA OR LOSS OF USE OF [CELSIUS] EQUIPMENT; (V) ANY CONSEQUENTIAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES; OR (VI) COST OF COVER, ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, RELIANCE, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES (IF APPLICABLE), EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

See Id. § 5(c) (emphasis added).

9. Additionally, the MSA is clear that, “THE LIMITATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 5 c AND 5 d WILL APPLY TO ALL CLAIMS AND CAUSES OF ACTION, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER THEORY.” See Id. § 5(e).

10. And to avoid any confusion regarding the materiality of these provisions, the MSA goes on to say: “Each party recognizes and agrees that the warranty disclaimers, limitations of liability and remedy limitations in this Agreement are materially bargained for by the parties.” See Id. § 5(f).

11. On December 28, 2022, the Debtors filed an emergency motion to reject the Hosting Agreements. ECF No. 189. This Court granted the Debtors’ motion, authorizing rejection of the Hosting Agreements on January 4, 2023. ECF No. 232.

B. The Automatic Stay Motion

12. On July 13, 2022, Celsius filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Celsius Bankruptcy”).

13. On September 28, 2022, Celsius filed a motion in the Celsius Bankruptcy seeking to hold the Debtors in contempt of court for allegedly violating the automatic stay in the Celsius Bankruptcy (the “Automatic Stay Motion”). A true and correct copy of the Automatic Stay Motion is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The premise for the Automatic Stay Motion was that Core allegedly breached the Hosting Agreements. As relates to its alleged damages, Celsius made clear in a declaration submitted in support of the Automatic Stay Motion by its Chief Strategy Officer, Quinn Lawlor, that its damages were predicated on a contention that it “has suffered and continues to suffer significant lost revenue and lost profits while its mining rigs sit idle.” See Exhibit B, Lawlor Decl. ¶ 16.

14. In addition, Exhibit K to the Lawlor Declaration is a letter from Celsius's outside counsel in which counsel contends, on behalf of Celsius, that "[a]s a result of Core's delays, as of the end of August 2022, Celsius has suffered losses in excess of $20 million, and continues to suffer additional losses with each day that Core refuses to satisfy its contractual obligations and immediately deploy Celsius's mining rigs." See Exhibit B, Lawlor Decl., Exhibit K at 3. Mr. Lawlor later confirmed in his deposition in connection with the Automatic Stay Motion that he was the one who provided the lawyers with the $20 million figure and that it was based on Celsius's alleged loss of operating profit. Attached hereto as Exhibit C are excerpts from the Lawlor deposition transcript, dated November 1, 2022.

15. Core filed its opposition to the Automatic Stay Motion on October 19, 2022, arguing that Celsius's claims failed both on the facts and as a matter of law. A true and correct copy of Core's opposition to the Automatic Stay Motion is attached hereto as Exhibit D. Additionally, the Debtors filed their own motions in the Celsius Bankruptcy, seeking, among other things, to compel immediate payment of administrative expense claims for the electricity pass-through charges Celsius ceased paying after it filed for chapter 11. See generally Motion to Compel, In re Celsius Network LLC, No. 22-10964 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 19, 2022), ECF No. 1144.

C. The Celsius Claim

16. On April 14, 2023, Celsius filed the Celsius Claim. The previously stated $20 million claim had now ballooned to an alleged $312,318,000 claim, plus further unliquidated amounts.⁶ Proofs of Claim Nos. 425 and 497 are attached hereto as Exhibits E and F, respectively. The Debtors' Objection to the Celsius Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

17. Celsius provided an addendum to its claim (the "Celsius Addendum"), dividing its claim as follows:

Prepetition Breach of Contract Claim	$111,998,000
Postpetition, Pre-Rejection Breach of Contract Claim	$1,497,000
Claim for Return of Postpetition Pre-Rejection Payment	$4,719,000
Contract Rejection Damages Claim	$194,104,000
Claim for Damages to Mining Rigs	Unliquidated

See attached Exhibit F, Celsius Claim.

18. The Celsius Addendum contains a disclaimer that "[l]iquidated amounts related to the applicable contracts assume that any limitations of liability in the contracts do not apply." Celsius does not provide any explanation or justification for this assumption. It also states that the basis for its claim is set out in the Automatic Stay Motion.

Legal Standard

D. Summary Judgment in a Contested Matter

19. Once a debtor objects to a proof of claim, the validity of the claim becomes a "contested matter." In re Gilbreath, 395 B.R. 356, 365 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2008). A party to a contested matter can move for summary judgment. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014(c) (stating that Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7056, which incorporates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56, applies to contested matters); see In re Alta Mesa Res., Inc., No. 19-35133, 2022 WL 17984306 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Dec. 28, 2022) (applying Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 7056 to grant summary judgment on a proof of claim); Cimerring v. ORIX Cap. Mkts., LLC (In re Canoco Inc.), 323 F. App'x 306, 308 (5th Cir. 2009) (holding that “[b]ankruptcy courts can render summary judgment in contested matters”).

⁶ Celsius first filed Proof of Claim No. 425, which Celsius subsequently amended in Proof of Claim No. 497 to include an addendum and certain other materials and photographs. The Objection covered both Proofs of Claim Nos. 425 and 497. By extension, the Motion likewise applies to both Proofs of Claim Nos. 425 and 497.

20. “The court shall grant summary judgment if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.” Fed R. Civ. P. 56(a). The movant must demonstrate the absence of a genuine dispute of material fact by establishing the absence of evidence supporting an essential element of the non-movant’s case. Sossamon v. Lone Star State of Tex., 560 F.3d 316, 326 (5th Cir. 2009), aff’d, 563 U.S. 277 (2011). To avoid summary judgment, an opposing party must identify a genuine dispute of material fact—one that could allow a reasonable fact finder to find for the nonmoving party. See, e.g., Gorman v. Verizon Wireless Tex., L.L.C., 753 F.3d 165, 170 (5th Cir. 2014); Hartman v. Ultra Petroleum Corp. (In re Ultra Petroleum Corp.), 571 B.R. 755, 761 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2017). Although a court views the facts and evidence in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, “[s]ummary judgment may not be thwarted by conclusional allegations, unsupported assertions, or presentation of only a scintilla of evidence.” Hemphill v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 805 F.3d 535, 538 (5th Cir. 2015).

E. Summary Judgment in a Contract Dispute

21. Under Delaware law—which governs the MSA and likewise dictates rejection damages here—courts routinely grant summary judgment to enforce unambiguous contract provisions. See In re Pilgrim’s Pride Corp., 467 B.R. 871, 879 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2012) (applying the governing state law of the rejected contracts to evaluate and measure damages);

Riverbend Cmty., LLC v. Green Stone Eng'g, LLC, 55 A.3d 330, 334 (Del. 2012) (“We have long upheld awards of summary judgment in contract disputes where the language at issue is clear and unambiguous.” (internal citation and quotation marks omitted)); Comet Sys., Inc. S’holders’ Agent v. MIVA, Inc., 980 A.2d 1024, 1030 (Del. Ch. 2008) (“Summary judgment is an appropriate process for the enforcement of unambiguous contracts because there is no material dispute of fact for the court to resolve.”); see also El Paso Energy E.S.T. Co. v. Chevron U.S.A. Inc., No. 4:20-cv-4250, 2022 WL 1663096, at *4 (S.D. Tex. May 25, 2022) (granting summary judgment based on unambiguous provisions of contract governed by Delaware law).

22. Summary judgment is appropriate “where a contract term is objectively clear and there is only one ‘reasonable interpretation.’” Seidensticker v. Gasparilla Inn, Inc., No. Civ. A. 2555-CC, 2007 WL 4054473, at *3 (Del. Ch. Nov. 8, 2007); see also eCommerce Indus., Inc. v. MWA Intel., Inc., No. 7471-VCP, 2013 WL 5621678, at *45 (Del. Ch. Sept. 30, 2013) (enforcing a limitation of liability provision and holding that contracts are to be enforced as written); In re Pilgrim's Pride, 467 B.R. at 881 (applying Delaware law and granting summary judgment to the debtors where the contracts excluded the asserted consequential and/or non-compensatory damages); Iavarone v. Eagle Eye Home Inspections, LLC, No. N18C-05-217 ALR, 2019 WL 5692265, at *2 (Del. Super. Ct. Nov. 4, 2019) (upholding limitation of liability provision where the plain language of the clause was clear regarding the people and types of conduct to which the limitation applied, the contract was not lengthy, and the limitations language was clear).

23. A court interpreting a contract must “give priority to the parties’ intentions as reflected in the four corners of the agreement.” Bathla v. 913 Mkt., LLC, 200 A.3d 754, 759-60 (Del. 2018) (internal quotations omitted). The Court must “interpret clear and unambiguous terms according to their ordinary meaning” Id. In an “unambiguous, integrated written contract,” the Court may not use extrinsic evidence to “vary or contradict the terms of that contract.” Id. (internal brackets and quotations omitted).

Argument

24. Summary judgment is warranted here, where two unambiguous contract provisions each limit Core’s liability and foreclose the Celsius Claim as asserted. As detailed above, Celsius asserts a claim for over $312 million, noting that its claim is based on the “assum[ption] that any limitations of liability in the contracts do not apply.” Exhibit F, Celsius Claim. This assumption is false as a matter of law based on the clear and unambiguous terms of the MSA, warranting partial summary judgment in favor of Core.

A. The MSA Limits Core’s Total Liability to One-Months Fee

25. The MSA limits Core’s “total liability . . . in the aggregate” to “an amount equal to one (1) months fee payable to [Core] pursuant to the applicable order.” See Pratt Decl., Exhibit A, MSA § 5(d). This one-months fee is a clear and unambiguous limitation on Core’s liability that applies to limit, as a matter of law, the Celsius Claim as asserted. The Court should therefore rule that, based on this limitation of damages provision set forth in the contract, Celsius cannot—as a matter of law—recover from the Debtors more than one-months fee payable to Core pursuant to the applicable Orders extant at the time of the breach.

26. Section 3(a) of the MSA states that Core “will invoice [Celsius] monthly in advance for all applicable fees for use of [Core’s] Facility and provision of Services as set forth in the applicable Order.” See Pratt Decl., Exhibit A, MSA § 3(a). Thus, the amount of the one-months fee is determined based on the monthly invoice for the applicable Orders reflecting the amount due at the time of the alleged breach. Pratt Decl., ¶¶ 7–8. Here, the last monthly invoice that Core sent to Celsius—before Core rejected the Hosting Agreements and stopped hosting

Celsius's Miners—was in the amount of $5,737,515.64 (the “December Invoice”). See Pratt Decl., Exhibit C, December Invoice. Under the plain terms of the MSA, Celsius's total recovery cannot exceed this amount. The one-month limitation of liability provision therefore reduces Celsius's claim from over $312 million to at most $5.7 million. The Court should therefore also rule that Celsius cannot—as a matter of law—recover more than $5.7 million in total from the Debtors in connection with the Celsius Claim.⁷

27. In any event, even if there were to be a dispute regarding the precise amount of the one-months fee, that would not preclude the Court from ruling, as a matter of law, that the limitation of liability provision limits Celsius to recovering no more than one-months fee.

B. The MSA Limits the Type of Damages That Celsius Can Recover

28. The MSA also limits the type of damages that Celsius can recover, providing that “in no event will either party be liable to the other party for (i) lost profits; (ii) loss of business; (iii) loss of revenues . . . ; (iv) loss, interruption or use of data or loss of use of [Celsius] equipment; (v) any consequential, or indirect damages; or (vi) cost of cover, any incidental, special, reliance, exemplary or punitive damages.” See Pratt Decl., Exhibit A, MSA § 5(c). This provision is likewise a clear and unambiguous limitation on Core's liability. The Court should therefore rule that, based on the limitation set forth in the contract, Celsius cannot—as a matter of law—recover for lost profits; loss of business; loss of revenues; loss, interruption or use of data or loss of use of

⁷ It would be premature to decide in this Motion, as a matter of law, what portion of the $5.7 million maximum liability (if any) Celsius is entitled to recover. As set forth in the Objection, the Debtors' position is that Celsius is not entitled to any recovery because of Celsius's own breaches of the Hosting Agreement that resulted in Core sustaining damages that offset any potential recovery by Celsius.

Celsius equipment; any consequential, or indirect damages; or cost of cover, incidental, special, reliance exemplary or punitive damages.

29. In effect, this means that when assessing what portion of the one-months fee Celsius may recover (if any), the asserted damages must be the type of damages that are not precluded under the MSA. But as noted above, in its filings in the Celsius Bankruptcy (which it contends support the Celsius Claims here), Celsius's alleged damages—lost profits and lost revenue—are of the type expressly excluded by the MSA. Therefore, for these reasons, and as further detailed below, there can be no doubt that summary judgment in favor of the Debtors is appropriate on this provision as well.

i. Celsius Cannot Recover $113.5 Million In Damages For “Prepetition Breach of Contract” and “Postpetition, Pre-Rejection Breach of Contract” Claims

30. In the Celsius Addendum, Celsius identifies “prepetition breach of contract” and “postpetition, pre-rejection breach of contract” claims that total $113.5 million combined ($111,998,000 and $1,497,000, respectively). Exhibit F, Celsius Claim. While Celsius provides no detailed support for these amounts, the justification that it does provide is enough to determine that the MSA expressly excludes the type of damages that Celsius seeks.

31. Specifically, both of these damages amounts are predicated on Core's purported breaches of the Hosting Agreements, as “discussed more fully” in the Automatic Stay Motion. In the Automatic Stay Motion—as relevant here—Celsius alleges that Core breached the MSA by unjustifiably delaying deployment of Celsius's Miners and failing to notify Celsius that Core had additional hosting capacity to offer Celsius when the Hosting Agreements were in place. Setting aside that these allegations fail on the merits—as detailed in Core's response to the Automatic Stay Motion—Celsius cannot recover damages based on these purported breaches because both seek damages that are excluded under the MSA.

32. Celsius’s Chief Strategy Officer has admitted in a sworn declaration, and again under oath in a deposition, in connection with the Automatic Stay Motion, that the damages for delayed deployment are “calculated based off of lost operating profit, assuming Core deployed on time.” Exhibit C, Lawlor Dep. Tr. at 169:16-21. The MSA plainly precludes liability for lost-profit damages. For the second alleged breach—failing to notify Celsius that Core had additional hosting capacity to offer Celsius when the Hosting Agreements were in place—even if Celsius’s allegations were true (they are not), the only consequence would be Celsius hosting fewer Miners with Core and therefore losing potential profits that those machines could have generated. But again, the MSA precludes recovery for lost profits and loss of revenue. These claims, therefore, cannot support Celsius’s $113.5 million claim for “prepetition breach of contract” and “postpetition, pre-rejection breach of contract” claims, and Core is entitled to judgment as a matter of law with respect to these amounts.

ii. Celsius Cannot Recover $194.1 Million In Damages For Its “Contract Rejection Damages” Claim

33. Celsius’s “contract rejection damages claim” for $194.1 million stemming from the Debtors’ rejection of the Hosting Agreements is subject to the same limitations provision and similarly seeks damages that are excluded by the MSA. Exhibit F, Celsius Claim. Again, although Celsius does not detail how it determined this damages amount, there can be no other basis than those relating to the breach of contract claims discussed above. Core’s rejection of the Hosting Agreements (or “Celsius Contracts” as Celsius refers to them), gave rise to a rejection of the damages claim as though Core breached the Hosting Agreements on the Petition Date. See Mission Prod. Holdings, Inc. v. Tempnology, LLC, 139 S. Ct. 1652, 1661 (2019) (holding that rejection of a contract in bankruptcy operates as a breach and gives rise to a claim for damages); In re Chesapeake Energy Corp., 622 B.R. 274, 280 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2020) (“The rejection of an executory contract constitutes a breach by the debtor of the contract immediately before the petition date.”) (citing 11 U.S.C. § 365(g)(1)); In re Talen Energy Supply, LLC, No. 22-90054, 2023 WL 2816683, at *4 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Apr. 6, 2023) (same); In re Greenville Auto Mall, Inc. 278 B.R. 414, 423 (Bankr. N.D. Miss. 2001) (“[T]he rejection of an executory contract constitutes a breach of the contract as of the day before the filing of the bankruptcy case. This in turn gives the non-debtor party a pre-petition ‘claim’ in the bankruptcy case for breach of contract damages.”).

34. But the consequences from that breach are the same consequences that Celsius has already identified in its other breach of contract claims, i.e., Core’s failure to deploy and host Miners under the Hosting Agreements. While the claimed damages are larger—presumably because the alleged breach implicates more Miners over a longer time period—the type of alleged damages are the same, i.e., the alleged lost operating profits/revenues Celsius believes it would have made if Core had continued to perform under the Hosting Agreements. Those types of damages (as well as any costs of cover, among others), however, are precisely the type of damages that the MSA expressly precludes Celsius from recovering. Accordingly, Core is entitled to summary judgment as relates to this aspect of the Celsius Claim as well.⁸

⁸ Celsius also claims $4.7 million for “return of postpetition pre-rejection payment” (which it seeks to recover as an administrative claim) and an unliquidated amount for “claims for damages to mining rigs.” Core disputes Celsius’s claims, as set forth in the Objection (ECF No. 819) and Debtors’ Objection to Celsius’s Motion for Entry of an Order Allowing and Directing Payment of its Administrative Expense Claim (ECF No. 861). Nevertheless, to the extent Celsius is entitled to any recovery on these claims, including its administrative claim, such recovery would still be capped at the one-months fee set forth in the MSA and detailed above.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court grant the Motion and enter summary judgment against Celsius as relates to the contractual limitations of liability provisions. Debtors further request all other just relief to which they may be entitled.

DEBTORS' MOTION TO ENFORCE THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") respectfully state the following in support of this motion (this "Motion"):

INTRODUCTION

1. Since the Debtors filed their Chapter 11 petitions on July 13, 2022 (the "Petition Date"), Core Scientific, Inc. ("Core Scientific") has knowingly and repeatedly violated the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Debtor Celsius Mining LLC ("Celsius") has informed Core Scientific of its violations, but Core Scientific has refused to conform its conduct. Celsius has been left with no choice but to seek Court intervention to protect itself and the estate's assets.

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC's principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

2. Core Scientific's violations of the automatic stay are many and ongoing. One, Core Scientific is refusing to perform the contractual obligations it owes to Celsius under the parties' Master Services Agreement ("MSA") and Order #10 to the MSA ("Order #10") (together, the "Agreement"). Two, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement until Celsius pays its pre-petition obligations. Three, Core Scientific has started adding improper surcharges, called "Power Costs Pass-through," to Celsius' invoices following the Petition Date—charges that only arose after the Bankruptcy filing, that constitute a breach of the fixed-price structure of Order #10 (and the preceding orders), and that are an illegitimate attempt to setoff Celsius' pre-petition debts.

3. Because Core Scientific has refused to live up to its obligations and honor the automatic stay, pursuant to Sections 105(a), 362, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 9014 and 9020 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtors file this Motion and seek entry of an order: (i) holding Core Scientific in civil contempt for having violated the automatic stay of Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) directing Core Scientific to perform under its Agreement with the Debtors; (iii) ordering Core Scientific to immediately return any improperly invoiced amounts and cease any collection efforts for "Power Costs Pass-through" charges; and (iv) assessing appropriate damages for Core Scientific's civil contempt, including, but not limited to, the costs and attorneys' fees associated with bringing this Motion and actual damages Celsius has incurred after the Petition Date arising from Core Scientific's violations of the automatic stay.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012. This is a contested matter pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 9020. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 (“In a contested matter not otherwise governed by these rules, relief shall be requested by motion, and reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing shall be afforded the party against whom relief is sought.”); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9020 (“Rule 9014 governs a motion for an order of contempt made by the United States trustee or a party in interest.”); In re Chief Exec. Officers Clubs, Inc., 359 B.R. 527, 531 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (Glenn, J.) (treating civil contempt request as a “contested matter”); see also In re Yerushalmi, 2011 WL 65739, at *1 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. Jan. 10, 2011) (same).

5. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

6. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

7. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 362 of title 11 of the United States Code.

BACKGROUND

A. The Agreement

8. On December 18, 2020, Core Scientific and Celsius entered into the MSA,² in which Core Scientific agreed to provide certain services in connection with Celsius’ digital-asset mining rigs, including services relating to colocation, hosting, monitoring, maintenance and repair, technical support, and heat and thermal management. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A (“MSA”), § 1(a). Core Scientific agreed to perform its obligations under the MSA in a

² The Agreement was executed by Celsius Core LLC, which is the former name of Debtor Celsius Mining. Declaration of Quinn Lawlor (“Lawlor Decl.”) ¶¶ 1, 3.

“professional and workmanlike manner.” Id. § 5.

9. The parties further agreed that the MSA would be supplemented by certain “Orders,” which would identify the rigs to be deployed, the deployment schedule for those rigs, and the terms of payment. Id. § 1(a). At the time the parties entered the MSA, they simultaneously entered and executed Order #1 through Order #7. See id. at 10–23. The parties later signed Order #8, but they subsequently cancelled it and refunded all deposits. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 4. On August 22, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #9, which concurrently terminated Order #5. See id., Exhibit B at 1. On September 27, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #10. See id., Exhibit C (“Order #10”).

10. Order #10 obligates Core Scientific to provide a specified power allocation beginning in certain months of the contract. It details this power allocation by identifying the deployment month (e.g., “Sep[tember] 2021”), the approximate quantity of rigs to be deployed (e.g., “2,250”), the type of rig (“M30S+ or Equivalent”), and the assumed power consumption per rig in “KWh” or kilowatt hours (3.57 KWh), as follows:

Equipment hosted ²² :	Deployment Month	Quantity & Type of Unit (the “Units”)	Assumed power consumption per Unit (KWh):
	SEP 2021	2,250 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAR 2022	3,530 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	APR 2022	4,710 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAY 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUNE 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUL 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	AUG 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	SEP 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	OCT 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	NOV 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	DEC 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57

See Order #10 at 1.

11. The monthly power allocation is calculated by multiplying the specified quantity of rigs by the assumed power consumption per rig. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 6. The power allocation is cumulative month over month, such that, by the end of the term of Order #10, Core Scientific must provide up to 105 megawatts (“MWs”) of power to Celsius. Id. Relevant here, as of September 2022, Core Scientific is obligated to provide up to 79.4 MWs of power to Celsius. Id.

12. The Agreement also requires Core Scientific to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability as it becomes available. Order #10 at 4–5. Order #10 states:

[Core Scientific] will notify [Celsius] as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any, and provide [Celsius] up to 10 additional MW per month at a hosting services rate of $0.0625 per KWh. Additional hosting availability if available will be the subject of a separate order and provided to [Celsius] on a priority basis, subject to [Celsius’] acceptance.

Id. at 4–5 (emphasis added).

13. In exchange for these services, Celsius agreed to pay Core Scientific an up-front fee along with a series of additional monthly prepayments. Id. at 1–3. The monthly prepayment amount is based on estimated power usage for the upcoming month, which then is subject to a “true up” in the next billing cycle based on Celsius’ actual usage. See id. at 4. Order #10 has fixed-rate pricing for hosting services (the “Hosting-Services Rate”). Id.; Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. The Hosting-Services Rate includes the cost of energy and services for operating rigs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. In September 2021, the Hosting-Services Rate was fixed at $.0575/KWh; in March 2022, the rate was fixed at $.0594/KWh; and from April 2022 through December 2022, the rate is fixed at $.0625/KWh. Id. ¶ 7; Order #10 at 1. In the section titled “Fees,” Order #10 states that Celsius’ fees will be determined “by reference to the Assumed power consumption per Unit of each deployed Unit, multiplied by the Hosting-Services Rate (each as set forth above in this Order).” Order #10 at 4 (emphasis added).³

³ The preceding orders (Orders #1 through #9) similarly had a fixed-rate pricing structure. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1, Exhibit C at 1.

14. Because Order #10 and the preceding orders are fixed-price agreements, they do not permit Core Scientific to pass through increased power costs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. To the contrary, Section 4(f) of the MSA allows Core Scientific to “pass through” only “new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services”—but not increased power costs. MSA § 4(f) (emphasis added). For Celsius, the fixed Hosting-Services Rate under Order #10, and the preceding orders, were an essential term of the parties’ agreement because it meant that Core Scientific, not Celsius, would bear the risk of rising power rates. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7.

15. To date, Celsius has paid approximately $18.2 million under Order #10 and has continuing payment obligations of approximately $5.4 million under Order #10. Id. ¶ 9.

B. Core Scientific’s Failure to Deploy Celsius’ Rigs

16. Celsius has delivered 10,885 rigs into Core Scientific’s possession under Order #10. To this day, Core Scientific is deploying only 6,564 of Celsius’ rigs and is providing Celsius with only 21.5 MWs of power. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; Order #10 at 1. But Celsius is entitled to 79.4 MWs as of September 2022, which is the hosting capacity to operate approximately 22,000 rigs of the type specified in Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; see Order #10 at 1. Thus, Core Scientific’s current shortfall under Order #10 is 58 MWs of power and at least 15,700 rigs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10.

17. Core Scientific’s current shortfalls are a direct consequence of its pre-petition conduct. Since the MSA was signed, Core Scientific has performed a now-familiar routine: it delays deployment of Celsius’ rigs; it follows those delays with empty promises to catch up; and it follows those promises with even more delays, in contravention of the Agreement and its own interim representations.

18. Celsius delivered its 10,885 rigs under Order #10 to Core Scientific in three tranches prior to the petition, and each time, Celsius had to wait months for its rigs to come online. Id. ¶ 11. For nearly half those rigs, Celsius is still waiting. Id. ¶ 15. Celsius delivered an initial tranche of 2,245 rigs to Core Scientific between the end of October and mid-November 2021. Id. ¶ 11. Core Scientific did not fully deploy those rigs until January 30, 2022. Id.

19. Celsius delivered a second tranche of 3,780 rigs to Core Scientific at the end of March 2022. Id. at ¶ 12. By May 25, 2022, the March rigs were still not deployed. Id. In an attempt to resolve the issue amicably, Celsius reached out to Core Scientific to ask it to confirm that the 3,780 March rigs (and plus an additional 4,710 rigs from other Orders) would be deployed by June so that Celsius could “put [it] into our working assumptions on deployment activities this month.” Id., Exhibit D at 2. Core Scientific wrote back, “Yes sir, it is . . . 8490 confirmed.” Id. at 1. Celsius took Core Scientific at its word and relied upon that promise. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 13. Celsius both built this assumption into its financial projections and reduced the intensity of its search for alternative hosting services providers. Id.

20. But that representation was false, and Core Scientific again failed to deploy the rigs according to its latest representations. Id. Core Scientific even acknowledged its breach of the Agreement. On June 2, 2022, a representative from Core Scientific proposed that Celsius could delay making any further payments to Core until after June 20 “as compensation for our delayed deployment schedule.” Id., Exhibit E at 1.

21. Ultimately, Core Scientific did not fully deploy the March rigs until July 21, 2022. Id. ¶ 14. But even after getting those rigs online, between July 21, 2022 and September 16, 2022, Core Scientific had the March rigs online for a total of approximately eight days. Id. No power was available to the March rigs for the remainder of that time. Id. Core Scientific only brought the March rigs back online on September 16, 2022, after leaving them idle for months. Id. In other words, until two weeks ago, Core Scientific was providing Celsius with only approximately 9.7 MWs (just 12% of the hosting capacity Core Scientific is obligated to provide under Order #10), and only approximately 2,794 of Celsius' rigs were operational. Id.

22. Celsius delivered a third tranche of 4,860 rigs to Core Scientific in June 2022. Id. ¶ 15. Despite having those rigs in its possession for more than three months, Core Scientific has failed to deploy 4,320 of those rigs and, instead, they are sitting idle. Id. Now, Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from sending any more rigs under Order #10. Id. ¶ 16. Thus, rigs that Celsius has been planning to deploy under Order #10 are now sitting in limbo with no place to go, instead of earning revenue for the estate.

23. Core Scientific's delays have caused the Debtors to suffer material losses to their potential gross revenues and profits. Id. The Debtors continue to suffer additional losses with each day that Core Scientific fails to immediately deploy Celsius' rigs.

C. Core Scientific's Failure to Notify Celsius of Additional Availability

24. Core Scientific's performance failures are not limited to delays in deploying rigs. It also continues to fail to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability and to provide that availability on a "priority basis," as the Agreement requires. See Order #10 at 4–5. Core Scientific had availability but used it for itself rather than offering it to Celsius. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 19. In fact, Core Scientific announced to investors that it had increased its own mining fleet from 67,000 to 85,000 mining rigs between December 2021 and April 2022. Id. Core Scientific never informed Celsius of any additional hosting availability. Id.

D. Core Scientific's Post-Petition Termination Threats

25. Following the Petition Date, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement and withhold performance due to Celsius' pre-petition debts. On an August 22, 2022, telephone call between Core Scientific and Celsius, a representative for Core Scientific stated that no new deployments would go forward until Celsius caught up on its payments. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 17. Then, in an August 29, 2022 email, Core Scientific notified Celsius that it had an overdue invoice, and threatened Celsius that, among other things, Core Scientific could “suspend the provision of the Services,” “disconnect Client Equipment and store it,” and “terminate the MSA and all Orders thereunder.” See Id. ¶ 18, Exhibit F at 1. Core Scientific has since disclaimed the August 29 threat, as discussed below, but it did not disclaim or deny the August 22 verbal threat and instead has ginned up different and pretextual potential bases for termination. Id. ¶ 28.

E. Core Scientific’s Attempt to “Pass Through” Its Power Costs

26. Finally, since the Petition Date, Core Scientific has begun adding certain surcharges to Celsius’ invoices that contravene the fixed-price structure of the orders between the parties. Worse, Core Scientific has misrepresented the nature of these surcharges.

27. On July 15, 2022, Celsius received its first post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, which totaled approximately $4.6 million. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 20, Exhibit G. The July 15 invoice contained a new line item that had never before appeared on any previous (i.e., pre-petition) invoice, called “Power Costs Pass-through.” Id., Exhibit G at 3. The charges for “Power Costs Pass-through” totaled just over $911,000. Id. at 3. According to the invoice, these charges were being retroactively imposed for services provided to Celsius between May 2022 and June 2022. Id.

28. Core Scientific explained these charges as follows:

Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs under the Master

Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup.

Id. at 1 (emphasis added). Because the invoice indicated that the “Power Costs Pass-through” charges accrued pre-petition, Celsius did not pay them. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 21.

29. On August 16, 2022, Celsius received its second post-petition invoice from Core Scientific totaling $5.5 million. Id. ¶ 22, Exhibit H. Once again, Core Scientific included a line item for “Power Costs Pass-through.” Exhibit H at 3. This time, the “Power Costs Pass-through” line item was even more significant—accounting for over $1 million of the $5.5 million invoice. Id. Core Scientific again explained this cost as a “tariff increase” that it was “passing through” under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Id. at 1. In reliance on Core Scientific’s representation that the “Power Costs Pass-through” was a “tariff” subject to pass-through under Section 4(f), Celsius paid the post-petition amounts, including the post-petition portion of the “Power Costs Pass through” item, in order to avoid a post-petition breach of the Agreement. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 22.

30. On September 15, 2022, Celsius received a third post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, totaling $6.5 million. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit I. That invoice also included the “Power Costs Pass-through” charge, which totaled more than $1.74 million. Id. at 3. Core Scientific again claimed that this was a “tariff” subject to pass through under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Id. at 1.

31. Giving the timing of these new costs, Celsius became concerned, and on September 20, 2022, Celsius disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through.” Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J. Celsius also asked Core Scientific to provide “any documents and materials reflecting both the ‘tariff increases’ that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific.” Id. at 2.

32. In response, Core Scientific provided information showing increased power rates in the various jurisdictions where Celsius rigs are located. Id. at 5–8. This confirmed that the “Power Cost Pass-through” surcharges Core Scientific had been adding to Celsius’ post-petition invoices were not new “tariffs,” as Core Scientific had claimed, but rather, were simply the incremental increases in power costs to Core Scientific—which were not subject to pass through under the MSA. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 26.

F. Celsius Advises Core Scientific Of Its Automatic Stay Violations

33. On September 9, 2022, the Debtors sent a letter to Core Scientific demanding that Core Scientific fulfill its commitments under the Agreement and advising Core Scientific that its failure to do so is a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362(a). See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit K. Celsius sent this letter in an effort to resolve its issues with Core Scientific without the Court’s involvement.

34. Eleven days later, on September 20, 2022, Core Scientific finally responded by letter to counsel for Celsius. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L. Core Scientific explicitly disclaimed that it had invoked any of the contractual remedies referenced in its August 29, 2022, email, dismissing that email as “automated.” Id. at 1. Without providing any supporting detail, Core Scientific denied that it failed to provide Celsius with the hosting capacity required by the MSA or Order #10. Id. At no point did Core Scientific deny that the Agreement qualifies as an executory contract, nor did it dispute that a failure to perform under the Agreement (if shown) would qualify as a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362.

35. The Debtors therefore are left with no choice but to bring this Motion and seek a Court order of civil contempt, compelling Core Scientific’s compliance with its contractual obligations and imposing other damages that the Court deems proper. The Debtors should not be left at the mercy of a contractual counterparty that both is trying to starve them of critical revenues by refusing to deploy rigs and attempting to bleed their coffers dry by imposing improper “tariffs.”

LEGAL STANDARD

36. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code operates immediately upon a debtor’s filing of a bankruptcy petition to stay various acts that could interfere with the orderly distribution of the bankruptcy estate. See S.E.C. v. Brennan, 230 F.3d 65, 70 (2d Cir. 2000). “[T]he purpose of the automatic stay is to give the debtor a breathing spell from creditors, to stop all collection efforts, and to permit the debtor to attempt repayment or reorganization.” In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201, 211 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (citation omitted, alteration in original). As relevant here, Section 362(a)(3) prohibits “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). Section 362(a)(7) prohibits “the setoff of any debt owing to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title against any claim against the debtor.” Id. § 362(a)(7).

37. Bankruptcy courts can enforce the automatic stay pursuant to their powers under Sections 362 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Congregation Birchos Yosef, 535 B.R. 629, 632 & n.2 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015). Further, through their inherent contempt powers and Section 105, bankruptcy courts can award sanctions for violations of the automatic stay. In re Windstream Holdings, Inc., 627 B.R. 32, 38 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2021); In re Chateaugay Corp., 920 F.2d 183, 186-87 (2d Cir. 1990). To impose civil contempt sanctions, the Court need not make a finding of willfulness; rather, it need only find that there was no objectively “fair ground of doubt” that the party’s conduct was prohibited by the automatic stay. Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 40–41.

ARGUMENT

I. The Agreement Is An Executory Contract Protected By The Automatic Stay.

38. “[E]xecutory contracts and leases are considered a form of property of the estate.” In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. 646, 657 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009), (citation omitted). “[T]hose rights [therefore] are protected by the automatic stay.” Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 (citation omitted). The debtor is entitled to enforce any executory contract pending a decision whether to assume or reject the contract. See McLean Indus. v. Medical Lab’y Automation, Inc., 96 B.R. 440, 449 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. at 656; McLean, 96 B.R. at 448 (“[A]n assumable but unassumed executory contract continues in effect and can be enforced by a debtor-in-possession.”).

39. The Agreement is an executory contract pending the Debtors’ decision to assume or reject it. A federal bankruptcy court uses one of two tests to determine whether an agreement is an “executory contract” enforceable by the debtor, as the Second Circuit has not conclusively adopted either one as the correct standard. See In re NanoDynamics, Inc., 735 F. App’x 762, 764 (2d Cir. 2018). The first test—the “Countryman” test—considers a contract “executory” “if material future performance obligations remain on both sides of the contract.” In re WorldCom, Inc., 343 B.R. 486, 493 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006) (citation omitted). The second test—the “some performance due” test—is “a less demanding inquiry ... [that] defines an executory contract as one ‘on which performance remains due to some extent on both sides.’” NanoDynamics, 735 F. App’x at 764 (quoting In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 85 F.3d 992, 998–99 (2d Cir. 1996)).

40. The Agreement is executory regardless of which test applies, and Core Scientific has never contended otherwise. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit M. The Countryman test is satisfied because the parties’ remaining future performance obligations are “material” to the Agreement. See In re Teligent, Inc., 268 B.R. 723, 730–31 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001). It cannot be seriously disputed that Core Scientific's hosting and notification obligations, on the one hand, and Celsius' payment obligations, on the other, "go[] to the essence" of the parties' bargain under the Agreement. Id.; see also Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 655 ("Based on the parties' respective continuing obligations under the Member Agreement, the Member Agreement is an executory contract.").

41. The "some performance due" test is satisfied because "neither side [has] tendered complete performance on the Agreement." NanoDynamics, 735 F. App'x at 764. Core Scientific owes Celsius 58 MWs of additional power deployment as of the date of this filing, and it has continuing deployment obligations through at least December 2022 under Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; Order #10 at 1, 3. It also has an ongoing obligation to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability on a priority basis. Order #10 at 4–5. Celsius, on the other hand, has continuing payment obligations to Core Scientific through December 2022. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 9.

II. Core Scientific's Failure To Perform And Threats To Terminate The Agreement Violate The Automatic Stay.

42. Core Scientific has violated Section 362(a)(3) by failing to perform its obligations under the Agreement and threatening termination. See In re AMR Corp., 730 F.3d 88, 102 (2d Cir. 2013) ("[T]he bankruptcy court did not err in concluding that any attempt to [rescind a contract provision] would be an attempt to modify contract rights and would therefore be subject to the automatic stay that went into effect when [the debtor] made its § 1110(a) elections."); Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 ("[B]y seeking to enforce the terms of the Employment Agreement, and by unilaterally seeking to terminate same and invoke its damages provisions, the Court finds that Claimant violated the automatic stay."); see also In re 48th Steakhouse, Inc., 835 F.2d 427, 431

(2d Cir. 1987); Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 657; In re The Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. 1019, 1024 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996).

43. First, Core Scientific is providing Celsius with only 21.5 MWs of power under Order #10, even though Celsius is due 79.4 MWs as of the end of September 2022. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 6, 10. Core Scientific is running only 6,564 Celsius rigs under Order #10. Id. ¶ 10. Core Scientific has another 4,320 rigs that it refuses to deploy. Id. ¶ 15. And it is contractually obligated to deploy approximately 11,000 more rigs under Order #10—but Celsius has not provided those to Core Scientific both because Core Scientific has refused to deploy the rigs in its possession and because Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from sending it more rigs. Id. ¶ 16. Not only does Core Scientific’s conduct contravene the deployment schedule, see Order #10 at 1, but it also falls far short of Core Scientific’s obligation to provide services “in a professional and workmanlike manner,” see MSA § 5(a). Core Scientific’s ongoing failure to perform its deployment obligations under Order #10 violates the automatic stay. See Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 657 (“By refusing to perform its obligations under the Member Agreement, NCTC is interfering with Broadstripe’s property rights under the Member Agreement and acting in violation of the automatic stay.”).

44. To the extent Core Scientific attempts to shift blame to Celsius for any delays in delivering the rigs, such an argument should be rejected. Core Scientific has acknowledged that it is to blame for the delays. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 13, Exhibit E at 1. In fact, Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from even sending it any more rigs under Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 16. Regardless, any delivery delays could not possibly excuse Core Scientific’s excessive, repeated delays in deployment, nor could they excuse Core Scientific’s failure to fully deploy the rigs that it has.

45. Second, Core Scientific continues to fail to notify Celsius of the availability of hosting sites “on a priority basis,” as required by Order #10. See Order #10 at 4–5. Celsius has never once been notified of additional hosting availability, and in fact, is aware of at least one pre-petition instance in which Core Scientific breached this obligation. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 19. Core Scientific’s ongoing failure to perform on its notification obligations violates the automatic stay. In re Ernie Haire Ford, Inc., 403 B.R. 750, 760–61 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2009) (“While these agreements are in full force and effect, the parties are bound by their terms and must continue to operate under the agreements in good faith.”).

46. Third, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement due to Celsius’ overdue pre-petition obligations. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 17–18 & Exhibit F. Although Core Scientific now disclaims its August 29, 2022, email threat to terminate the MSA, see Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L at 2, Core Scientific did not disclaim or deny that its representative stated on an August 22, 2022, phone call that Core Scientific would not conduct any more deployments until Celsius became current on its payments. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 28; see Exhibit L. Threats like this to terminate the Agreement or withhold performance until the debtor makes payments violate the automatic stay. See Enron Corp., 300 B.R. at 212 (“In attempting to enforce the Employment Agreement by procuring payment of the Retention Bonus and the Termination Payment, and by sending notice of the termination of such agreement, Claimant acted to obtain possession of property of the estate and to exercise control over property of the estate.”); Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. at 1024 (“It is therefore clear, that Thomasville’s actions in attempting to cancel its contract with Elder–Beerman were in violation of the automatic stay.”).

47. It is no answer to suggest that Celsius’ past due balance somehow gives Core Scientific a valid ground to terminate or otherwise seek to enforce the Agreement against Celsius. Courts have been clear that “an unassumed executory contract is not enforceable against the Chapter 11 debtor,” and therefore “the nondebtor party cannot terminate the contract by reason of the debtor’s defaults thereunder.” United States v. Dewey Freight Sys., Inc., 31 F.3d 620, 625 (8th Cir. 1994) (citation omitted); see also NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 531–32 (1984); In re Monarch Cap. Corp., 163 B.R. 899, 907 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1994).

III. Core Scientific’s Attempt To Collect Pre-Petition Debt Violates The Automatic Stay.

48. Core Scientific’s improper attempt to “pass through” to Celsius increased power costs violates the automatic stay in multiple, independent ways: Core Scientific is attempting to siphon “possession of property of the estate” without any lawful basis, see 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3); Core Scientific is attempting to modify its contractual obligations under the specific orders between the parties, see AMR Corp., 730 F.3d at 102 (stating that “an attempt to modify contract rights” violates the automatic stay); and Core Scientific is attempting to offset Celsius’ pre-petition debts by charging additional fees, see 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(7); In re Rodriguez, 629 F.3d 136, 142 (3d Cir. 2010) (holding that defendant violated the automatic stay by increasing debtor’s post-petition payment requirement to account for a pre-petition obligation).

49. As discussed above, after the Petition Date, Core Scientific began adding the “Power Costs Pass-through” to Celsius’ monthly invoices. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 20-25. This “pass-through” line item—which is significant—has only appeared on the invoices after the Petition Date. Id. As Core Scientific’s own documentation shows, the “Power Cost Pass-through” is simply the incremental increase in Core Scientific’s power costs resulting from price fluctuations for the cost of energy. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J at 5–8.

50. Core Scientific has attempted to pass off its increased power costs as “tariffs” subject to pass through under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 22–24; see Exhibit I at 1. A tariff, as commonly understood and as used in Section 4(f), refers to “duties to be imposed on imports and exports.” Oxford English Dictionary (Online Ed.); Black’s Law Dictionary (11th ed. 2019) (defining “tariff” as “[a] schedule or system of duties imposed by a government on imported or exported goods.”). A fluctuation in the cost of power is neither “new” nor a “tariff[.]” Indeed, such an interpretation would directly contravene the fixed-rate pricing structure under Order #10 and the preceding orders, which entitle Celsius to the fixed Hosting-Services Rate as “set forth . . . in this Order.” See Order #10 at 4 (emphasis added); see also Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1.

51. Core Scientific’s conduct leaves Celsius with a lose-lose choice: either pay the improper charges and sacrifice estate property that Core Scientific is not entitled to, or refuse to pay and give Core Scientific a pretextual basis to terminate the Agreement. Indeed, Core Scientific has already threatened to terminate if Celsius does not remain current on its post-petition obligations. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L at 2.

IV. Core Scientific Is In Contempt Of This Court For Its Violations Of The Automatic Stay.

52. Core Scientific’s actions in violation of the automatic stay “are void and without effect.” 48th St. Steakhouse, 835 F.2d at 431 (2d Cir. 1987) (citation omitted). Core Scientific remains bound by the terms of the Agreement and “must continue to do business with” Celsius “absent an order granting relief from stay.” Ernie Haire Ford, 403 B.R. at 753, 760–61 (granting debtor’s motions to compel non-debtors’ compliance with contracts).

53. Moreover, by withholding performance, threatening termination, and attempting to setoff a pre-petition debt, Core Scientific is in contempt of this Court for violating the automatic stay. Section 362(a) “clearly and unambiguously stays such conduct,” and “[a] reasonable person would not think otherwise.” Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 41. Although a finding of willfulness is not required to hold a party in contempt, id. at 39, Core Scientific had actual notice of its violations, which makes its conduct even more egregious. Celsius both sent a letter to Core Scientific and disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through” on its invoices. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J at 2, Exhibit K. Yet, Core Scientific refused to cure its breaches of the automatic stay. See Exhibit L.

54. The Court has the ability to award sanctions under its civil contempt power for breach of the automatic stay, including “coercive sanctions to encourage compliance” and “damages for monetary harm,” including but not limited to, the “fees and expenses incurred in trying to enforce the stay.” Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 47, 49.

55. Consistent with this authority, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order:

- i. Holding Core Scientific in civil contempt for having violated and disregarded the automatic stay;
- ii. Directing Core Scientific to deploy all Celsius rigs in its possession forthwith, to accept and deploy additional rigs from Celsius as permitted under the Agreement, and to notify Celsius of any additional hosting availability;
- iii. Ordering Core Scientific to immediately return any “Power Costs Pass-through” paid by Celsius to Core Scientific in connection with the August 15, 2022 invoice and to immediately cease and desist from any attempts to collect or further assess charges for “Power Costs Pass-through,” and
- iv. Assessing appropriate compensatory payments in the amount of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in seeking to enforce the stay and actual damages Celsius has incurred after the Petition Date arising from Core Scientific’s violations of the automatic stay.

NOTICE

56. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Committee; (c) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (d) the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f)

DECLARATION OF QUINN LAWLOR IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' MOTION TO ENFORCE THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius Mining LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC's principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

I, Quinn Lawlor, declare:

1. I am the Chief Strategy Officer of Debtor Celsius Mining LLC, formerly Celsius Core LLC (“Celsius Mining” or “Celsius”). I submit this Declaration in support of the Debtors’ Motion to Compel Core Scientific’s Compliance with the Automatic Stay.

2. As Chief Strategy Officer, I am generally familiar with Celsius’ contracts with Core Scientific and Core Scientific’s conduct both before and after the Debtors filed the chapter 11 cases on July 13, 2022 (the “Petition Date”). Except as otherwise indicated, all facts in this declaration are based upon my personal knowledge, my discussions with other Celsius employees who are familiar with Celsius’ dealing with Core Scientific, my review of relevant documents and records, or my opinions based upon personal experience and knowledge.

I. The Agreement

3. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Master Services Agreement (“MSA”), executed by Core Scientific and Celsius Core LLC f/k/a Celsius Mining, on December 18, 2020. Under the MSA, Core Scientific agreed to provide certain services in connection with Celsius’ digital-asset mining rigs, including services relating to colocation, hosting, monitoring, maintenance and repair, technical support, and heat and thermal management. Core Scientific agreed to perform these obligations in a “professional and workmanlike manner.” See MSA § 5. The MSA also provided that it would be supplemented by certain “Orders,” which would incorporate the terms of the MSA, and specify the rigs to be deployed, the deployment schedule for those rigs, and the terms of payment. Id. § 1(a).

4. As the MSA contemplated, Celsius and Core Scientific executed a series of specific Orders. At the time the MSA was executed, Celsius and Core Scientific simultaneously entered and executed Order #1 through Order #7. See Exhibit A at 10–23. Core Scientific and Celsius later signed Order #8, but they subsequently cancelled it and refunded all deposits. On August 22, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #9, which concurrently terminated Order #5. A true and correct copy of Order #9 is attached hereto as Exhibit B. On September 27, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #10. A true and correct copy of Order #10 is attached hereto as Exhibit C (“Order #10”). Order #10 set forth a schedule by which Celsius would supply, and Core Scientific would deploy, Celsius mining rigs between September 2021 and December 2022.

5. Order #10 obligates Core Scientific to provide a specified power allocation beginning in certain months of the contract. It details this power allocation by identifying the deployment month (e.g., “Sep[tember] 2021”), the approximate quantity of rigs to be deployed (e.g., “2,250”), the type of rig (“M30S+ or Equivalent”), and the assumed power consumption per rig in “KWh” or kilowatt hours (3.57 KWh), as follows:

Equipment hosted:	Deployment Month	Quantity & Type of Unit (the “Units”)	Assumed power consumption per Unit (KWh):
	SEP 2021	2,250 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAR 2022	3,530 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	APR 2022	4,710 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAY 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUNE 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUL 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	AUG 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	SEP 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	OCT 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	NOV 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	DEC 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57

6. The power allocation due to Celsius beginning in a particular month is calculated by multiplying the specified quantity of rigs by the assumed power consumption per rig. For example, the total power allocation for September 2021 was $2,250 \times 3.57 \text{ kW} = 8,032.5 \text{ kW}$, which is 8.03 megawatts (“MWs”). So, beginning in September 2021, and continuing through the term of Order #10, Core Scientific was to provide Celsius an allocation of up to 8.03 MWs of power. Then in March 2022, Core Scientific was to provide Celsius an additional 12.6 MWs of power availability ($3,530 \times 3.57 \text{ kW} = 12,602.1 \text{ kW}$), for a total amount of available power in March of up to 20.63 MWs. By September 2022, Core Scientific is obligated to provide Celsius up to 79.4 MWs of power availability. And by December 2022, the total power allocation Core Scientific must provide under Order #10 is approximately 105 MWs. This is the hosting capacity to operate approximately 29,000 rigs of the type specified in Order #10 (“M30S+ or Equivalent”). However, Order #10 is based on total power consumption, so if Celsius chooses to deploy a different, more efficient type of rig that consumes less power on a per rig basis, Celsius is entitled to deploy more rigs than the quantity specified in Order #10 in order to consume its full power allocation.

7. Order #10, and the preceding Orders (Order #1 through Order #9), specify that Core Scientific is obligated to provide hosting services to Celsius at a fixed rate, called the “Hosting-Services Rate.” This rate includes both the cost of energy usage and a services fee for operating the rigs. Order #10, like Order #1 through Order #9, states that Celsius’ fees will be determined “by reference to the Assumed power consumption per Unit of each deployed Unit, multiplied by the Hosting-Services Rate (each as set forth above in this Order).” Order #10 at 4; see also Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1. The fixed rate means that if the spot price of power increases, Core Scientific cannot pass through that increased cost to Celsius. The fixed Hosting-Services Rates of Order #10 and the preceding Orders were an essential term of the agreements for Celsius because it meant that Core Scientific, not Celsius, would bear the risk of rising power rates. Order #10 sets the following Hosting-Services Rates over the term of the Agreement:

Hosting-Services Rate:	Deployment Month	Hosting-Services Rate:
	SEP 2021	USD $.0575/ KWh; USD $.06/Kwh after hosting month 12
	MAR 2022	USD $.0593/ KWh; USD $.06/kwh after hosting month 12
	APR 2022 – DEC 2022	USD $.00625/ KWh; USD $.06/kwh after hosting month 12

8. Finally, Order #10 requires Core Scientific to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability as it becomes available. Order #10 states that Core Scientific “will notify [Celsius] as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any, and provide [Celsius] up to 10 additional MW per month at a hosting services rate of $0.0625 per KWh. Additional hosting availability if available will be the subject of a separate order and provided to [Celsius] on a priority basis, subject to [Celsius'] acceptance.” Order #10 at 4–5.

9. To date, Celsius has paid Core Scientific approximately $18.2 million under Order #10, and Celsius has continuing payment obligations on Order #10 of approximately $5.4 million.

II. Core Scientific’s Deployment Delays

10. Celsius has delivered a total of 10,885 rigs into Core Scientific’s possession under Order #10. As stated above, as of the end of September 2022, Celsius is entitled to approximately 79.4 MWs of power. This is the hosting capacity to operate approximately 22,000 rigs of the type specified in Order #10. However, Core Scientific is currently deploying only 6,564 of Celsius’ rigs under Order #10 and supplying a total of approximately 21.5 MWs of power. Thus, Core Scientific’s current shortfall under Order #10 is approximately 58 MWs of power and at least 15,700 rigs.

11. Celsius delivered its 10,885 rigs under Order #10 to Core Scientific in three tranches. Each time, Celsius had to wait months for its rigs to come online. Celsius delivered an initial tranche of 2,245 rigs under Order #10 to Core Scientific between the end of October and mid-November 2021. Core Scientific did not fully deploy those rigs until January 30, 2022.

12. Celsius delivered a second tranche of 3,780 rigs to Core Scientific at the end of March 2022. By May 25, 2022, the March rigs were still not deployed. Celsius attempted to resolve that issue amicably by reaching out to Core Scientific. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of May 25, 2022, email correspondence between Celsius Mining’s Chief Executive Officer, Amir Ayalon and Core Scientific’s Executive Vice President of Client Services, Russell Cann. Mr. Ayalon asked Mr. Cann to confirm that the 3,780 March rigs (and plus an additional 4,710 rigs from other Orders) would be deployed by June so that Celsius could “put into our working assumptions on deployment activities this month.” Id. at 2. Mr. Cann replied, “Yes sir, it is . . . 8490 confirmed.” Id. at 1.

13. Celsius took Core Scientific at its word and relied upon that promise. Celsius both built this assumption into its financial projections and reduced the intensity of its search for alternative hosting services providers. But Core Scientific failed to adhere to its promise to have the March rigs up and running by June. Core Scientific acknowledged its responsibility for this delay. Attached hereto as Exhibit E is a true and correct copy of an email sent to Celsius by Mitchell Livingston, Core Scientific’s Client Success Manager, on June 2, 2022. Mr. Livingston proposed that Celsius delay paying its invoices until after June 20, 2022, “as compensation for our delayed deployment schedule.” Id. at 1.

14. Core Scientific did not fully deploy the March rigs until July 21, 2022. After the March rigs were deployed, between July 21, 2022, and September 16, 2022, Core Scientific had the March rigs online for a total of approximately eight days. No power was available to the March rigs for the remainder of that time. Thus, until September 16, 2022, Core Scientific was providing Celsius with only approximately 9.7 MWs of power under Order #10 (just 12% of the hosting capacity Core Scientific is obligated to provide), and only approximately 2,794 of Celsius’ rigs were operational. On September 16, 2022, Core Scientific brought the March rigs back online, after leaving them idle for months.

15. Most recently, Celsius delivered a third tranche of 4,860 rigs to Core Scientific in June 2022. Despite having those rigs in its possession for more than three months, Core Scientific has failed to deploy 4,320 of those rigs. Instead, they are sitting idle.

16. Celsius has suffered and continues to suffer significant lost revenue and lost profits while its mining rigs sit idle. Celsius has stopped delivering rigs to Core Scientific under Order

#10 both because Core Scientific has refused to deploy the rigs in its possession and because Core Scientific has now prohibited Celsius from sending any more rigs under Order #10 because it is so far behind schedule.

17. Despite Core Scientific's acknowledgment of its own responsibility for the delays, Core Scientific has repeatedly threatened to terminate the contract with Celsius following the Petition Date because of Celsius' remaining pre-petition obligation. During an August 22, 2022, telephone call, Jeff Pratt, Core Scientific's Senior Vice President of Partnerships, stated to Amir Ayalon, Patrick Holert, and Chris Ferraro that no new deployments would go forward until Celsius caught up on its payment schedule.

18. Core Scientific has also made such threats in writing. Attached hereto as Exhibit F is a true and correct copy of an August 29, 2022, email from Core Scientific's billing department to Celsius. In this email, Core Scientific notifies Celsius that it has an invoice that is three days overdue, and "remind[s] [Celsius] of the following penalties for non-payment," which include, among others, "suspend[ing] the provision of the Services," "disconnect[ing] Client Equipment," and "terminat[ing] the MSA and all Orders thereunder." Notably, the only overdue amount was Celsius' pre-petition obligation.

III. Core Scientific's Failure To Notify Celsius Of Additional Hosting Capacity

19. In addition to its deployment delays and termination threats, Core Scientific failed to inform Celsius of any additional hosting availability at any point since Order #10 was signed. However, Core Scientific has continued to add rigs to its own fleet over the same period that it has been refusing to deploy Celsius' rigs. Core Scientific announced that as of December 2021, it was operating a fleet of approximately 67,000 rigs. See "Core Scientific Announces December Updates," <https://investors.corescientific.com/investors/news/news-details/2022/Core-Scientific-Announces-December-Updates/default.aspx> (January 5, 2022), last accessed September 19, 2022.

By April, Core Scientific's fleet had swelled to 85,000 rigs. See "Core Scientific Announces April Updates," <https://corescientific.com/press/core-scientific-announces-april-updates/> (May 5, 2022), last accessed September 17, 2022. Core Scientific never informed Celsius of any additional hosting availability.

IV. Core Scientific's Attempt to "Pass Through" Its Power Costs

20. Following the Petition Date, Core Scientific has added a new line item to the invoices it sends to Celsius. On July 15, 2022, Celsius received its first invoice following the Petition Date. Attached hereto as Exhibit G is a true and correct copy of the cover email, invoice, and back up data for the July 15 invoice. The total amount invoiced to Celsius was approximately $4.6 million. The invoice included a line item called "Power Costs Pass-through." Core Scientific had never previously included such a line item, or such a pass through, on prior invoices. This new "Power Costs Pass-through" totaled $911,430.41. The invoice purported to retroactively impose the "Power Costs Pass-through" charges for services provided between May 2022 and June 2022.

21. The "Power Costs Pass-through" charge had never appeared on any pre-petition invoices. When Core Scientific added this line item, it explained the charge as follows: "Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs [sic] under the Master Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup." Celsius did not pay the "Power Costs Pass-through" charges in the July 15, 2022, invoice because, according to the invoice, they had accrued pre-petition in May and June of 2022.

22. On August 16, 2022, Celsius received its second post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, totaling $5.5 million. Attached hereto as Exhibit H is a true and correct copy of the cover email, invoice, and back up data for the August 16 invoice. Like the July 15 invoice, the August 16 invoice also included the “Power Costs Pass-through” line item, which this time totaled $1,031,168.84. Core Scientific gave the same explanation for this line item as it did for the July 15 invoice: it was a “tariff increase” that it was “passing through” under Section 4(f) of the MSA.

23. Celsius relied on Core Scientific’s representation that the “Power Costs Pass-through” was a “tariff” that could be passed through to Celsius under Section 4(f) of the MSA, which allows Core Scientific to “pass through” to Celsius “any new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services.” MSA § 4(f). Therefore, Celsius paid the the post-petition amounts in the invoice, including the post-petition portion of the “Power Costs Pass-through” item, in order to avoid a post-petition breach of the Agreement.

24. On September 15, 2022, Celsius received a third post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, totaling $6.5 million. Attached hereto as Exhibit I is a true and correct copy of the cover email, invoice, and back up data for the September 15 invoice. Like the July 15 and the August 16 invoices, the September 15 invoice included the “Power Costs Pass-through” charge, which totaled $1,740,896.00. Core Scientific gave the same explanation for this line item as it did for the July 15 and August 16 invoices: it was a “tariff increase” that Core Scientific was “passing through” under Section 4(f) of the MSA.

25. Celsius became concerned about the “Power Costs Pass-through” given that this charge had suddenly arisen after the Petition Date. On September 20, 2022, Celsius disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through” charge, and asked Core Scientific to provide “any documents and materials reflecting both the ‘tariff increases’ that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific.” In response, Core Scientific provided two attachments and an embedded link. True and correct copies of Celsius’ email to Core Scientific,

Core Scientific's response email, and the materials attached to/embedded in Core Scientific's response are attached hereto as Exhibit J.

26. One of the attachments to Core Scientific's email was a letter from the Murphy Electric Power Board to Core Scientific, which showed the "fuel cost adjustment" for "MSD class customers with Murphy Power Board." The second attachment to Core Scientific's email was a letter from the Tennessee Valley Authority, which showed the "fuel cost adjustment" for rates at "Core Scientific's Calvert City location." The link embedded in Core Scientific's email was to a webpage that showed the Energy Reliability Counsel of Texas's ("ERCOT") "Historical RTM Settlement Point Prices" for "Hubs and Load Zones."

V. The Parties' Recent Correspondence

27. On September 9, 2022, counsel for Celsius sent a letter to counsel for Core Scientific, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit K. In this letter, Celsius demanded that Core Scientific fulfill its commitments under the Agreement and advised Core Scientific that its failure to do so is a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362(a). Celsius sent this letter in an effort to resolve its issues with Core Scientific without seeking the Court's involvement.

28. Core Scientific finally responded by letter to counsel for Celsius on September 20, 2022, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit L. Core Scientific explicitly disclaimed that it had invoked any of the contractual remedies referenced in its August 29, 2022, email, dismissing that email as "automated." Core Scientific denied that it failed to provide Celsius with the hosting capacity required by the MSA or Order #10.

29. Because Core is attempting to take advantage of Celsius' situation as a Debtor, Celsius felt it had to file this Motion in order to protect the estate.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on September 28, 2022, at Midland, Texas.

EXHIBIT A

MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Master Services Agreement (“Agreement”) effective as of December 18, 2020 (“Effective Date”) is between CORE SCIENTIFIC, INC. (“Company”) and CELSIUS CORE LLC (“Client”).

WHEREAS, Client desires access to locate its Client Equipment (as defined below) at the Company Facility (as defined below) and receive certain Services (as defined below); and

WHEREAS, Company desires to provide such Services at its Company Facility.

The parties agree as follows:

1. AGREEMENT STRUCTURE

a. This Agreement provides general terms applicable to Company’s provision of certain services, including, without limitation, colocation, hosting, rack space, security, monitoring, maintenance, utilities, Client Equipment maintenance and repair, facility management, account management, network and data access, technical support, and heat and thermal management services (“Services”) to Client in a data center owned or operated by Company or its affiliates (“Company Facility”) in mutually agreed transactions described in mutually executed ordering documents in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto that reference and are governed by this Agreement (“Orders”). Each Order will be a separate agreement between Company and Client and will be deemed to incorporate the terms of this Agreement by reference. Company may require Customer to provide evidence of creditworthiness or credit support acceptable to Company in its sole discretion as a condition to accepting any Order. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the specific terms of an Order, the specific terms of the Order govern with respect to such Order.

2. SERVICES AND COMPANY FACILITY

a. Company will provide Client the Services at a Company Facility set forth in an Order. This Agreement is not intended to and does not constitute a lease of any real or personal property or a grant of any other real property interest. Unless otherwise set forth in an Order, Client Equipment is owned by Client will not be construed as fixtures or fittings or otherwise attached to a Company Facility. Company retains title to all racking, connectors, fittings, parts and other materials used or provided by Company at a Company Facility to provide Client the Services. Client acknowledges and agrees that access to a Company Facility may be provided only during Company’s ordinary business hours and only upon Company’s prior written consent, which shall be subject in all events to the terms of this Agreement and may be withheld, conditioned or delayed in Company’s sole discretion.. Client will be liable for the actions of all persons accessing Company Facility on its behalf.

b. Company has the right to review and the sole right to approve any delivery, installation (including, without limitation, the location and position of Client Equipment at the Company Facility), replacement or removal work with respect to Client’s computer hardware or other tangible equipment (“Client Equipment”) at a Company Facility. Client shall be fully responsible for delivering all Client Equipment to Company at a specified Company Facility on or before the applicable scheduled delivery date, each as specified in an Order. Client will be responsible for all risk of loss or damage to Client Equipment at all times until such Client Equipment is accepted by Company at a designated Company Facility.

c. Client Equipment will adhere to Company’s specifications, procedures, rules, and regulations, including, without limitation, equipment labeling and tracking and security practices and policies for the Company Facility, all of which are incorporated herein by this reference. If Company determines in its sole discretion that Client Equipment or related operating software does not conform to its policies or is not suitable for the provision of Services at the Company Facility, Company may suspend installation of Client Equipment and operating software or commencement of the Services until Company approves of the Client Equipment and operating software. Company has no responsibility or liability for any loss or damage to Client Equipment, including without limitation any damage to Client Equipment, failure to adhere to any manufacturer warranty, the voiding of any manufacturer warranty or loss of or inability to collect under any manufacturer warranty, unless directly caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of Company.

d. Client is responsible for costs and expenses regarding the installation, repair, replacement and removal of Client Equipment and tariffs, taxes, shipping costs or other expenses associated with owning, shipping, importing or transporting Client Equipment. Upon any expiration or termination of an applicable Order, Company will provide Client with a written notice, which may be by email (the “Retrieval Notice”), of the date when Client Equipment is ready to be removed from Company Facility, which will be at Client’s sole expense. Such notice will document the condition of Client Equipment being prepared for shipment, any outstanding amounts owed by Client to Company and Client shall have five (5) calendar days from the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice to pay any outstanding amounts owed to Company and remove at Client’s sole cost and expense Client Equipment from Company Facility. Client will hold Company harmless from any damage caused to Client Equipment during such pickup and removal of Client Equipment. The failure or delay by Client to retrieve Client Equipment on or before the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice will constitute abandonment of Client Equipment under the laws of the jurisdiction where the Client Equipment is located and Company will be entitled to pursue at Client’s sole risk and expense all available remedies, including, without limitation, the actions set forth in Section 4(d), as applicable.

e. In order to continue to provide the Services, from time to time Company may request, and Client shall promptly provide, information regarding Client Equipment, Client’s related operating software, Client’s systems, and other information reasonably necessary in Company’s provision of the Services.

f. If software and services of a third party are requested by Client in conjunction with the Services (“Third Party Services”) and identified in an Order, Client acknowledges and agrees that such Third Party Services are the responsibility of the third party, subject to separate terms and conditions between such third party and Client and Company accepts no responsibility for the performance of such Third Party Services or any loss or damage arising from or associated with the provision of such Third Party Services.

3. PAYMENT TERMS AND TAXES

a. Company will invoice Client monthly in advance for all applicable fees for use of Company Facility and provision of Services as set forth in the applicable Order. Client will pay all invoiced amounts in US dollars within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the invoice. All payments must be (i) in US dollars into an ACH account number as set forth in the applicable Order; or (ii) to another account or form of payment directed by Company. Interest shall be charged on past due amounts at the lesser of (A) one and a half percent (1.5%) per month; or (B) the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

b. Client may, in good faith, dispute any invoice or any part thereof (a “Disputed Amount”) by submitting a written notice of such dispute along with reasonable supporting documentation within three (3) calendar days of the date of the initial invoice on which the Disputed Amount appears, failing which Client waives all rights to dispute such Disputed Amount and to file any claim. Company will review the Disputed Amount after its receipt of the relevant notice and if Company determines that Client was billed in error, a credit for the amount invoiced incorrectly will be made to the next invoice. If Company determines that the amount was invoiced correctly, Client will pay the amount by the due date of the next invoice. For clarity, Client shall promptly pay all undisputed amounts.

c. All amounts payable to Company under this Agreement exclude applicable taxes. Client is responsible for (i) taxes related to its activities and the ownership and operation of Client Equipment; and (ii) taxes imposed, levied or assessed thereon by any governmental or other authorities. If Client is required to make any deduction, withholding or payment for taxes in any jurisdiction on amounts payable to Company, such amounts will be increased such that after making such deduction, Company receives an amount equal to what it would have received if such deduction, withholding or payment had not been made.

4. TERM, TERMINATION, MODIFICATION AND SUSPENSION

a. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until terminated as permitted by this Agreement. Each Order commences on the effective date set forth in the Order, has the initial term ("Initial Term") set forth in the Order, and thereafter automatically renews for the additional periods set forth in the Order, or if no renewal period is set forth then one (1) year periods, (each, a "Renewal term" and collectively, the "Term") unless Client notifies Company in writing not less than ninety (90) calendar days before such renewal of its desire for the order not to renew.

b. Either party may terminate an Order upon written notice to the other party and take such other action identified in Section 4 d. below if the other party materially breaches such Order or this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days (5 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance (as defined below) or 2 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance two or more times during any twelve month period). If the breach (other than Client failure to pay amounts when due) cannot be cured within thirty (30) calendar days, the breaching party shall be given a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of the notice, to cure the breach, provided that the breaching party acts promptly and diligently to cure such breach.

c. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party if there have been no Orders in effect for twelve (12) consecutive months.

d. In addition to the remedy set forth in Section 4 b. above if Client fails to pay all invoiced amounts when due (an "Unpaid Balance"), or otherwise fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement after opportunity to cure as provided in Section 4 b above Company may, in its sole discretion, take certain actions including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense:

- (i) suspend the provision of the Services;
- (ii) disconnect Client Equipment and store it;
- (iii) declare all amounts due under the applicable Order through the balance of the Term to be immediately due and payable;
- (iv) operate Client Equipment for cryptocurrency mining and other activities at Company's sole discretion and direct all resulting proceeds to Company's own account until Company has recovered all amounts due, including, without limitation, any reinstatement, disconnection or storage fees or costs;
- (v) terminate this Agreement and all Orders; and
- (vi) exercise all other rights under this Agreement, at law, in equity or otherwise.

Unless Company has terminated this Agreement, Company will reverse the suspension of the provision of the Company Facility and Services and disconnection of Client Equipment as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to the suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee. Thereafter, Company may, at its sole discretion, require an advance payment equal to the amount of one billing invoice.

e. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company may suspend its provision of not been modified in any way from its original manufactured condition; (iv) Client Equipment is in a condition suitable for continued optimal cryptocurrency mining operations, including, without limitation, in the same manner as conducted prior to the Effective Date; (v) Client Equipment has been operated at all times indoors in an appropriate temperature-controlled environment and consistent with the manufacturer's recommended temperatures and operating conditions; (vi) Client Equipment has always been transported and/or handled in a protected manner normally expected when transporting and/or handling sensitive computer hardware; (vii) Client will use the Services only for lawful purposes, and Client will not transmit, retransmit or store material with or in Client Equipment or with or in Company Facility in violation of any federal or state law or regulations or local code, rule, regulation or ordinance; and (viii) Client will comply with applicable laws and regulations in connection with this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, Client further represents, warrants, and covenants neither Client, any officer, director, employee, partner, controlling shareholder, affiliated entity nor anyone acting on Client's behalf (A) has used or disclosed or will use or disclose non-public information obtained from Company, (B) has violated or will violate applicable anti-bribery or anti-corruption laws, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the U.K. Bribery Act 2010, (C) has violated or will violate applicable anti-money laundering statutes, or (D) is a Denied Party or subject to any U.S. sanction imposed by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

b. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, COMPANY DOES NOT MAKE AND HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, EXPRESS, IMPLIED AND STATUTORY WARRANTIES THAT COMPANY FACILITY OR SERVICES WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, ERROR-FREE, OR COMPLETELY SECURE, AND THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR SATISFACTORY QUALITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NONINFRINGEMENT OF ANY THIRD PARTY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS. ALL COMPANY FACILITY AND SERVICES ARE PROVIDED OR PERFORMED ON AN "AS IS", "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS, AND CLIENT'S USE OF THE COMPANY FACILITY AND SERVICES IS SOLELY AT ITS OWN RISK. CLIENT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT COMPANY DOES NOT AND CANNOT CONTROL THE FLOW OF DATA OR POWER TO OR FROM COMPANY'S NETWORK AND/OR THE INTERNET OR POWER GRID, WHICH ARE PROVIDED OR CONTROLLED BY THIRD PARTIES, AND THAT ACTIONS OR INACTIONS OF THIRD PARTIES CAN IMPAIR OR DISRUPT COMPANY'S CONNECTIONS TO THE INTERNET OR POWER GRID (OR PORTIONS THEREOF) INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, INTERRUPTIONS IN SERVICE CAUSED BY GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS OR ORDERS, SYSTEM CAPACITY LIMITATIONS OR LIMITATIONS IMPOSED BY, OR FAILURES OF, AN UNDERLYING COMMUNICATIONS CARRIER. COMPANY WILL ENDEAVOR TO TAKE ACTIONS IT DEEMS APPROPRIATE IN ITS SOLE DISCRETION TO REMEDY AND AVOID SUCH EVENTS. HOWEVER, COMPANY CANNOT AND DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT SUCH EVENTS WILL NOT OCCUR, AND COMPANY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL LIABILITY RESULTING FROM OR RELATED TO SUCH EVENTS. COMPANY HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACTS OR OMISSIONS BY COMPANY'S OTHER CUSTOMERS AND CLIENTS AND OTHER THIRD PARTIES.

c. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR (I) LOST PROFITS; (II) LOSS OF BUSINESS; (III) LOSS OF REVENUES (EXCEPT THAT CLIENT SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY FEES OR OTHER AMOUNTS OWED TO COMPANY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT); (IV) LOSS, INTERRUPTION OR USE OF DATA OR LOSS OF USE OF CLIENT EQUIPMENT; (V) ANY CONSEQUENTIAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES; OR (VI) COST OF COVER, ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, RELIANCE, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES (IF APPLICABLE), EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

d. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT,

COMPANY'S TOTAL LIABILITY TO CLIENT IN THE AGGREGATE FOR THE ENTIRE TERM (REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE CLAIMS ARE BROUGHT DURING OR AFTER THE TERM) WITH RESPECT TO ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ATTORNEYS' FEES) WILL NOT EXCEED AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO ONE (1) MONTHS FEE PAYABLE TO COMPANY PURSUANT TO THE APPLICABLE ORDER.

e. EXCEPT FOR CLIENT'S BREACH OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER SECTIONS 4, 5 a, 5 h AND 6, AND LOSS OR DAMAGE ARISING OUT OF CLIENT'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE, BAD FAITH OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, THE LIMITATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 5 c AND 5 d WILL APPLY TO ALL CLAIMS AND CAUSES OF ACTION, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER THEORY.

f. Client hereby waives the right to bring any claim against Company arising out of or in any way relating to an Order more than one (1) year after the date such Order expires or is terminated. Each party recognizes and agrees that the warranty disclaimers, limitations of liability and remedy limitations in this Agreement are materially bargained for by the parties.

g. Client acknowledges that cryptocurrency price movement, cryptocurrency difficulty, and legal and regulatory risks could have a material adverse impact on cryptocurrencies, cryptocurrency mining, Client Equipment, Services, and this Agreement. Client assumes responsibility for all such risks, and Company disclaims all types of liabilities or loss of funds that may arise as a result.

h. Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Company and its affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, subcontractors and invitees from and against any losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or relating to (i) death, personal injury, bodily injury or property damage caused by Client or Client's customers or clients or Client Equipment; (ii) breach of Client's representations, warranties, or covenants in this Agreement or in an Order or Sections 2 or 6; (iii) fraud, bad faith, negligence or willful or reckless conduct of or by Client or Client's customers or clients; (iv) Client's or Client's customers' or clients' use of the Company Facility, Services, or Client Equipment; (v) any claim whatsoever by Client's customers or clients, or any third party related to the Services or Client Equipment; or (vi) any change in, or interpretation or administration of, any laws, regulations, statutes, treaties, rules, guidelines, ordinances, codes or the like, or any proposed or anticipated changes in, or interpretations or administration of the foregoing.

6. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

a. Each party acknowledges that it and its employees or agents may, in the course of performing its responsibilities under this Agreement, be exposed to or acquire information which is proprietary to or confidential to the other party, including, without limitation, business plans, strategies, forecasts and projections and information about business structures, operations, systems, finances, assets, investments, investment strategies, software and other technology systems, and personnel, customers and suppliers (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Company's Confidential Information also includes the design, address and location of the Company Facilities (which is deemed to be not publicly known), the Services provided, equipment used at the Company Facilities, the configuration of cables, networks and services at the Company Facilities and the terms of this Agreement. Neither party may use or copy any Confidential Information except to the limited extent necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement and will not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity other than to its employees who have a need to know the Confidential Information or as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. Each party shall use the same measures that it uses to protect its own most confidential and proprietary information to protect the Confidential Information from use or disclosure in violation of this Agreement, but in no event less than commercially reasonable measures.

b. The restrictions on use of Confidential Information do not apply to information if it (i) is known to the receiving party prior to receipt from the disclosing party directly or indirectly from a source other than one having an obligation of confidentiality to the disclosing party; (ii) becomes known (independently of disclosure by the disclosing party) to the receiving party directly or indirectly from a source other than one having an obligation of confidentiality to the disclosing party; (iii) becomes publicly known or otherwise ceases to be confidential, except through a breach of this Agreement by the receiving party; or (iv) is independently developed by the receiving party. For the avoidance of doubt, the mere placement of materials or equipment containing information at a Company Facility does not constitute disclosure of such information to Company.

c. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, or at any other time at the request of the other party, each party shall return to the other party, or destroy and delete, as applicable, all Confidential Information and any copies thereof in its possession or control.

d. Neither party may use the other party's trademarks, service marks, trade names, copyrights, other intellectual property rights or other designations in any promotion, publication or press release without the prior written consent of the other party in each case, which consent may be given in an Order.

7. INSURANCE

a. Client agrees to maintain the following insurance, at its expense, during the Term, with insurers having a minimum AM Best rating of A- VII or S&P rating of A: (i) Commercial General Liability or Public Liability Insurance with a limit of US $2,000,000 per occurrence, US $4,000,000 in the aggregate (or the local currency equivalent), provided these limits may be achieved through a combination of primary and excess policies and such insurance will include coverage for bodily injury and property damage.

b. Client will furnish Company with certificates of insurance upon request that evidence the minimum levels of insurance set forth herein, list Company as an additional insured or interested party on the Commercial General Liability or Public Liability Insurance and designate that Client's insurance is primary and non-contributory. Client will provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Company of any non-renewal or cancellation of the policies referenced above.

8. MISCELLANEOUS

a. Notice. Hi Jenny and Praveena,

Hope you are doing well! Please see attached invoice INV42672 and associated support for your Hosting Services.

Hi Monica,

We are in receipt of the invoice (INV42672) for August actual hosting cost. Your email indicates that Core Scientific has been notified of "significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs," and that, as a result, "surcharges" have been added to the invoice pursuant to Section 4(f) of the Master Services Agreement ("MSA"). Pursuant to section 3(b) of the MSA, Celsius hereby disputes these surcharges as they appear in the invoice (INV42672) and any prior invoices, including the invoice (INV42658) for July actual hosting cost. While we dispute these surcharges, we do wish to work cooperatively in an effort to understand these charges and resolve this issue. To that end, please provide to Celsius any documents and materials reflecting both the "tariff increases" that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific, in each of the relevant jurisdictions (namely, Georgia, Kentucky, and Texas).

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
Jenny

Hope you are doing well! Please see attached invoice INV42672 and associated support for your Hosting Services.

Kindly note that Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs under the Master Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup. The tariff surcharges for your August 2022 usages in GA, KY and/or Marble 1, and TX sites have been added to this invoice.

Thank you, we appreciate your business and trust in Core Scientific!

Regards,
Monica

Re: Celsius Network LLC et al., Case No. 22-10964 (MG) (Jointly Administered)

Dear Mr. DuChene:

Our firm represents Celsius Mining LLC (“Celsius”). As you may be aware, on July 13, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), Celsius, Celsius Network LLC, and certain of their affiliates (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed petitions for relief under title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”). I write in regard to Core Scientific’s (“Core”) recent threats to terminate its contractual obligations and failure to otherwise perform under the Master Services Agreement (the “MSA”) and Order #10 to the MSA (“Order #10”) (together, the “Agreement”).¹

Upon the Debtors’ filing of their petitions, all creditors were automatically stayed from taking certain actions against the Debtors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Specifically, section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.” Because the Agreement is an executory contract under which mutual performance remains due, the Debtors’ interest in the Agreement constitutes property of the estate that is subject to the automatic stay. See, e.g., In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201, 212 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 138 B.R. 687, 701 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (holding that executory contracts are property of the estate).

It is blackletter law that threats to withhold contractual performance, or the failure to perform under an executory contract, violates the automatic stay. See, e.g., Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 (“[B]y unilaterally seeking to terminate [the agreement] and invoke its damages provisions, the Court finds that Claimant violated the automatic stay.”); In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. 646, 657 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009), as amended (Mar. 10, 2009) (“By refusing to perform its obligations under the Member Agreement, NCTC is interfering with Broadstripe’s property rights under the Member Agreement and acting in violation of the automatic stay.”); In re Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. 1019, 1024 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996) (“Thomasville’s actions in attempting to cancel its contract with Elder-Beerman were in violation of the automatic stay.”).

By its actions, Core has violated the automatic stay in at least the following ways:

- Following the Petition Date, Core has threatened—both during a phone call on August 22, 2022, and in emails (see email attached hereto as Exhibit C)—to terminate the Agreement or withhold performance.
- Under the Agreement, Celsius is entitled to have, and Core is obligated to provide, 71 megawatts as of August 2022 (the hosting capacity to operate at least 22,536 Celsius rigs). But Core is providing Celsius with only 9.8 megawatts (just 2,785 Celsius rigs).
- Core continues to fail to inform Celsius of additional hosting availability, despite its obligation to do so under the parties’ Agreement.

In addition to violating the automatic stay, Core has breached the parties’ Agreement in numerous ways, both before and after the Petition Date. First, Core deviated substantially from the mining rig deployment schedule the parties agreed upon in Order #10. Core delayed deploying Celsius’s mining rigs several weeks—and even months—past the agreed-upon deployment dates. Second, Core failed to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability. Instead, between December 2021 and April 2022 Core increased its own mining fleet from 67,000 to 85,000 mining rigs, while failing to notify Celsius of any additional hosting availability.

Celsius has attempted to amicably resolve these delays with Core, and Core has acknowledged its fault for the delays on several occasions. For example, on May 25, 2022, Core represented to Celsius that it would deploy 8,490 mining rigs by June 2022. Celsius agreed to that representation and relied upon it. But that representation was false, and Core again failed to meet the parties’ agreed-upon deployment schedule.

Core’s refusal to honor the terms of the Agreement violates the Bankruptcy Code, constitutes a breach of contract, and contravenes the representations that Core made to Celsius and that Celsius relied upon. As a result of Core's delays, as of the end of August 2022, Celsius has suffered losses in excess of $20 million, and continues to suffer additional losses with each day that Core refuses to satisfy its contractual obligations and immediately deploy Celsius's mining rigs.

Because Core's actions violate the automatic stay, they are void and without effect, and may necessitate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court with the attendant possibility of damages, sanctions, costs, and other expenses. See Fidelity Mortg. Inv'rs v. Camelia Builders, Inc., 550 F.2d 47 (2d Cir. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 1093 (1977); Cent. States, Se. and Sw. Areas Pension Fund v. Slotky, 956 F.2d 1369 (7th Cir. 1992).

The Debtors hereby demand that Core remedy its violations, withdraw its threats to withhold performance, and immediately deploy Celsius's mining rigs pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. If Celsius is not promptly provided written assurance that Core will do so, Celsius is fully prepared to take all actions available to it at law and equity, including seeking expedited relief from the Bankruptcy Court, forcing Core to perform pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, and pursuing claims for any and all damages incurred by Celsius as a result of Core's actions.

Please promptly confirm, in writing, that Core will immediately continue to honor its obligations under the Agreement and make no further attempt to terminate or otherwise fail to perform under the Agreement. If you have any questions or would like to discuss, please let me know. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors reserve all rights at law and in equity and waive none.

Sincerely,

/s/ Judson Brown

MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Master Services Agreement (“Agreement”) effective as of December 18, 2020 (“Effective Date”) is between CORE SCIENTIFIC, INC. (“Company”) and CELSIUS CORE LLC (“Client”).

WHEREAS, Client desires access to locate its Client Equipment (as defined below) at the Company Facility (as defined below) and receive certain Services (as defined below); and

WHEREAS, Company desires to provide such Services at its Company Facility.

The parties agree as follows:

1. AGREEMENT STRUCTURE

a. This Agreement provides general terms applicable to Company’s provision of certain services, including, without limitation, colocation, hosting, rack space, security, monitoring, maintenance, utilities, Client Equipment maintenance and repair, facility management, account management, network and data access, technical support, and heat and thermal management services (“Services”) to Client in a data center owned or operated by Company or its affiliates (“Company Facility”) in mutually agreed transactions described in mutually executed ordering documents in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto that reference and are governed by this Agreement (“Orders”). Each Order will be a separate agreement between Company and Client and will be deemed to incorporate the terms of this Agreement by reference. Company may require Customer to provide evidence of creditworthiness or credit support acceptable to Company in its sole discretion as a condition to accepting any Order. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the specific terms of an Order, the specific terms of the Order govern with respect to such Order.

2. SERVICES AND COMPANY FACILITY

a. Company will provide Client the Services at a Company Facility set forth in an Order. This Agreement is not intended to and does not constitute a lease of any real or personal property or a grant of any other real property interest. Unless otherwise set forth in an Order, Client Equipment is owned by Client will not be construed as fixtures or fittings or otherwise attached to a Company Facility. Company retains title to all racking, connectors, fittings, parts and other materials used or provided by Company at a Company Facility to provide Client the Services. Client acknowledges and agrees that access to a Company Facility may be provided only during Company’s ordinary business hours and only upon Company’s prior written consent, which shall be subject in all events to the terms of this Agreement and may be withheld, conditioned or delayed in Company’s sole discretion.. Client will be liable for the actions of all persons accessing Company Facility on its behalf.

b. Company has the right to review and the sole right to approve any delivery, installation (including, without limitation, the location and position of Client Equipment at the Company Facility), replacement or removal work with respect to Client’s computer hardware or other tangible equipment (“Client Equipment”) at a Company Facility. Client shall be fully responsible for delivering all Client Equipment to Company at a specified Company Facility on or before the applicable scheduled delivery date, each as specified in an Order. Client will be responsible for all risk of loss or damage to Client Equipment at all times until such Client Equipment is accepted by Company at a designated Company Facility.

c. Client Equipment will adhere to Company’s specifications, procedures, rules, and regulations, including, without limitation, equipment labeling and tracking and security practices and policies for the Company Facility, all of which are incorporated herein by this reference. If Company determines in its sole discretion that Client Equipment or related operating software does not conform to its policies or is not suitable for the provision of Services at the Company Facility, Company may suspend installation of Client Equipment and operating software or commencement of the Services until Company approves of the Client Equipment and operating software. Company has no responsibility or liability for any loss or damage to Client Equipment, including without limitation any damage to Client Equipment, failure to adhere to any manufacturer warranty, the voiding of any manufacturer warranty or loss of or inability to collect under any manufacturer warranty, unless directly caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of Company.

d. Client is responsible for costs and expenses regarding the installation, repair, replacement and removal of Client Equipment and tariffs, taxes, shipping costs or other expenses associated with owning, shipping, importing or transporting Client Equipment. Upon any expiration or termination of an applicable Order, Company will provide Client with a written notice, which may be by email (the "Retrieval Notice"), of the date when Client Equipment is ready to be removed from Company Facility, which will be at Client's sole expense. Such notice will document the condition of Client Equipment being prepared for shipment, any outstanding amounts owed by Client to Company and Client shall have five (5) calendar days from the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice to pay any outstanding amounts owed to Company and remove at Client's sole cost and expense Client Equipment from Company Facility. Client will hold Company harmless from any damage caused to Client Equipment during such pickup and removal of Client Equipment. The failure or delay by Client to retrieve Client Equipment on or before the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice will constitute abandonment of Client Equipment under the laws of the jurisdiction where the Client Equipment is located and Company will be entitled to pursue at Client's sole risk and expense all available remedies, including, without limitation, the actions set forth in Section 4(d), as applicable.

e. In order to continue to provide the Services, from time to time Company may request, and Client shall promptly provide, information regarding Client Equipment, Client's related operating software, Client's systems, and other information reasonably necessary in Company's provision of the Services.

f. If software and services of a third party are requested by Client in conjunction with the Services ("Third Party Services") and identified in an Order, Client acknowledges and agrees that such Third Party Services are the responsibility of the third party, subject to separate terms and conditions between such third party and Client and Company accepts no responsibility for the performance of such Third Party Services or any loss or damage arising from or associated with the provision of such Third Party Services.

3. PAYMENT TERMS AND TAXES

a. Company will invoice Client monthly in advance for all applicable fees for use of Company Facility and provision of Services as set forth in the applicable Order. Client will pay all invoiced amounts in US dollars within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the invoice. All payments must be (i) in US dollars into an ACH account number as set forth in the applicable Order; or (ii) to another account or form of payment directed by Company. Interest shall be charged on past due amounts at the lesser of (A) one and a half percent (1.5%) per month; or (B) the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

b. Client may, in good faith, dispute any invoice or any part thereof (a "Disputed Amount") by submitting a written notice of such dispute along with reasonable supporting documentation within three (3) calendar days of the date of the initial invoice on which the Disputed Amount appears, failing which Client waives all rights to dispute such Disputed Amount and to file any claim. Company will review the Disputed Amount after its receipt of the relevant notice and if Company determines that Client was billed in error, a credit for the amount invoiced incorrectly will be made to the next invoice. If Company determines that the amount was invoiced correctly, Client will pay the amount by the due date of the next invoice. For clarity, Client shall promptly pay all undisputed amounts.

c. All amounts payable to Company under this Agreement exclude applicable taxes. Client is responsible for (i) taxes related to its activities and the ownership and operation of Client Equipment; and (ii) taxes imposed, levied or assessed thereon by any governmental or other authorities. If Client is required to make any deduction, withholding or payment for taxes in any jurisdiction on amounts payable to Company, such amounts will be increased such that after making such deduction, Company receives an amount equal to what it would have received if such deduction, withholding or payment had not been made.

4. TERM, TERMINATION, MODIFICATION AND SUSPENSION

a. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until terminated as permitted by this Agreement. Each Order commences on the effective date set forth in the Order, has the initial term ("Initial Term") set forth in the Order, and thereafter automatically renews for the additional periods set forth in the Order, or if no renewal period is set forth then one (1) year periods, (each, a "Renewal term" and collectively, the "Term") unless Client notifies Company in writing not less than ninety (90) calendar days before such renewal of its desire for the order not to renew.

b. Either party may terminate an Order upon written notice to the other party and take such other action identified in Section 4 d. below if the other party materially breaches such Order or this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days (5 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance (as defined below) or 2 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance two or more times during any twelve month period) . If the breach (other than Client failure to pay amounts when due) cannot be cured within thirty (30) calendar days, the breaching party shall be given a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of the notice, to cure the breach, provided that the breaching party acts promptly and diligently to cure such breach.

c. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party if there have been no Orders in effect for twelve (12) consecutive months.

d. In addition to the remedy set forth in Section 4 b. above if Client fails to pay all invoiced amounts when due (an "Unpaid Balance"), or otherwise fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement after opportunity to cure as provided in Section 4 b above Company may, in its sole discretion, take certain actions including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense:

- (i) suspend the provision of the Services;
- (ii) disconnect Client Equipment and store it;
- (iii) declare all amounts due under the applicable Order through the balance of the Term to be immediately due and payable;
- (iv) operate Client Equipment for cryptocurrency mining and other activities at Company's sole discretion and direct all resulting proceeds to Company's own account until Company has recovered all amounts due, including, without limitation, any reinstatement, disconnection or storage fees or costs;
- (v) terminate this Agreement and all Orders; and
- (vi) exercise all other rights under this Agreement, at law, in equity or otherwise.

Unless Company has terminated this Agreement, Company will reverse the suspension of the provision of the Company Facility and Services and disconnection of Client Equipment as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to the suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee. Thereafter, Company may, at its sole discretion, require an advance payment equal to the amount of one billing invoice.

e. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company may suspend its provision of all or a portion of the Services and disconnect all of a portion of Client Equipment immediately if Company determines in its sole discretion that: Client's use of the Services or Client Equipment (i) may adversely impact or pose a security risk to Company's operation or maintenance of the Company Facility or Company's other clients; (ii) may subject Company to liability; or (iii) is not in compliance with this Agreement or Company's policies. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension or disconnection. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to reverse such suspension or disconnection as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied that Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to such suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee as set forth in the applicable Order. Further, Company may terminate this Agreement and all Orders if such suspension or disconnection continues for at least two (2) calendar days or occurs more than three (3) times in any twelve (12) month period. For clarity, during the period of suspension or disconnection, Client remains responsible for all fees and charges Client incurs during such period. Further, after the Effective Date, if Company determines in its sole and absolute discretion that as a result of any change in, or interpretation, introduction or administration of, any laws, regulations, statutes, treaties, rules, guidelines, ordinances, codes or the like, or any proposed or anticipated changes in, or interpretations, introduction or administration of the foregoing (a "Change in Law"), has resulted in an increase in Company's cost of compliance with such Change in Law then Company may, in its commercially reasonable discretion, take certain actions, including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense: (i) terminate this Agreement, any or all Orders; and/or (ii) modify the Services as may be necessary to account for such Change in Law. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client of such Company actions and the effective date of such actions.

f. Further, and notwithstanding the Change in Law related costs above, after the Effective Date, if there are any increases, changes in, or introduction or administration of, any new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services, Company may, in its sole and absolute discretion, pass through all such amounts to Client ("Increased Costs") and Client shall pay all Increased Costs in accordance with the payment and invoicing procedures as set forth in this Agreement.

g. Company shall not be liable for any Client loss or damage whatsoever as a result of the exercise of its rights under this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement or an Order by Company, Company is entitled to recover from Client all loss or damages incurred by Company as a result of such termination, outstanding fees, costs, charges, assessments, reimbursements, and expenses (including, without limitation, costs of collection and reasonable attorneys' fees).

h. In addition to Section 4(f), the Company may terminate or suspend all or a portion of the Services if necessary to be in compliance with applicable law, rules, regulations, administrative or judicial orders or decree. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension. Client agrees that the Company shall have no liability whatsoever to Client for any damage, loss, expense or cost as a result of such termination or suspension.

5. WARRANTIES, LIMITATION OF LIABILITY, INDEMNITY

a. Each party represents, warrants, and covenants that it has full legal capacity, right, power and authority to execute and perform its obligations under this Agreement. Company represents, warrants, and covenants that it will provide Company Facility and perform the Services in a professional and workmanlike manner. Client represents, warrants, and covenants (i) Client owns and has good title to Client Equipment, free and clear of any mortgage, pledge, lien, charge, security interest, claim or other encumbrance or has interest in Client Equipment as part of a financing or other arrangement disclosed and approved by Company; (ii) Client Equipment has no defects, is in good condition and is adequate for the purpose it will be used, and is not in need of maintenance or repair except for ordinary, routine maintenance and repairs that are not material in nature or cost; (iii) Client Equipment has not experienced any failure or outage and has not been modified in any way from its original manufactured condition; (iv) Client Equipment is in a condition suitable for continued optimal cryptocurrency mining operations, including, without limitation, in the same manner as conducted prior to the Effective Date; (v) Client Equipment has been operated at all times indoors in an appropriate temperature-controlled environment and consistent with the manufacturer's recommended temperatures and operating conditions; (vi) Client Equipment has always been transported and/or handled in a protected manner normally expected when transporting and/or handling sensitive computer hardware; (vii) Client will use the Services only for lawful purposes, and Client will not transmit, retransmit or store material with or in Client Equipment or with or in Company Facility in violation of any federal or state law or regulations or local code, rule, regulation or ordinance; and (viii) Client will comply with applicable laws and regulations in connection with this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, Client further represents, warrants, and covenants neither Client, any officer, director, employee, partner, controlling shareholder, affiliated entity nor anyone acting on Client's behalf (A) has used or disclosed or will use or disclose non-public information obtained from Company, (B) has violated or will violate applicable anti-bribery or anti-corruption laws, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the U.K. Bribery Act 2010, (C) has violated or will violate applicable anti-money laundering statutes, or (D) is a Denied Party or subject to any U.S. sanction imposed by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

b. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, COMPANY DOES NOT MAKE AND HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, EXPRESS, IMPLIED AND STATUTORY WARRANTIES THAT COMPANY FACILITY OR SERVICES WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, ERROR-FREE, OR COMPLETELY SECURE, AND THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR SATISFACTORY QUALITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NONINFRINGEMENT OF ANY THIRD PARTY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS. ALL COMPANY FACILITY AND SERVICES ARE PROVIDED OR PERFORMED ON AN "AS IS", "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS, AND CLIENT'S USE OF THE COMPANY FACILITY AND SERVICES IS SOLELY AT ITS OWN RISK. CLIENT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT COMPANY DOES NOT AND CANNOT CONTROL THE FLOW OF DATA OR POWER TO OR FROM COMPANY'S NETWORK AND/OR THE INTERNET OR POWER GRID, WHICH ARE PROVIDED OR CONTROLLED BY THIRD PARTIES, AND THAT ACTIONS OR INACTIONS OF THIRD PARTIES CAN IMPAIR OR DISRUPT COMPANY'S CONNECTIONS TO THE INTERNET OR POWER GRID (OR PORTIONS THEREOF) INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, INTERRUPTIONS IN SERVICE CAUSED BY GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS OR ORDERS, SYSTEM CAPACITY LIMITATIONS OR LIMITATIONS IMPOSED BY, OR FAILURES OF, AN UNDERLYING COMMUNICATIONS CARRIER. COMPANY WILL ENDEAVOR TO TAKE ACTIONS IT DEEMS APPROPRIATE IN ITS SOLE DISCRETION TO REMEDY AND AVOID SUCH EVENTS. HOWEVER, COMPANY CANNOT AND DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT SUCH EVENTS WILL NOT OCCUR, AND COMPANY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL LIABILITY RESULTING FROM OR RELATED TO SUCH EVENTS. COMPANY HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACTS OR OMISSIONS BY COMPANY'S OTHER CUSTOMERS AND CLIENTS AND OTHER THIRD PARTIES.

c. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR (I) LOST PROFITS; (II) LOSS OF BUSINESS; (III) LOSS OF REVENUES (EXCEPT THAT CLIENT SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY FEES OR OTHER AMOUNTS OWED TO COMPANY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT); (IV) LOSS, INTERRUPTION OR USE OF DATA OR LOSS OF USE OF CLIENT EQUIPMENT; (V) ANY CONSEQUENTIAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES; OR (VI) COST OF COVER, ANY INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, RELIANCE, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES (IF APPLICABLE), EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

d. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY IN THIS AGREEMENT,

COMPANY'S TOTAL LIABILITY TO CLIENT IN THE AGGREGATE FOR THE ENTIRE TERM (REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE CLAIMS ARE BROUGHT DURING OR AFTER THE TERM) WITH RESPECT TO ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ATTORNEYS' FEES) WILL NOT EXCEED AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO ONE (1) MONTHS FEE PAYABLE TO COMPANY PURSUANT TO THE APPLICABLE ORDER.

e. EXCEPT FOR CLIENT'S BREACH OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER SECTIONS 4, 5 a, 5 h AND 6, AND LOSS OR DAMAGE ARISING OUT OF CLIENT'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE, BAD FAITH OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, THE LIMITATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 5 c AND 5 d WILL APPLY TO ALL CLAIMS AND CAUSES OF ACTION, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER THEORY.

f. Client hereby waives the right to bring any claim against Company arising out of or in any way relating to an Order more than one (1) year after the date such Order expires or is terminated. Each party recognizes and agrees that the warranty disclaimers, limitations of liability and remedy limitations in this Agreement are materially bargained for by the parties.

g. Client acknowledges that cryptocurrency price movement, cryptocurrency difficulty, and legal and regulatory risks could have a material adverse impact on cryptocurrencies, cryptocurrency mining, Client Equipment, Services, and this Agreement. Client assumes responsibility for all such risks, and Company disclaims all types of liabilities or loss of funds that may arise as a result.

h. Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Company and its affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, subcontractors and invitees from and against any losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or relating to (i) death, personal injury, bodily injury or property damage caused by Client or Client's customers or clients or Client Equipment; (ii) breach of Client's representations, warranties, or covenants in this Agreement or in an Order or Sections 2 or 6; (iii) fraud, bad faith, negligence or willful or reckless conduct of or by Client or Client's customers or clients; (iv) Client's or Client's customers' or clients' use of the Company Facility, Services, or Client Equipment; (v) any claim whatsoever by Client's customers or clients, or any third party related to the Services or Client Equipment; or (vi) any change in, or interpretation or administration of, any laws, regulations, statutes, treaties, rules, guidelines, ordinances, codes or the like, or any proposed or anticipated changes in, or interpretations or administration of the foregoing.

6. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

a. Each party acknowledges that it and its employees or agents may, in the course of performing its responsibilities under this Agreement, be exposed to or acquire information which is proprietary to or confidential to the other party, including, without limitation, business plans, strategies, forecasts and projections and information about business structures, operations, systems, finances, assets, investments, investment strategies, software and other technology systems, and personnel, customers and suppliers (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Company's Confidential Information also includes the design, address and location of the Company Facilities (which is deemed to be not publicly known), the Services provided, equipment used at the Company Facilities, the configuration of cables, networks and services at the Company Facilities and the terms of this Agreement. Neither party may use or copy any Confidential Information except to the limited extent necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement and will not disclose any Confidential Information to any person or entity other than to its employees who have a need to know the Confidential Information or as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. Order Term. Subject to acceptance by Provider, the term of this Order shall commence on the Commencement Date and continue until the second anniversary of the Commencement Date (the “Initial Term”), unless sooner terminated (i) by Provider, as provided above, (ii) by mutual agreement of the parties, or (iii) pursuant to Section 4 of the Agreement. Unless earlier terminated, this Order shall automatically renew for successive 12-month renewal terms (“Renewal Term”) unless terminated during a renewal term as set forth in the Agreement.

Fees. Client shall pay the fees provided for in this Order. The Fees for Services will be determined initially by reference to the Assumed power consumption per Unit of each deployed Unit, multiplied by the Hosting-Services Rate (each as set forth above in this Order). Subsequent invoices will contain any additional charges incurred by Client and adjustments resulting from any differences between the Fees for Services invoiced in the preceding month and the Fee for Services based on Provider's determination of power utilized by Client during that month, as well as any adjustments to Provider's estimate of power to be utilized by Client in the upcoming month. Fees for Services for each month shall be paid in advance, in accordance with Section 3 of the Agreement.

Third Party Code. Except to the extent arising from or relating to Provider's gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct, Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Company and its affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, subcontractors and invitees from and against any losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or relating to Client's installation or use of any non-standard software or firmware in connection with the Client Equipment.

Subcontracting and Assignment. Section 8d. of the Agreement is hereby amended to read in its entirety:

- d. Subcontracting and Assignment. Company may permit any affiliate, independent contractor or other third party to perform any of Company's obligations hereunder provided that Company remains primarily liable for the performance of its obligations. Company may assign, delegate, or transfer this Agreement or any of its rights and obligations hereunder without notice to or prior written consent of Client. Client may not assign, delegate or transfer this Agreement or any of its rights and obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of Company; provided, however, Client may assign, delegate or transfer an Order pursuant to this Agreement to a third party upon the written consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably, withheld, obstructed or delayed if such assignment is to a third party not competitive to Company and such party executes a new Order on standard terms and conditions containing the hosting price and hosting term set forth in the Order to be assigned. Any assignment or transfer in violation of this Agreement is void. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of all permitted successors and assigns. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or will confer upon any third party any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement

Warranty: Company does not make and hereby disclaims all warranties with respect to the Units. Company shall initiate warranty claims with Unit manufacturer. Company cannot and does not guarantee that warranty claims will be accepted by manufacturer.

Client agrees and confirms that:

- (i) It has clean title to the Client Equipment and has not entered into any agreement that would interfere with Provider's exercise of its remedies under section 4.d of the Agreement.
- (ii) Neither Client nor Client's customers will use the Services for any illegal activity; and
- (iii) Neither Client nor its customers are subject to any sanctions imposed by the Office of Foreign Asset control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

Notification of Hosting Availability: Company will notify Client as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any, and provide Client up to 10 additional MW per month at a hosting services rate of $0.0625 per KWh. Additional hosting availability if available will be the subject of a separate order and provided to Client on a priority basis, subject to Client acceptance.

Client agrees to replace sold, damaged and other inoperable Units within 90 days to maintain the aggregate number of Units subject to this Order. Provider agrees to a 500 Unit inoperable threshold for Client to replace, sold, damages and other inoperable Units. Additional equipment may be added to this Order at the Hosted Services Rate provided upon the mutual agreement of Provider and Client.

Re: Master Services Agreement Between Core Scientific Inc. and Celsius Network LLC, Dated December 18, 2020 (the "Master Services Agreement")

Dear Mr. Brown:

Cooley is counsel to Core Scientific, Inc. ("Core"). In that capacity, I am responding to your letter to Todd DuChene dated September 9, 2022 regarding the above referenced Master Services Agreement (the "Agreement") and various Orders that incorporate the Agreement (the "September 9 Letter"). All capitalized terms have the meanings given to them in the Agreement unless otherwise defined.

Your September 9 Letter accuses Core of "threats to terminate" the Agreement and "failure to otherwise perform under the [Agreement]." These accusations are baseless. The sole evidence cited in support of the alleged "threats to terminate" is an automatically generated message from Core's accounts payable email address. (September 9 Letter, Ex. C.) This automatically generated email cites a list of remedies for non-payment that are standard to Core's service agreements, and which appear in Section 4 of the Agreement between Core and Celsius. Notably, the automated email does not actually invoke any of the referenced remedies, let alone termination. Furthermore, there is no indication that any real person from Core initiated the email transmission to Celsius or had its debtor in possession status in mind. No reasonable person could form a belief that the automated communication constituted a threat to terminate the Agreement.¹ To resolve all doubt, Core disclaims the automated email as an invocation of Section 4 of the Agreement.

Celsius' accusations of breach also lack merit. First, Core is not obligated to "inform Celsius of additional hosting availability." The Agreement contains no such requirement, and Core identifies no provision in the Agreement to support such a claim. Core disputes Celsius' claim that Core has failed to provide Celsius with hosting capacity in accordance with the Agreement or any Order. For example, Celsius does not allege that Core has taken any Client Equipment off-line or refused to install any Client Equipment. Celsius alleges certain delays from earlier in 2022 but does not specify any pending uncured breaches by Core, let alone any threats by Core to breach the Agreement. Moreover, any alleged breaches would be subject to the cure periods set forth in Section 4(b) of the Agreement and subject to the limitation of liability provisions of Section 5.

¹ Also notable are the extensive redactions to subsequent messages among personnel for Celsius and a non-lawyer at its outside consultants Alvarez & Marsal, casting doubt over whether Celsius actually perceived the automated email as a "threat to terminate" the Agreement. The September 9 Letter also references an alleged verbal threat to terminate the Agreement "during a phone call on August 22, 2022 email, but does not identify a source of the alleged threat. In any event Core has never invoked the termination provisions of Section 4 of the Agreement.

Judson Brown, P.C.
September 20, 2022
Page Two

For these reasons, the authorities cited in the September 9 Letter are inapposite to the facts. Core reserves all of its legal rights, including without limitations, all rights as a creditor under the Bankruptcy Code.

While Celsius prematurely and without basis rushes to judgment that Core has threatened to terminate the Agreement (or is in material uncured breach), the fact remains that Celsius has accrued, and is accruing, post-petition obligations under the Agreement, and it appears that Celsius desires that its contractual arrangement with Celsius be a central piece of its reorganization plans. (See e.g. Ex. C to September 9, 2022 Letter.) If that is indeed the case, and as I'm sure you are aware (i) Celsius must perform its own monetary obligations under the Agreement during the pendency of its chapter 11 proceeding in order to continue to enjoy the benefits of a continuing relationship with Core; and (ii) to the extent it wishes to assume the Agreement, it must make the requisite showing of adequate assurances of future performance and cure its outstanding obligations, including any payments owed to Celsius at this time. Otherwise, Core will have no option but to seek remedies and relief from the Court with respect to the Agreement. The September 9, 2022 Letter is conspicuously silent on those vital issues, which are necessary to continue the current commercial arrangement. As I described in our telephone call on September 14, Core had been expecting the parties to continue in discussions of how they may wish to proceed with their relationship under the Agreement, now that Celsius is a debtor in possession. Core welcomes such discussions and is committed to engaging in good faith and reserves all rights with respect to all of the foregoing.

Sincerely,

CONCLUSION	40

Core Scientific, Inc. (“Core”), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby files this objection (the “Objection”) to the Debtors’ Motion to Enforce the Automatic Stay and for Civil Contempt (D.E. 917) (the “Contempt Motion”) and respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. As Core will show using record evidence in opposition to the Contempt Motion and in support of Core’s separately requested affirmative relief, the Contempt Motion is a desperate attempt—in the midst of what appears to be a very challenging chapter 11 process that is far from the Debtors’ hoped-for outcome in these cases—to use the Debtors’ bankruptcy case as a sword to rewrite a hosting contract between Core and Celsius Mining LLC (“Celsius”) and in the process attempt to foist millions of dollars of increased power costs onto Core’s balance sheet instead of their own. Celsius’s attempt is contrary to the contract, the parties’ course of conduct, and the contractual relationship Core has had with virtually every other customer. Quite simply, Core did not violate the stay—it is Celsius that has breached and is breaching the contract. Celsius either needs to adhere to the contract, or Core and Celsius must terminate their relationship before Celsius causes yet another business partner to enter insolvency proceedings.

2. The Debtors’ postpetition interpretation of the contract—that unlike virtually every other Core customer, Celsius did not have to pay the increased tariffs charged by utilities—is unsupported by the plain language of the contract, the general industry understanding of the contract’s terms, and how arrangements between data hosting companies and cryptocurrency miners work. It is also contravened by Celsius’s prepetition course of conduct, in which Celsius has willingly paid these increased power costs (the “PPT Charges”) without objection.

3. The Contempt Motion also claims that Core delayed its implementation of Celsius’s machines and threatened to terminate the contract. Not so. Here, the Lawlor Declaration (D.E. 918) omits critical facts—that Celsius knew all about at the time—which explain the external causes for delays in deployment. And, in any event, it is undisputed that every machine delivered by Celsius so far has been deployed. As for the claimed threat, Jeffrey Pratt, who was at the meeting from Core, explains in his declaration that no such threat was ever made.

4. The Contempt Motion also claims that Core failed to offer additional hosting availability to Celsius. Here again, Celsius is wrong—Core had no “additional hosting availability” to offer Celsius, as that term is used in the contract. Nor has Celsius been harmed by any alleged failure to notify Celsius of purported additional hosting availability.

5. In the end, the Contempt Motion is an aggressive step taken by Debtors facing dropping Bitcoin prices and increasing natural gas prices, looking for a way to have someone else pay for the losses sustained by their investors. But there is simply no basis under the contract or at equity to force Core to subsidize the Debtors’ unprofitable business.

6. Even if Core were not performing its obligations under the contract (though it is), such inaction would not constitute an attempt to “exercise control over property of the estate” in violation of the automatic stay. 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). The Contempt Motion cites older cases to suggest otherwise, while ignoring a recent, on-point U.S. Supreme Court case stating unequivocally that an “affirmative act” is required to implicate section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. City of Chicago v. Fulton, 141 S. Ct. 585, 590 (2021) (“Fulton”). Mere non-compliance with an obligation is insufficient. Celsius has no answer to this.

7. One need look no further than the form of relief the Debtors are seeking to recognize their desperate ploy. Rather than filing an adversary proceeding on what is essentially a breach of contract claim, the Debtors instead filed a motion for contempt based on an alleged automatic stay violation. The reason, though not apparent from the face of the Contempt Motion, is that the Debtors are attempting to use bankruptcy doctrines to rewrite the contract. Of particular importance, the contract effectively provides Core the right to terminate it for any reason whatsoever by limiting Core's liability for any damages to one month's fee:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, [Core]'s total liability to [Celsius] in the aggregate for the entire term ... with respect to all claims arising from or related to the subject matter of this Agreement ... will not exceed an amount equal to one (1) months [sic] fee payable to [Core] pursuant to the applicable Order.

Pratt Decl. Ex. A (Master Services Agreement) § 5.d (the “MSA” or, together with Order #10, as amended,² and prior Orders, the “Agreement”). The MSA also eliminates Core's liability for Celsius's lost profits, loss of business, loss of revenues, any consequential or indirect damages, any punitive damages, and the like. MSA § 5.c. Thus, Celsius takes the aggressive position that Core should be held in civil contempt for violating the automatic stay for nonperformance, in order to try to use the happenstance of bankruptcy to tag Core with uncapped damages—Celsius's mining losses, lost profits, etc.—in contravention of the parties' prepetition contract.

8. Along with making baseless factual allegations of breach, the Contempt Motion grounds its theory of relief (contempt) on a single case, Windstream Holdings, where a bankruptcy court found a contract counterparty in contempt for violating the automatic stay by taking actions that impacted the debtors' customers. Contempt Motion ¶ 54 (citing In re Windstream Holdings, Inc., 627 B.R. 32, 47, 49 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2021) (“Windstream I”).

9. Unfortunately for the Debtors, Windstream I is not only distinguishable on the facts, as discussed below, but the case was recently reversed on appeal. Windstream Holdings, Inc. v. Charter Commc'ns Inc. (In re Windstream Holdings, Inc.), No. 21-CV-4552 (CS), 2022 WL 5245633 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 6, 2022) (“Windstream II”). The District Court held that for a court to find a party in civil contempt for a stay violation against a corporate debtor, the movant must satisfy the high Taggart standard, i.e. that contempt is unavailable where the stay violation is a close call. Even if the allegations in the Contempt Motion were true (they are not), they do not rise to the level of conduct needed for a court to invoke the serious remedy of civil contempt.

10. The Debtors' attempt to rewrite the parties' Agreement, including their effort to eliminate the limitation of liability provisions and shift to Core the increased cost of electricity they agreed to pay, is contrary to doctrines establishing that a debtor does not gain additional rights under a contract simply by filing for bankruptcy. See Mission Prod. Holdings, Inc. v. Tempnology, LLC, 139 S. Ct. 1652, 1663 (2019) ("[I]f the not-yet debtor was subject to a counterparty's contractual right ..., so too is the trustee or debtor once the bankruptcy petition has been filed.").

11. Indeed, Celsius is the party breaching the Agreement by refusing to pay Core all amounts due and owing under the Agreement, including for postpetition power costs. The Debtors have no right under the Agreement to refuse to pay the PPT Charges, even if disputed. Despite Core's clear contractual right, if Celsius fails to pay, to cease providing services or exercise self-help from Celsius's machines by using them for itself to remedy its losses, Core instead has continued providing postpetition services to Celsius for months, effectively bankrolling the Debtors' failing business to Core's own detriment. This is unsustainable. Core needs this issue resolved promptly. To put it bluntly, making Core continue to pay for Celsius's increased power costs and depriving Core of its contractual right to end its business arrangement with Celsius when it so chooses will force Core to consider its own strategic options, as its business model is not based on having to pay its customers' increased electricity costs, and it cannot afford to do so.

12. As a result of the precarious position in which Celsius's actions have put Core, contemporaneously with this Objection, Core is filing a motion seeking affirmative relief to ensure that it is not unduly prejudiced as a result of Celsius's chapter 11 case. First, Core is filing a motion for immediate payment of its administrative expense claims, particularly the over $1 million in postpetition PPT Charges Celsius has refused to pay. Second, Core is filing a motion to lift the stay (or confirmation that the stay does not apply) to exercise its termination right, pursue remedies under the Agreement, and/or cease performing under the Agreement and cap any damages at one month of fees pursuant to Section 5.d of the MSA. In the alternative, Core seeks an order compelling Celsius to assume or reject the Agreement as soon as possible.

13. Importantly, Core requests that the Court rule on the disputed contract interpretation issues as quickly as possible, so that Core can consider its options, consistent with its fiduciary duties to its own stakeholders, rather than being kept in limbo regarding whether it needs to continue covering millions of dollars of Celsius's costs. Once again, U.S. Supreme Court precedent rejects any contention that Celsius can continue to receive benefits under the Agreement while not paying for those benefits. See NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 531 (1984) ("If the debtor-in-possession elects to continue to receive benefits from the other party to an executory contract pending a decision to reject or assume the contract, the debtor-in-possession is obligated to pay for the reasonable value of those services.").

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Core Agrees to Provide Specific Hosting Services—Not to Insure against the Risk of Rising Electricity Costs

14. On December 18, 2020, Core agreed to provide certain services to Celsius in connection with hosting Celsius's cryptocurrency mining machines, which work to create (or "mine") new cryptocurrency. MSA § 1.a; Mares Decl. ¶ 14; Pratt Decl. ¶ 4.³ These mining machines are powerful computers that solve complex equations associated with the use and creation of cryptocurrency coins. Mares Decl. ¶¶ 12-15. Hosting such machines, as Core does, involves industrial-scale power delivery and cooling systems, trained personnel, and specialized equipment. Id. ¶¶ 16-17, 23. Thus, cryptocurrency mining firms like Celsius often use hosting providers like Core to scale their capacity. Id. ¶¶ 16-17, 30.

15. Cryptocurrency mining machines consume vast quantities of electricity. Pratt Decl. ¶ 5; Mares Decl. ¶ 16 (industry expert explaining that large mining facilities can consume more power than entire cities). Increases in the cost of electricity therefore present a significant financial risk for mining firms like Celsius.

16. The MSA explicitly gives Core the “sole and absolute discretion” to pass through to Celsius “any increases, changes in ... tariffs ... with respect to the provision of Services.” MSA § 4.f. If Core decides to pass through any increased tariffs, the MSA requires that Celsius “shall pay all Increased Costs.” Id. Section 4.f of the MSA, which is incorporated by reference into Order #10 with Celsius, is a standard clause that Core included in its service agreements with all its customers. Xia Decl. ¶¶ 3, 5; Pratt Decl. ¶ 8.

17. “Tariffs,” as used in Section 4.f, include the rates charged by electric utilities to their customers. Xia Decl. ¶ 4; Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 8, 44-45; Mares Decl. ¶¶ 19-20, 24-29. These tariffs are comprised of multiple elements, such as fees for maintaining the utility’s infrastructure and repaying debt, variable rates based on what time of day or season the electricity was consumed, and demand charges. Mares Decl. ¶ 20. One element of an electric utility tariff that accounts for fuel prices is a “Fuel Cost Adjustment,” which automatically adjusts based on fluctuations in the prevailing price of the fuel(s) burned by the utility’s power plants. Id.; see also Pratt Decl. ¶ 44. This is shown by the rate tariff published by the Tennessee Valley Authority, which explicitly includes a fuel cost adjustment as part of its rate formula. Pratt Decl. ¶ 44.

18. In addition to the plain meaning of “tariff” as used in the MSA, industry usage shows that this term includes utility rates. Xia Decl. ¶ 4 (confirming this understanding); Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 8, 44-45 (same); see also Mares Decl. ¶¶ 24-29 (expert testifying that tariffs include fuel adjustments and that pass-through of increased power tariffs is consistent with industry practices).

19. Electricity is by far the largest cost for cryptocurrency mining infrastructure providers like Core, typically comprising 60-75% of total operating costs. Mares Decl. ¶ 18. Thus, it is standard practice for hosting firms like Core to pass through electricity price increases to customers. Id. ¶¶ 24-29; see also Pratt Decl. ¶ 8 (explaining that this is a “cornerstone of Core’s business model”). Fixed-rate service agreements without an option to pass through increased electricity costs would not make business sense. See Pratt Decl. ¶ 8.

B. Core’s Variable Payment Structure

20. Contrary to Celsius’s unsupported assertion that Core agreed to a “fixed rate” for its services (Lawlor Decl., D.E. 918 at ¶ 7), Order #10 provides that Core’s fees:

will be determined initially by reference to the Assumed power consumption per Unit of each deployed Unit, multiplied by the Hosting-Services Rate (each as set forth above in this Order). Subsequent invoices will contain any additional charges incurred by [Celsius] and adjustments resulting from any differences between the Fees for Services invoiced in the preceding month and the Fee for Services based on [Core’s] determination of power utilized by [Celsius] during that month, as well as any adjustments to [Core’s] estimate of power to be utilized by [Celsius] in the upcoming month.

Order #10 (Pratt Decl. Ex. B), page 4 (emphasis added).⁴

21. That is, Order #10 specifically contemplates adjustment of Core’s initially estimated fees to account for “additional charges” such as the increased tariffs in Section 4.f. Id.

22. What's more, Celsius routinely discussed power pricing with Core. Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 46-47. This would be irrelevant if Celsius paid a fixed rate, as it now contends. Id.

23. Order #10 also sets out a prepayment schedule, whereby certain payments are due from Celsius before its machines are deployed. See Order #10, pages 1-3.⁵

24. Core does not receive any of the cryptocurrency coins mined by Celsius's machines or share in any appreciation of such coins. Pratt Decl. ¶ 15.

C. Over the Years, Core Rigorously Deploys Celsius's Machines

25. Once Celsius delivers a cryptocurrency mining machine to Core, Core goes through a process to "deploy" that machine, i.e. render it operational. Pratt Decl. ¶ 6. To deploy a cryptocurrency mining machine, Core must, among other things: (i) provide installation racks; (ii) make power and network connections; (iii) ensure adequate airflow and cooling systems to dissipate the large amount of heat these machines generate; and (iv) secure industrial-scale power supply from the utility. Pratt Decl. ¶ 6; see also Mares Decl. ¶¶ 12-17, 23.

26. As of today, Core has deployed all machines that Celsius has delivered, including 10,885 machines under Order #10 and 26,655 machines total. Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 12, 35.

27. While Celsius now claims that Core unreasonably delayed deployment of some machines, that is not accurate. The "Deployment Month" listed in Order #10 simply indicates when Celsius was expected to deliver its machines to Core for deployment. Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 13-14, 16, 19; see also MSA § 2.b ("Client shall be fully responsible for delivering all Client Equipment to [Core] at a specified Company Facility on or before the applicable scheduled delivery date, each as specified in an Order."); Order #10, page 1.

28. Core's rights regarding deployment are set forth in Section 2.b of the MSA—it “has the right to review and the sole right to approve any ... installation [of Celsius's equipment at its facility].” It is in Core's interest to deploy customer machines, because Core earns hosting services fees based on the actual operation of customer machines.

29. When Celsius entered Order #10, Core discussed with Celsius that it had limited hosting availability, was just beginning to construct additional facilities, and needed to deploy numerous machines of its own that it had already purchased. Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 16-17, 36. Despite the significant challenges discussed below, Core diligently deployed Celsius's machines. Id. ¶ 16; see also Mares Decl. ¶ 23 (expert discussing disruptions to the cryptocurrency mining industry caused by COVID-19, including labor shortages, supply chain issues, and health restrictions). Core also kept in regular communication with Celsius regarding the challenges it faced in deployment. Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 18, 34 & Exs. D, O-Q. It is surprising that Celsius could argue Core delayed deployment of its machines while omitting the reasons for any delays, which it knew about at the time. Each of the three tranches delivered by Celsius is discussed below.

30. First tranche of machines. The first machine delivery date in Order #10 was September 2021. Pratt Decl. ¶ 20. First, Celsius did not meet that date, but rather delivered the machines beginning in late November 2021. Id. Second, there was a COVID-19 outbreak as well as a severe winter storm at the facility where machines in this tranche were to be deployed, which unavoidably impacted deployment. Id. ¶ 24. Third, Celsius delivered several types of machines that Core had never installed before, which caused additional delays as Core had to learn how to deploy these machines. Id. ¶ 21 & Ex. E. Fourth, there were significant supply chain delays affecting parts and materials necessary for machine deployment. Pratt Decl. ¶ 23 & Exs. F-I. Finally, there was a delay associated with receiving a governmental certificate of occupancy at the facility. Id. ¶ 25. Despite all these issues, Core began deploying the machines in early December 2021, and Core completed deployment in late January 2022. Id. ¶¶ 22, 26.

31. Second tranche of machines. The second delivery date was March 2022. Pratt Decl. ¶ 27. Because of the issues with the first tranche, Celsius delivered lower-power machines in its second tranche. Id. In order to accommodate Celsius and meet the total power level in Order #10, Core agreed to deploy more machines than specified, taking up additional space at its facility. Id. Core experienced construction delays in completing the relevant facility due to supply chain disruptions (which affected its ability to procure steel, network equipment, and electrical equipment) and an extended timeline to obtain building permits. Pratt Decl. ¶ 28 & Ex. J. As a result, Core was not able to deploy these machines until July 2022. Pratt Decl. ¶ 28.

32. Celsius claims that after the second tranche of machines was deployed, “between July 21, 2022, and September 16, 2022, Core Scientific had the March rigs online for a total of approximately eight days.” Lawlor Decl., D.E. 918 at ¶ 14. But Celsius omits the reason for this, which it knew at the time. Pratt Decl. ¶ 29. Shortly after deploying these machines, forty power transformers at the relevant facility experienced critical failures. Id. This caused unexpected downtime for these machines until the transformers could be replaced. Id. The facility was brought back online by September 16, 2022. Id.

33. Third tranche of machines. The third delivery date was April 2022, but Celsius did not deliver those machines until June 2022. Pratt Decl. ¶ 30. Deployment was delayed by a regulatory change on March 25, 2022, which prevented the relevant utility from supplying the quantity of power it had previously agreed to provide Core. Id. ¶ 31 & Exs. L-M. This, in turn, prevented Core from fully energizing two of its brand-new facilities. Id. Core continued to diligently pursue power for the facilities and remained in regular contact with the utility. Id. ¶¶ 32-

33 & Ex. N. Core’s efforts resulted in the utility supplying at least some of the originally anticipated power. Id. at ¶ 33. Celsius’s machines were deployed by October 6, 2022. Id.

D. Celsius Pays Increased Electricity Costs

34. Celsius has repeatedly paid increased electricity costs as required by the MSA without objection. Xia Decl. ¶ 7. Celsius only objected to paying increased tariffs after filing for bankruptcy. Id.

35. First, Celsius paid an increased tariff related to utility curtailment in 2020-2021.⁶ Xia Decl. ¶¶ 8-10. In October 2021, Core notified Celsius that due to curtailment, the tariffs charged by utilities would increase. Id. ¶ 8. Core turned off the machines of its customers, including Celsius, but offered each of its customers to turn the machines back on if they paid the increased tariffs from curtailment. Id. On October 6, 2021, Celsius confirmed that it would pay these increased utility tariffs. Id. ¶ 8 & Ex. A.

36. Core invoiced Celsius for these increased utility tariffs monthly between October 2021 and April 2022. Xia Decl. ¶ 9 & Ex. B. The cover email indicated that Core was passing through “increased power costs.” Id. ¶ 10. Without objection, Celsius paid these invoices in full—including the increased power costs. Id.

37. On November 20, 2021, Celsius’s Chief Operating Officer, Patrick Holert, inquired about the increased charge in October 2021. Xia Decl. ¶ 11 & Ex. C. Core again explained that it was “due to increased power fees.” Id. Mr. Holert responded, “Thanks Monica. This makes sense.” Id.; see also Pratt Decl. ¶ 47 & Ex. Y.

⁶ Curtailment occurs when demand for electricity exceeds available supply and a utility directs energy users like Core to use less power or choose instead to pay higher energy tariffs. Mares Decl. ¶ 21; see also Xia Decl. ¶ 8.

38. Second, prior to and in the months after its bankruptcy, Celsius also paid increased utility tariffs related to increased fuel costs—the same costs at issue here. Xia Decl. ¶ 12. On June 17, 2022, Core invoiced Celsius for May hosting services. Id. ¶ 15 & Ex. D. The cover email clearly indicated, “Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Cost under the Master Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup.” Id. The invoice included $440,179.34 for increased tariffs. Xia Decl. ¶ 16 & Ex. E.

39. Celsius paid that invoice too, including the increased utility tariffs, without objection on June 27, 2022. Xia Decl. ¶ 17 & Ex. F. Celsius also initially paid postpetition PPT Charges invoiced in August 2022, as discussed below.

E. Electricity Costs Spike, Causing Core to Pass Through Increased Tariffs to All Its Customers

40. Beginning in spring 2022, fossil fuel prices—especially natural gas prices—increased due to Russia’s invasion of Ukraine and increasing fuel usage in many countries. This sharp uptrend continued such that by August 2022, the fuel cost adjustment rate components set by Murphy Electric and the Tennessee Valley Authority (relevant utilities) were both about three times higher than when the MSA was executed in December 2020. See Xia Decl. Ex. H.

41. While Core had previously decided not to exercise its discretion to pass through minor increases in electricity tariffs, this major, sudden increase in tariffs was too great for Core to absorb. Xia Decl. ¶ 14. As a result, in June 2022 Core exercised its unequivocal right under its customer agreements—including the MSA with Celsius—to pass through these increased tariffs. Id. ¶¶ 13-14; see also Pratt Decl. ¶ 48.

42. Core issued the first affected invoice in June 2022. See supra ¶¶ 38-39. Celsius did not object and paid the June 2022 invoice, including the PPT Charge, in full. See id.

43. Celsius also initially paid $598,743.20 of postpetition PPT Charges invoiced in August 2022. Xia Decl. ¶ 18 & Ex. G. The next month, however, Celsius offset this payment as a credit against payment then due under the September 2022 invoice. Id. at ¶ 18 & Ex. H. Celsius did not pay any prepetition PPT Charges invoiced postpetition. Id. at ¶ 18.

44. All but one of Core's 33 other cryptocurrency mining customers paid the increased electricity tariffs, which were due under substantially similar contracts. Xia Decl. ¶ 19. The one exception was a very small customer with only 60 units, where Core had previously notified that it was ending its relationship with that customer. Id. Core did not agree to provide continued services without payment of increased tariffs—as Celsius now demands—to any of its customers.

F. Core Never Threatened to Terminate the MSA—Though It Does Have a Termination Right

45. Core has not threatened to terminate the MSA, either through the automated email or the phone call cited by Celsius.

46. Since November 2020, Core has used an accounting system called NetSuite to automatically send form emails to its customers regarding payment. Xia Decl. ¶ 20. Core automatically sends such emails to customers at various points before a payment is due, and, if the payment is missed, at various points after as well. Id. These emails serve as payment reminders to customers and facially do not purport to terminate any agreement. See id. & Ex. J (examples).

47. Core sent Celsius NetSuite automated emails regarding past-due payments long before Celsius filed for bankruptcy. For example, Core sent Celsius at least four prepetition emails regarding three-day-overdue invoices, which are dated between October 3, 2021 and June 23, 2022. Xia Decl. ¶ 21 & Ex. K. Celsius never contended that any of these prepetition emails constituted threats to terminate the MSA—though they are the same type it now complains of. Id.

48. On August 29, 2022, a NetSuite automated email was sent to Celsius, reminding it of a three-day-overdue invoice. Xia Decl. ¶ 21 & Ex. J. Like its predecessors mentioned above, this form email stated, “We remind you of the following penalties for non-payment,” and then listed rights and remedies under the MSA—without purporting to exercise any. Xia Decl. Ex. J.

49. Core subsequently disabled the NetSuite automated payment reminder system as to Celsius on September 12, 2022. Xia Decl. ¶ 22.⁷ Core also disclaimed that this email indicated any intent to terminate the MSA, a point that Celsius concedes. See Contempt Motion ¶ 25.

50. Celsius also cites a call on August 22, 2022, during which it alleges that “a representative for Core Scientific stated that no new deployments would go forward until Celsius caught up on its payments.” Contempt Motion ¶ 25; see also id. ¶ 46. In fact, Mr. Pratt—who was the Core representative on the call—simply said that Core would not deploy new machines until Celsius paid its outstanding balance on post-petition amounts. Pratt Decl. ¶ 49.

51. Notwithstanding that Core has not threatened to exercise its termination right, it does have such a right.

- a. Section 4(d) of the MSA provides: “[I]f [Celsius] fails to pay all invoiced amounts when due (an ‘Unpaid Balance’) ... after opportunity to cure as provided in Section 4b above⁸ Company may, in its sole discretion, take certain actions including ... (v) terminate this Agreement and all Orders.” As discussed above, Celsius has failed to pay (and continues to fail to pay) invoiced amounts for postpetition services. See supra ¶¶ 43, 61-63.
- b. The MSA also provides a dispute-resolution mechanism, and that mechanism requires Celsius to pay disputed amounts if Core determines the amounts were invoiced correctly. MSA § 3.b. Celsius did not adhere to this dispute-resolution mechanism and has withheld disputed postpetition amounts. Xia Decl. ¶ 18.

52. In these circumstances, a termination by Core will occur “at [Celsius’s] sole risk and expense.” MSA § 4.d. Core may also exercise other remedies for nonpayment, including (but not limited to) suspension of services and shutting off Celsius’s machines. Id.

53. On the other hand, Core’s total liability for all claims arising from or related to the Agreement is limited to “an amount equal to one (1) months [sic] fee payable to [Core] pursuant to the applicable Order.” MSA § 5.d.⁹ This provision is important to Core’s business, as it provides a safety net for Core to effectively buy its way out of a failed business relationship; it is standard in Core’s customer agreements. Pratt Decl. ¶ 9.

G. Core Did Not Have Additional Hosting Availability

54. Hosting availability refers to an infrastructure company’s ability to provide machines with (i) electrical power, and (ii) the infrastructure needed for operation, including cooling, rack space, and so on. See Mares Decl. ¶¶ 15-17, 22-23. Without these things, a cryptocurrency mining machine cannot operate.

55. Under Order #10, Core “will notify [Celsius] as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any,” up to 10 additional megawatts, and provide such additional availability on a priority basis “if available” as “the subject of a separate order.” Order #10, pages 4-5 (emphasis added). This clause was included at a time when, as Celsius knew, Core had limited availability, was in the process of building new facilities, and already had over 100,000 of its own machines to deploy on a priority basis.¹⁰ Pratt Decl. ¶¶ 10, 36.

56. In negotiating this clause, Celsius had sought more and specifically asked to receive priority over any additional hosting availability—without limitation. Pratt Decl. ¶ 37. Core did not agree to such a term, as reflected in the text of Order #10. Id.

57. Celsius infers that Core had additional hosting availability because Core announced a larger machine fleet in April 2022 as compared to December 2021. Contempt Motion ¶ 24.

58. This apparent fleet expansion resulted from two factors not related to additional customer hosting availability. Pratt Decl. ¶ 40. First, Core and a client, Argo Blockchain, agreed to a fleet swap whereby Core exchanged machines it had previously ordered (but not deployed) with machines owned by Argo. Id. ¶ 41 & Ex. V. Core’s aggregate customer hosting availability remained unchanged as a result. Id. ¶ 41. Second, Core temporarily expanded its fleet to test new mobile hosting containers called “antboxes.” Id. ¶ 42. The testing was not successful, and the antboxes are being decommissioned. Id. (noting that testing did not impact availability).

59. Similarly, in late July 2022, Core and a major existing customer, Bitmain, agreed to allow certain Bitmain machines to take the place of machines that Core had previously ordered for itself before executing Order #10 but had not yet deployed, and for Bitmain to provide funding to Core in exchange, among other things. Pratt Decl. ¶ 43. Under a new and unique hosting model, exclusive-use facilities would also be built for a number of Bitmain machines, with Bitmain technicians at those facilities. Id.

60. Since Order #10, Core has not had additional customer hosting availability across its data centers. Pratt Decl. ¶ 38. This is demonstrated by the fact that Core has yet to deploy over 10,000 of the machines that Core purchased for itself before Order #10. See id. ¶ 39.

H. Core’s Ongoing Losses Stemming from Celsius

61. Core has suffered, and is suffering, serious losses from Celsius’s refusal to honor the Agreement. These losses call into question Core’s own ability to continue as a going concern.

62. Celsius owes Core $598,743.20 for postpetition PPT Charges related to the August 2022 invoice. Xia Decl. ¶ 18 & Ex. G. Celsius owes Core another $1,505,940.08 for postpetition PPT Charges related to the September 2022 invoice. Id. This yields a grand total of $2,104,683.28 in postpetition PPT Charges just for these two invoices.

63. Core continues to lose approximately $53,000 per day to cover the postpetition increased electricity tariffs that Celsius refuses to pay. Pratt Decl. ¶ 50.

ARGUMENT

64. The Court should deny the Contempt Motion. The Debtors have the burden of proving that Core violated the automatic stay, and they must prove their case by clear and convincing evidence. In re Bennett, 135 B.R. 72, 76 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1992).

65. Core has not violated the automatic stay because it has fully complied with the terms of the Agreement. Moreover, even if Core had not fully performed (which it has), Core has relied on its reasonable interpretation of the Agreement, and the Code does not transform a legitimate contract dispute into a stay violation. In addition, non-performance of a contract does not constitute a violation of the automatic stay because passively failing to perform does not constitute an affirmative act to exercise control of estate property as required under Fulton.

66. The Debtors are left with their weak arguments that Core violated the automatic stay based on (i) automated emails sent by a Core computer, which were quickly disclaimed by Core; (ii) a single conversation between the parties' employees, wherein Core disputes what was said; and (iii) the PPT Charges being an attempt to set off prepetition amounts, which is a ridiculous argument given that Celsius paid similar charges prepetition, as have other customers.

67. Lastly, even if Core breached the contract (it did not), none of the alleged violations rise to the level necessary to hold Core in civil contempt. There is, and was, at least a reasonable doubt as to whether the alleged contractual non-performance and invoicing of the PPT Charges constitute a stay violation. It is, at worst, a “close call.” They are certainly not the egregious types of behavior for which the contempt power is reserved. And at all times, Core diligently attempted to comply with the stay. Moreover, ordering uncapped damages under a contempt standard would impermissibly rewrite the Agreement.

I. EVEN IF A BREACH OF CONTRACT CLAIM COULD BE AN AUTOMATIC STAY VIOLATION, CORE DID NOT BREACH THE AGREEMENT

68. The three purported breaches of the Agreement alleged by Celsius are not supported by the law or the facts. First, Core’s right to pass through increased electricity tariffs is not only permitted by the unambiguous terms of the Agreement, but it is confirmed by industry usage, the commercial context, and the parties’ course of dealing. Second, Core had no contractual obligation to deploy Celsius’s machines by predetermined dates, but even if it did, strict adherence to any such deadlines would be excused by factors beyond Core’s control. And at any rate, Core has now deployed every machine Celsius delivered. Finally, Core’s conditional obligation to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability, if available, was not triggered because the condition precedent of there being additional availability did not occur, or if it did, Celsius has suffered no harm as a result. Moreover, Order #10’s vague reference to a possible future order for such hosting, if available, is an unenforceable agreement to agree.

A. Core’s Pass-Through of Increased Electricity Tariffs Comports with the MSA, Industry Usage, Commercial Context, and the Course of Dealing

69. Core did not breach the MSA by passing through PPT Charges to Celsius. “When the contract is clear and unambiguous, [Delaware courts] will give effect to the plain-meaning of the contract’s terms and provisions.” Est. of Osborn v. Kemp, 991 A.2d 1153, 1159-60 (Del. 2010).¹¹ “A contract is not rendered ambiguous simply because the parties do not agree upon its proper construction.” Rhone-Poulenc Basic Chems. Co. v. Am. Motorists Ins. Co., 616 A.2d 1192, 1196 (Del. 1992). Here, Core has a clear and unambiguous contractual right in its “sole and absolute discretion” to “pass through” to Celsius “any increases, changes in ... tariffs ... with respect to the provision of Services” by Core, and Celsius “shall pay all Increased Costs.” MSA § 4.f.¹² That is exactly what Core did.

70. “Tariff” is not defined in the MSA, and thus should be given its plain and ordinary meaning as understood by those in the industry. Although Celsius selectively cites a dictionary definition of “tariff” in order to claim that it does not encompass electric utility rates (Contempt Motion ¶ 50), a full review of the term’s definitions—including from one of the very dictionaries cited by Celsius—demonstrates that it clearly does include such rates. Merriam-Webster’s defines “tariff” as “a listing or scale of rates or charges for a business or a public utility.” Merriam-Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, “Tariff,” <https://unabridged.merriam-webster.com/unabridged/tariff> (last visited Oct. 17, 2022) (emphasis added); see also Oxford English Dictionary, “tariff, n.,” <https://www.oed.com/—view/Entry/197851?rskey=wYwHeD&result=1&print> (last visited Oct. 18, 2022) (defining “tariff” as “A classified list or scale of charges made in any private or public business; as, a hotel tariff, a railroad tariff”). The Court need look no further than the plain meaning of “tariff” to resolve this straightforward issue. See Lorillard Tobacco Co. v. Am. Legacy Found., 903 A.2d 728, 740 (Del. 2006) (“When a term’s definition is not altered or has no ‘gloss’ in the [relevant] industry it should be construed in accordance with its ordinary dictionary meaning.” (citation omitted)).

¹² “Services” refers to the various machine hosting services that Core provides to Celsius, which include provision of “utilities.” See MSA § 1.a. Thus, Section 4(f)’s reference to “tariffs” must be read in the context of the entire Agreement, which directly implicates utility services. See Osborn, 991 A.2d at 1160.

71. In addition to its dictionary definition, the industry usage of “tariff” confirms that it encompasses electric utility rates. Industry usage can aid in interpreting an unambiguous contract term. See Aleynikov v. Goldman Sachs Grp., Inc., 765 F.3d 350, 361-62 (3d Cir. 2014). Here, multiple declarants, including an expert with decades of experience concerning data centers, have testified that “tariff” is commonly understood in the industry to include electric rates. See supra ¶¶ 17-19. In fact, the rate tariff published by the Tennessee Valley Authority explicitly confirms this—it includes a fuel cost adjustment as part of its rate formula. Pratt Decl. ¶ 44.

72. The commercial context and relationship of the parties further support Core’s unambiguous right to pass through PPT Charges. Delaware courts read contracts “in full and situated in the commercial context of the parties,” such that the “basic business relationship between parties must be understood to give sensible life to any contract.” Chi. Bridge & Iron Co. v. Westinghouse Elec. Co., 166 A.3d 912, 926-27 (Del. 2017). Here, the commercial context is a power-intensive industry where the electricity costs incurred by cryptocurrency mining machines comprise the majority of input costs. See supra ¶¶ 14-15, 19. It is standard practice in this industry for infrastructure providers like Core to pass through increases in electricity costs—indeed, it would be economically irrational for them to bear the significant risk of energy price increases while forfeiting the fruits of mining. See supra ¶¶ 14, 19, 24.

73. The “basic business relationship” in this case tasks Core with hosting the machines, whereas Celsius owns them and obtains the valuable cryptocurrency they mine. In this context, it would make no sense to read “tariff” to exclude increased fuel costs that comprise a portion of electric utility rates—which are far and away the most relevant, impactful “tariff.” Such a reading must be rejected. See Osborn, 991 A.2d at 1160 & n.21 (courts will not adopt “[a]n unreasonable interpretation [that] produces an absurd result or ones that no reasonable person would have accepted when entering the contract”); Wilmington Firefighters Ass’n, Local 1590 v. City of Wilmington, 2002 WL 418032, at *8-9 (Del. Ch. Mar. 12, 2002) (rejecting a party’s interpretation as unreasonable when viewed in the context of the contract).

74. Celsius’s other textual arguments are unavailing. First, it claims that pass-through was inappropriate because Core has a “fixed-rate pricing structure” under Order #10. Contempt Motion ¶ 50. That is false. Order #10 makes clear that while there is an initial estimated service charge, that will be adjusted to include “additional charges incurred by [Celsius] and adjustments....” Supra ¶ 20. And, as already noted, Section 4.f of the MSA allows Core to pass through various “Increased Costs,” including tariffs. Thus, the parties’ Agreement expressly contemplates “additional charges” and “adjustments” on an invoice to the initial estimated pricing—exactly what the increased electricity tariffs were. Second, Celsius seizes on the word “new” in Section 4.f to argue that an increased electricity tariff is not covered because it is not new. Contempt Motion ¶ 50.¹³ But if the word “new” in Section 4.f were read as Celsius now proposes, it would render the preceding phrase “any increases, changes in” entirely superfluous, because there can only be an “increase” or a “change in” an existing tariff—not an entirely new one. And that outcome would violate a fundamental principle of contract interpretation. See NAMA Holdings, LLC v. World Mkt. Ctr. Venture, LLC, 948 A.2d 411, 419 (Del. Ch. 2007), aff’d, 945 A.2d 594 (Del. 2008) (“Contractual interpretation operates under the assumption that the parties never include superfluous verbiage in their agreement, and that each word should be given meaning and effect by the court.”); Osborn, 991 A.2d at 1159 (similar).

75. Even if Section 4.f’s use of the term “tariff” were ambiguous—and it is not—the parties’ course of dealing strongly supports Core’s pass-through of PPT Charges. “It is hornbook law that the contracting parties’ course of conduct may be considered as evidence of their intended meaning of an ambiguous contractual term.” AT&T Corp. v. Lillis, 970 A.2d 166, 172 (Del. 2009); see also Eagle Indus., Inc. v. DeVilbiss Health Care, Inc., 702 A.2d 1228, 1232-33 (Del. 1997) (relevant extrinsic evidence includes “prior agreements and communications of the parties as well as ... course of dealing”). Celsius repeatedly paid for increased electricity tariffs without objection. From October 2021 to April 2022, Celsius paid increased tariffs related to utility curtailment, and its Chief Operating Officer agreed that it “ma[d]e sense” to pay “increased power fees.” See supra ¶¶ 35-37. Beyond that, Celsius paid the exact kind of increased tariff at issue here on its June 2022 invoice. See supra ¶¶ 38-39. Indeed, the email from Core attaching this prepetition invoice explicitly referenced Section 4.f and explained that the invoice included increased energy costs. See supra ¶ 38. These facts also belie Celsius’s claim that pass-through of the increased tariffs only began postpetition. See Contempt Motion ¶ 49; Lawlor Decl., D.E. 918 at ¶ 21. And, with only one exception, every other Core customer paid these increased tariffs—further evidence that the MSA permits pass-through of PPT Charges. See supra ¶ 44.

76. Thus, Core’s decision to pass through PPT Charges to Celsius did not breach the MSA and could not have violated the automatic stay. Though Celsius may wish postpetition to escape the increased tariffs it agreed to in Section 4.f of the MSA and repeatedly paid, sophisticated parties cannot “escape the express language” of a contract. Interim Healthcare, Inc. v. Spherion Corp., 884 A.2d 513, 552 (Del. Super. Ct. 2005), aff’d, 886 A.2d 1278 (Del. 2005).

B. Core Did Not Unjustifiably Delay Deployment of Celsius’s Machines

77. Celsius is also incorrect that Core breached the Agreement by not deploying machines as quickly as Celsius wished. Contempt Motion ¶¶ 43-44. Celsius offers two arguments:

(i) that Core breached by not adhering to the so-called deployment schedule in Order #10; and
 (ii) that Core breached by not deploying machines “in a professional and workmanlike manner” under Section 5.a of the MSA. Id. Both are wrong.

78. First, Celsius is mistaken that Order #10 institutes a fixed “deployment schedule.” The months listed on page 1 are simply the expected timeframe for Celsius to deliver its cryptocurrency mining machines to Core for deployment. See supra ¶¶ 27-28. This is borne out by the fact that Celsius did not even finish delivering its first tranche of machines, scheduled to be delivered for deployment in September 2021, until late November 2021, and other deliveries likewise occurred after the months listed in Order #10. See supra ¶¶ 30, 33. The months listed in Order #10 therefore create an obligation for Celsius, not for Core. Core cannot have breached any of its obligations by deploying machines later than Celsius’s expected delivery date. Core’s rights regarding deployment are set forth in Section 2.b of the MSA—it “has the right to review and the sole right to approve any ... installation [of Celsius’s equipment at its facility].”

79. Second, Celsius’s barebones argument that Core did not perform “in a professional and workmanlike manner” under Section 5.a falls flat. Celsius conspicuously fails to explain what this standard means or how Core failed to abide by it. See Contempt Motion ¶ 43.

80. Any delays in deploying Celsius’s machines had nothing to do with an alleged lack of professionalism or workmanship on Core’s part, and everything to do with outside factors beyond Core’s control. Core experienced unavoidable delays in the deployment of some machines due, among other things, to: (i) Celsius’s own repeated late deliveries; (ii) significant supply chain disruptions; (iii) construction and permitting delays; (iv) power disruption issues; and (v) an outbreak of COVID-19 among Core’s construction staff. See supra ¶¶ 29-33. Celsius knows this because Core kept it apprised of these facts (see supra ¶ 29); this makes it especially surprising that Celsius fails to mention these highly relevant facts in its Contempt Motion.

81. Celsius cannot reasonably contend that, when the parties agreed ex ante to perform “in a professional and workmanlike manner,” they intended to create an obligation so onerous that Core had to deploy machines using COVID-infected employees, in half-finished facilities, or with inadequate power supply.¹⁴ Such an interpretation would be manifestly unreasonable—and the “true test” of a contract term’s meaning is “what a reasonable person in the position of the parties would have thought it meant.” Lorillard Tobacco, 903 A.2d at 740 (citation omitted).

82. Alternatively, even if Celsius were correct about supposed deployment obligations created by either of these contract terms (and it is not), Core’s strict adherence to them would be excused due to impracticability. Under Delaware law, the defense of impracticability requires: “(1) the occurrence of an event, the nonoccurrence of which was a basic assumption of the contract; (2) the continued performance is not commercially practicable; and (3) the party claiming impracticability did not expressly or impliedly agree to performance in spite of impracticability that would otherwise justify nonperformance.” Chase Manhattan Bank v. Iridium Africa Corp., 474 F. Supp. 2d 613, 620 (D. Del. 2007). Each element is met here. First, to the extent Core had an obligation to deploy machines by a specific date, any such obligation would have assumed the nonoccurrence of Celsius’s own delivery delays and unprecedented supply chain shortages, among other things. Second, in these circumstances, strict adherence to deployment by a specific date would not be commercially practicable—Core could not deploy machines that Celsius had not yet delivered, nor could it build a building without steel, nor could it violate governmental health restrictions. Third, Core did not agree to deployment by a specific date at all, let alone in spite of impracticability.¹⁵

83. Similarly, even if Core were obligated to deploy machines by the months listed in Order #10 (it is not), any breach of such obligation would be excused because Celsius first breached its own related obligation to timely deliver machines for deployment by Core. “As a general rule the party first guilty of a material breach of contract cannot complain if the other party subsequently refuses to perform.” Hudson v. D&V Mason Contractors, Inc., 252 A.2d 166, 170 (Del. Sup. Ct. 1969). Celsius repeatedly delivered machines months after these supposed deployment deadlines passed. See supra ¶¶ 30, 33. These failures were material, as demonstrated by the fact that Order #10 allows Core to terminate the entire Order if Celsius delivers too late. See Order #10, at page 3. In these circumstances, Celsius “cannot complain” of any alleged missed deadlines for deployment. Hudson, 252 A.2d at 170.

84. Finally, even if this Court were to find that Core breached by not deploying machines quickly enough, there is no “ongoing failure to perform its deployment obligations” as Celsius alleges. Contempt Motion ¶ 43. Despite all the recent challenges—including a pandemic and associated supply chain disruptions—Core has deployed every cryptocurrency mining machine that Celsius has delivered to it. See supra ¶ 26. Thus, any breach has been cured.¹⁶

¹⁵ For substantially the same reasons, strict adherence by Core to purported deployment deadlines would be excused under the MSA’s force majeure clause. That clause excuses Core’s failure to perform any of its obligations under the Agreement “if such failure is caused by events or circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including, without limitation ... inclement weather, health epidemic or any law, order, regulation or other action of any governing authority or agency.” MSA § 8.e.

C. Core Did Not Breach the “Notification of Hosting Availability” Provision, But Even If It Did, Celsius Has Suffered No Harm

85. The other purported breach alleged by Celsius is that it “has never once been notified of additional hosting availability.” Contempt Motion ¶ 45. Order #10 (at pages 4-5) states that Core will “notify [Celsius] as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any, and provide Client up to 10 additional [megawatts] per month at a hosting services rate of $0.0625 per KWh. Additional hosting availability if available will be the subject of a separate order and provided to [Celsius] on a priority basis, subject to [Celsius’s] acceptance.” When this clause was included, Celsius knew that Core had an availability deficit, needed to construct new facilities, and planned to first deploy many machines of its own. See supra ¶ 55.

86. The plain language of this clause indicates that Core’s notification obligation arises if, and only if, the condition precedent of additional hosting availability is satisfied. “A condition precedent [] is an act or event ... that must exist or occur before a duty to perform something promised arises.” Cato Cap. LLC v. Hemispherx Biopharma, Inc., 70 F. Supp. 3d 607, 619 (D. Del. 2014), aff’d, 625 F. App’x 108 (3d Cir. 2015) (citation omitted and alteration adopted). The clause here states that notification will occur as to additional hosting availability, “if any,” and then goes on to refer to a possible future order regarding additional hosting availability, “if available.” This confirms that the existence of additional hosting availability is a condition precedent to any notification obligation. See id. (“Words such as ‘if, provided that, on the condition that’ can be useful to establishing that the parties intended a condition, ... but any phrase that conditions performance suffices.”). Because the condition precedent of additional hosting availability did not occur, see supra ¶¶ 58-60, the obligation to notify Celsius never arose. See Cato Cap. LLC, 70 F. Supp. 3d at 619.

87. While Celsius speculates that Core had additional hosting availability based on a superficial comparison of fleet counts in two press releases (Contempt Motion ¶ 45; Lawlor Decl., D.E. 918 at ¶ 19), Celsius’s counting exercise is flawed. This seeming fleet expansion was no expansion at all but actually resulted from Core swapping machines with an existing customer, and from performance-testing new antbox containers for mining machines. See supra ¶ 58. Neither of these events involved Core expanding its customer hosting availability or failing to notify Celsius of additional customer hosting availability.

88. Similarly, Core’s agreement with Bitmain did not implicate “additional hosting availability” within the meaning of Order #10. That agreement also involved Core agreeing to allow an existing customer to deploy machines in place of Core’s machines that it had previously ordered for itself (before Order #10) but not yet deployed. See supra ¶ 59. And the new, exclusive-use Bitmain facilities contemplated by that agreement cannot logically be construed as “additional hosting” that could be “available” for Celsius—these special facilities would be exclusively for Bitmain and not any other customer. Order #10, pages 4-5. Nor could Core preempt Bitmain in these exclusive-use facilities by providing them to Celsius “on a priority basis.” Id.

89. To the extent Celsius contends that Core breached because it was obligated to enter an agreement regarding additional hosting availability—notwithstanding the nonexistence of such availability and the failure of that condition precedent—such an interpretation would be an unenforceable agreement to agree. Delaware courts have a “general aversion to enforcing agreements to agree,” Centreville Veterinary Hosp., Inc. v. Butler-Baird, 2007 WL 1965538, at *8 (Del. Ch. July 6, 2007), and “will not enforce a contract that is indefinite in any of its material and essential provisions.” Omega Cap. Mgmt. Partners, LLC v. Schrage, 2021 WL 2036672, at *2 (D. Del. May 21, 2021) (citation omitted); see also id. (“Delaware law requires that, to be enforceable, a contract to enter into a future contract must specify all its material and essential terms, and leave none to be agreed upon as the result of future negotiations.” (citation omitted and emphasis added)). The reference in this clause of Order #10 (at page 5) to agreeing on additional hosting as “the subject of a separate order” is a classic agreement to agree. Among other missing material terms, it does not specify what this possible future order would include regarding the number or type of mining machines; assumed power consumption; delivery date; and prepayment schedule—all essential terms included prominently in Order #10. See Pratt Ex. B at page 1. Thus, Core was not bound to enter any such inchoate agreement.

90. Finally, even if the Court were to find (i) that Core had additional hosting availability within the meaning of Order #10, and (ii) that the clause at issue is not an unenforceable agreement to agree, Celsius suffered no harm as a result and therefore cannot establish a claim for breach. The clause does not reference any terms of the yet-to-be-negotiated “separate order” by which additional availability would be provided to Celsius, except the base hosting services rate and a 10-megawatt capacity cap. See Order #10, pages 4-5. In negotiating the terms of such an order, Core would insist, among other things, on pass-through of PPT Charges—which Celsius has already made abundantly clear it will not pay. Thus, the parties’ positions in the current dispute prove that there would be no meeting of the minds, and no such order would ever be executed. Celsius cannot have suffered harm from the purported lost opportunity to participate in utterly futile negotiations, and absent harm cannot establish a breach of contract claim. See Connelly v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 135 A.3d 1271, 1279 n.28 (Del. 2016) (“Under Delaware law, the elements of a breach of contract claim are: 1) a contractual obligation; 2) a breach of that obligation by the defendant; and 3) a resulting damage to the plaintiff.” (citation omitted)).

II. CORE DID NOT VIOLATE THE AUTOMATIC STAY

A. Core Did Not Violate the Automatic Stay Because It Acted on Its Reasonable Interpretation of the Contract

91. As discussed above, Core fully complied with the Agreement. Even if this Court were to disagree with that conclusion, Core still did not violate the automatic stay because it acted in accordance with its reasonable interpretation of the Agreement.

92. Courts have held that a contract counterparty does not violate the automatic stay by acting in accordance with its reasonable interpretation of a contract with the debtor. For example, in United States v. Inslaw, Inc., the D.C. Circuit held that a non-debtor did not violate the automatic stay by retaining and using copies of the debtor's software pursuant to its interpretation of its contract with the debtor, which differed from the debtor's interpretation. 932 F.2d 1467, 1472-73 (D.C. Cir. 1991). The D.C. Circuit warned against the broad interpretation of section 362(a)(3) that the Contempt Motion now advocates:

If the bankruptcy court's idea of the scope of 'exercise of control' were correct, the sweep of § 362(a) would be extraordinary—with a concomitant expansion of the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court. Whenever a party against whom the bankrupt holds a cause of action ... acted in accord with his view of the dispute rather than that of the debtor-in-possession or bankruptcy trustee, he would risk a determination by a bankruptcy court that he had 'exercised control' over intangible rights (property) of the estate.

Id. The court added, "[f]ulfillment of [the] purpose [of § 362] cannot require that every party who acts in resistance to the debtor's view of its rights violates § 362(a) if found in error by the bankruptcy court." Id. at 1473; see also In re Mountaineer Coal Co., 247 B.R. 633, 644 (Bankr. W.D. Va. 2000) ("The Court does not believe that Congress intended to convert a matter of contract dispute into a violation of the automatic stay."). The evidence here demonstrates that Core acted within its reasonable interpretation of the Agreement. The Court should not permit Celsius to convert a contract dispute into a stay violation.

B. Core Did Not Exercise Control over the Debtors' Property, Thus Section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code Is Not Implicated

(i) Stay Violation under Section 362(a)(3) Requires That a Counterparty "Exercise Control" Over Estate Property

93. Section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code does not stay all acts concerning estate property, however remote. "The mere fact that the conduct may be wrongful or unlawful does not automatically convert it into a violation of the automatic stay." Windstream II, 2022 WL 5245633, at *8. Indeed, section 362(a)(3) is limited to acts undertaken by third parties "to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate." Id. at *4 (citation omitted and emphasis added). The Code does not define "control." Consequently, when determining whether particular conduct could "be regarded as an act to exercise control, [courts have been] left with the language of the statute and the manner in which other courts have construed section 362(a)(3)'s control provision." In re Albion Disposal, Inc., 217 B.R. 394, 405 (W.D.N.Y. 1997).

94. Last year, the U.S. Supreme Court concluded that section 362(a)(3) is only implicated by an "affirmative act that would alter the status quo as of the time of the filing of a bankruptcy petition." Fulton, 141 S. Ct. at 590 (emphasis added). Based on this interpretation, the Supreme Court held that the mere retention of estate property after a bankruptcy filing does not violate section 362(a)(3), explicitly overruling courts that had interpreted it more broadly.

95. Fulton is consistent with other U.S. Supreme Court precedent. In Citizens Bank of Maryland v. Strumpf, the Court held that breaching a "promise to pay" a debtor is not an exercise of control over the debtor's property and does not implicate or violate sections 362(a)(3) or (a)(6) of the Code. 516 U.S. 16, 21 (1995).¹⁷ The Court rejected as a "false premise" the debtor's argument that the bank “exercised dominion over property” of the estate, implicating section 362(a)(3), by failing to return deposited funds to the debtor. Id.

96. Courts in this District have likewise concluded that a contract counterparty’s breach of contract is not an attempt to exercise control of estate property in violation of § 362(a)(3). For example, in In re Golden Distributors, Ltd., Judge Schwartzberg of this Court held that:

the fact that the defendants may have breached the restrictive covenants in their employment contracts ... for which the defendants might ultimately be liable to the debtor for damages or enjoined from engaging in such improper conduct, does not mean that the defendants attempted to obtain possession or control of property of the estate in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3).

122 B.R. 15, 19-20 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) (cited approvingly in Windstream II, 2022 WL 5245633, at *8).¹⁸ A breach of contract gives rise to a breach of contract claim against the counterparty—not a stay violation.

97. Like the U.S. Supreme Court in Fulton, other courts have drawn a distinction between “affirmative acts,” which violate the stay, and passive inaction, which does not.¹⁹ did not violate the automatic stay. In addition to that issue, the Court in Strumpf squarely addressed, and rejected, the debtor’s alternative contention that the bank’s actions violated 362(a)(3). Id. at 21. The Court first noted that money in a bank account is not legally a debtor’s property, just “a promise to pay from the bank to the depositor,” and it therefore concluded that “petitioner’s temporary refusal to pay was neither a taking of possession of respondent’s property nor an exercising of control over it, but merely a refusal to perform its promise.” Id. The Court’s discussion of the section 362(a)(3) “exercise control” provision was independent of its discussion of the “setoff” provision in section 362(a)(7), and courts have applied Strumpf’s holding on section 362(a)(3) outside the setoff context. See, e.g., In re Calvin, 329 B.R. 589, 603 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2005) (applying Strumpf to determine whether § 363(a)(3) was violated outside a setoff context); In re Brown, 210 B.R. 878, 884 (Bankr. S.D. Ga. 1997) (same).

¹⁸ See also In re APF Co., 2001 Bankr. LEXIS 1298, at *16 (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 31, 2001) (“[T]he mere breach of the contract itself is not a violation of the stay.” (citing 1 DAVID G. EPSTEIN ET AL., BANKRUPTCY, § 3.14 at 174 (West, 1992) (“Nothing is lost by failing to stay a breach of contract. The cause of action for the breach belongs to the estate. It can remedy the wrong by any appropriate means as in any other action for breach of contract.”)); In re Wilkinson, 2003 WL 25273854, at *8 (Bankr. D. Idaho Nov. 10, 2003) (“Even assuming [the counterparty’s] actions constituted a breach of the contracts with Debtor, a continuing breach that does not effect a termination of the contract does not amount to a violation of the automatic stay.”).

A counterparty's failing to perform under an executory contract is not an affirmative act and does not violate section 362(a)(3). After Fulton, this point can no longer be seriously debated.

(ii) Core Did Not "Exercise Control" over Celsius's Property

98. The main thrust of the Contempt Motion is that Core is violating the automatic stay by "failing to perform its obligations under the Agreement," specifically failing to deploy Celsius's machines quickly enough and failing to notify Celsius of purported additional hosting availability (allegations Core disputes). Contempt Motion ¶¶ 42-44. Under Fulton, however, a party's failure to do something is not an "affirmative act" that constitutes an exercise of control under section 362(a)(3). 141 S. Ct. at 590. Celsius cannot explain how Core's alleged failure to act "alter[ed] the status quo" that existed on the Petition Date. Id. The alleged failure of Core to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability is certainly not an affirmative act, as it is premised on Core not taking action. Similarly, the alleged failure of Core to deploy additional machines cannot be said to be an affirmative act, as it also is premised on Core not taking action.

99. The result would be no different if Core's failure to perform harmed or reduced the value of Celsius's estate. In Albion, the bankruptcy court rejected the argument that a town violated the automatic stay by enacting a law that greatly reduced the value of the debtors' property. 217 B.R. at 405. Stated plainly, "section 362(a)(3) does not stay acts that reduce the value of property of the estate; it stays acts to exercise control over estate property." Id. at 405-06. The contrary argument "does not find any support in the Bankruptcy Code." Id. at 406.

performance."); In re Lucre, Inc., 339 B.R. 649, 658-60 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 2006) (holding there is no stay violation where the debtor's sole complaint is nonperformance by executory contract counterparty).

Windstream II is in accord. In that case, the District Court concluded that the debtor's competitor did not violate the automatic stay by advertising to the debtor's customers, and that the bankruptcy court abused its discretion in holding the competitor in civil contempt therefor. 2022 WL 5245633, at *4-9. The District Court's rationale was that the counterparty did not "exercise control" over estate property, a necessary component of a stay violation. Id. at *9.

100. The Contempt Motion does not cite Fulton, instead relying on cases that preceded Fulton or are otherwise distinguishable and involve situations where the debtor sought to terminate the contract: (i) without seeking relief from the automatic stay, (ii) based on non-payment of a prepetition claim in violation of section 362(a)(6), or (iii) based on the debtor's bankruptcy filing in violation of section 365(e).²⁰ Here, Core did not attempt to terminate the Agreement, and any delay in performance was unavoidable and had nothing to do with Celsius not paying its prepetition claims or having filed for bankruptcy.

III. THE DEBTORS' OTHER ARGUMENTS THAT CORE VIOLATED THE AUTOMATIC STAY ALL FAIL

A. Core Properly Charging the Postpetition PPT Charges and Mistakenly Including Prepetition Amounts in Postpetition Invoices Does Not Violate the Automatic Stay

101. Seeking to have Celsius avoid paying the PPT Charges, the Debtors claim that Core billing Celsius for the PPT Charges, as permitted by the MSA, is somehow an attempt to "offset Celsius' pre-petition debts." Contempt Motion ¶ 48. But the evidence is to the contrary and confirms that Core previously charged (and Celsius paid) these types of charges, and that Core passed on power costs to virtually all its other customers. See supra ¶¶ 34-44. The idea that this charge is somehow contrived or an attempt to offset a prepetition debt is therefore preposterous.

²⁰ See, e.g., In re 48th St. Steakhouse, Inc., 835 F.2d 427, 429 (2d Cir. 1987) (pertaining to a landlord that attempted to terminate the lease of a debtor's assignee); In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201, 212 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (holding that counterparty violated the automatic stay by sending a demand letter and termination notice); In re Monarch Cap. Corp., 163 B.R. 899, 907 (Bankr. D. Mass 1994) (stating a party may not terminate a contract by reason of the debtor's defaults thereunder, but reasoning that "to require [the counterparty's] continued services, the bankruptcy estate was obligated only to do the same"); In re Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. 1019, 1024 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996) (holding that a counterparty violated the stay by sending a notice of termination to the debtor); United States ex rel. U.S. Postal Serv. v. Dewey Freight Sys., Inc., 31 F.3d 620, 625 (8th Cir. 1994) (stating that a counterparty cannot terminate a contract by reason of the debtor's defaults thereunder); In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. 646, 657 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2009) (reasoning that a counterparty cannot terminate a contract without seeking relief from the stay).

102. Furthermore, the Debtors falsely allege that Core is attempting to “siphon ‘possession of property of the estate’ without any lawful basis” pursuant to section 362(a)(3), and to “modify its contractual obligations.” Contempt Motion ¶ 48. But Core has a lawful basis—i.e., the Agreement—to charge the Debtors for such amounts, and all of its other hosting customers but one (with which Core is terminating its relationship) paid such charges pursuant to the commercially reasonable interpretation of the Agreement. Thus, the allegation that Core is attempting to modify its contractual obligations falls flat, and the Debtors’ reliance on AMR is misplaced. See id. (citing In re AMR Corp., 730 F.3d 88, 102 (2d Cir. 2013) (“[A]n attempt to modify contract rights [is] subject to the automatic stay.”)).

103. The cases the Debtors cite acknowledge that it is permissible to invoice a debtor for postpetition services rendered. See, e.g., Bildisco, 465 U.S. at 531 (“If the debtor-in-possession elects to continue to receive benefits from the other party to an executory contract pending a decision to reject or assume the contract, the debtor-in-possession is obligated to pay for the reasonable value of those services, which, depending on the circumstances of a particular contract, may be what is specified in the contract.”); Monarch, 163 B.R. at 907-08 (“The bankruptcy estate, on the other hand, can require the nondebtor to continue performance, so long as the estate performs.”). Thus, this line of argument fails.

104. Celsius also points to the inclusion of prepetition PPT Charges in two postpetition invoices—one of which was sent a mere two days after the petition date. See supra ¶ 43. However, it is not uncommon for vendors to chapter 11 debtors to send invoices in the days following the petition that may also include the prepetition period. And Celsius did not actually pay any prepetition PPT Charges invoiced postpetition, so Celsius has suffered no harm based on this inadvertence. See supra ¶ 43. Celsius’ desperate attempt to paint common, innocent occurrences as nefarious stay violations fails.

B. Neither Core’s Automated Emails Nor Conversations with Celsius Constitute Stay Violations

105. The Debtors allege that Core violated the automatic stay by threatening to terminate the Agreement and to withhold performance due to Celsius’ outstanding prepetition debts. See Contempt Motion ¶ 25. Specifically, the Debtors’ declaration alleges that on an August 22, 2022 phone call, a representative for Core “stated ... that no new deployments would go forward until Celsius caught up on its payment schedule.” Lawlor Decl., D.E. 918 at ¶ 17. This is incorrect. The evidence shows that Mr. Pratt simply stated that Core would not deploy new machines until Celsius paid post-petition amounts owing under the Agreement (now over $1 million). See supra ¶¶ 50, 62-63. No threat was made. Because it is neither an automatic stay violation to fail to perform (Fulton) nor to request payment of amounts owed for postpetition services, it cannot be an automatic stay violation to condition future postpetition performance on payment of past-due obligations for postpetition performance. Thus, the Debtors’ theory must fail. And regardless, the evidence is that Core did not stop performing even though Celsius still has not paid.

106. The Debtors also point to an unintentional, harmless automated email sent by Core’s accounting system, programmed nearly two years ago to remind customers of their bills. The Debtors exaggerate the automated email as a “threat to terminate the MSA.” Contempt Motion ¶ 46. Core did not intentionally send the emails and disclaimed them, which the Debtors do not contest, id., and the automated email system was disabled after Core was made aware of the issue. See supra ¶¶ 46-49. Celsius should not have been surprised by the receipt of these automatic emails—it received similar emails prepetition and never once suggested it thought Core was threatening to terminate the Agreement, another set of facts omitted from Mr. Lawlor’s declaration. See supra ¶ 47. And in the end, given that Core rescinded and disclaimed the emails, whether or not the emails constituted a stay violation is now moot.

107. Finally, Core understands the serious nature of attempts in individual bankruptcy cases to collect on prepetition obligations. Indeed, the harassment of individual debtors by debt collectors and other bad actors adds to an already stressful situation that individuals may find themselves in when they have to file a bankruptcy petition.²¹ However, this case is markedly different. Core was not willfully, intentionally, and maliciously attempting to collect on a prepetition claim. Furthermore, Celsius is a large, complex business entity with sophisticated leaders at the helm and competent financial and legal advisors. Not only can Celsius not legitimately claim that the invoices constituted harassment, but there is also no evidence of any resulting harm or economic damages. Automated emails and invoices that mistakenly and innocently include prepetition amounts do not rise to the level of an egregious attempt to collect prepetition amounts owed. Common sense should prevail, and Celsius's request to hold Core in violation of the automatic stay for these discrete past (and void) events should be rejected.

108. Finally, even if Core violated the Agreement, there is no ongoing stay violation. Indeed, as explained above, Core has deployed all machines delivered by Celsius to date. See supra ¶ 26. Thus, there is no ongoing stay violation and nothing to remedy.

IV. EVEN IF THE COURT WERE TO FIND THAT CORE VIOLATED THE STAY, CONTEMPT IS INAPPROPRIATE

109. The Debtors' contempt argument cites but a single case, Windstream I. That case is no longer valid, as the District Court just reversed it on appeal in Windstream II. Of particular importance, the District Court disagreed with the standard the bankruptcy court had applied to impose contempt as a remedy for an automatic stay violation. It held that the contempt standard is higher than the Windstream I court stated—one that, as discussed below, is not met here. The Debtors’ already-weak position cannot stand after Windstream II.

110. The burden to prove all elements of contempt falls on the movant. See In re DiBattista, 615 B.R. 31, 39 (S.D.N.Y. 2020). A contempt order may be issued only where “(1) the order the contemnor failed to comply with is clear and unambiguous, (2) the proof of noncompliance is clear and convincing, and (3) the contemnor has not diligently attempted to comply in a reasonable manner.” In re Blair Ventures, LLC, 581 B.R. 728, 732 (S.D.N.Y. 2017).

111. Under U.S. Supreme Court precedent, a bankruptcy court may hold a party in civil contempt pursuant to section 105 only “if there is no fair ground of doubt as to whether the order barred the creditor’s conduct.” Taggart v. Lorenzen, 139 S. Ct. 1795, 1799 (2019). The Taggart standard “reflects the fact that civil contempt is a severe remedy and that principles of basic fairness require that those enjoined receive explicit notice of what conduct is outlawed before being held in civil contempt.” Id. at 1802 (citation omitted and emphasis added).²² “[C]lose questions of interpretation are resolved in the defendant’s favor in order to prevent unfair surprise.” Schering Corp. v. Ill. Antibiotics Co., 62 F.3d 903, 906 (7th Cir. 1995).

112. Although Taggart concerned holding a creditor in contempt for violating a discharge order, recent courts have applied Taggart when deciding civil contempt actions pursuant to section 105 for automatic stay violations. See, e.g., Windstream II, 2022 WL 5245633, at *9-

12 (applying the “fair ground of doubt” standard to determine whether a creditor should be held in contempt for an alleged violation of a corporate debtor’s automatic stay);²³ In re GYPC, Inc., 634 B.R. 983, 991 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 2021).

113. In reversing and vacating Windstream I’s contempt finding, the Windstream II court held that the lower court “erred” by reasoning that “it is logical to require those in doubt whether the stay applies to seek clarification from the court or be sanctioned for shooting first and aiming later.” 2022 WL 5245633, at *10-11. It found this standard, which is more in line with “the standard applicable to individual debtors under § 362(k),” at odds with Taggart. Id. What’s more, the court reiterated that “close calls” on stay violations do not merit contempt:

[T]he Bankruptcy Court’s conclusion that there could have been objectively “no fair ground of doubt” on [defendant’s] part that its advertisements would violate the automatic stay was outside the permissible range of decisions and thus an abuse of discretion. The Bankruptcy Court’s conclusion that [defendant’s] advertising campaign “exercises control” over estate property is at least highly debatable. The plain language of the automatic stay does not clearly proscribe the conduct here Even if I were to accept the theory of the stay violation here – that because the advertisements were false, they were improperly influential – it is not an objectively obvious reading of the statute or the caselaw. Particularly under the more searching standard that I must apply in assessing sanctions awarded under 11 U.S.C. § 105(a), see In re Blair Ventures, 581 B.R. at 732, the Bankruptcy Court abused its discretion in holding [defendant] in civil contempt.

Id. at *11-12. Simply put, the Debtors cannot establish the necessary elements of contempt here.

114. First, as explained above, Core did not violate the automatic stay.

115. Second, even if the Court finds that Core breached the Agreement, there is a fair ground of doubt as to whether such alleged breaches are barred by the automatic stay. See Fulton, 141 S. Ct. at 590. Core had at least a reasonable contractual basis for its conduct. Because “the plain language of the automatic stay does not clearly proscribe the conduct here,” and failing to perform (inaction) “is not typically understood to exercise control over property,” Core’s alleged breach premised on a failure to perform cannot “clearly” be an act to “exercise control over property of the estate.” Windstream II, 2022 WL 5245633, at *10-11. “Even if [this Court] were to accept the theory of the stay violation here ... it is not an objectively obvious reading of the statute or the caselaw.” Id. Thus, the Debtors’ Contempt Motion must fail.

116. Furthermore, Core was not required to first prove in this Court its good-faith, logical interpretation of the Agreement prior to acting in accordance with its view, because “there is no requirement that the would-be violator move to lift the stay prior to acting.” Id.

117. Third, Core has not terminated the Agreement but continues to perform despite losing approximately $53,000 per day based on running Celsius’s machines, without Celsius paying the postpetition PPT Charges. See supra ¶ 63.

118. Nor is this a case where sanctions are necessary to ensure compliance with the automatic stay due to repeated and ongoing stay violations. See, e.g., In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 171 B.R. 18, 20 (S.D.N.Y. 1994) (awarding damages to compensate the Trustee for prosecuting a motion and fining the contemnor $750 for each day he failed to withdraw claims in a bankruptcy case). Accordingly, Core submits that the Court should exercise its broad discretion to deny any damages arising from such alleged violations. See In re Lehman Bros. Holdings Inc., 2013 WL 6283572, at *4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 3, 2013), aff’d, 526 B.R. 481 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (“Courts are ‘vested with wide discretion’ to fashion a proper remedy to achieve future compliance.”).

119. Finally, the Court should not permit the Debtors to shoehorn Celsius’s breach of contract claim against Core into an automatic stay/contempt theory and thus effectively rewrite the parties’ agreement on damages. Celsius agreed to limit any damages for breach to one month’s fees, which was an important element of the bargain. See supra ¶¶ 7, 53. By attempting to avoid this key provision of the Agreement while seeking to enforce the Agreement, Celsius is improperly and unfairly weaponizing the automatic stay. See In re Scarborough St. James Corp., 535 B.R. 60, 67 (Bankr. D. Del. 2015) (“The [automatic] stay is not meant ... to be used by a debtor to pursue its creditors, as more litigation is hardly consistent with the concept of a breathing spell for the debtor. Instead, the stay is a shield, not a sword.”).

120. Celsius’s attempt to rewrite its Agreement in this manner is contrary to the vast body of case law holding that “filing of a bankruptcy petition does not alter a debtor’s contractual rights or obligations.” In re Penn Traffic Co., 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20407, at *20 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 16, 2005) (citing In re M.J. & K. Co., 161 B.R. 586, 593 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1993)); see also Mission Prod., 139 S. Ct. at 1662.²⁴

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Core respectfully requests that the Court deny the Contempt Motion.

DEBTORS' MOTION TO ENFORCE THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) respectfully state the following in support of this motion (this “Motion”):

INTRODUCTION

1. Since the Debtors filed their Chapter 11 petitions on July 13, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), Core Scientific, Inc. (“Core Scientific”) has knowingly and repeatedly violated the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Debtor Celsius Mining LLC (“Celsius”) has informed Core Scientific of its violations, but Core Scientific has refused to conform its conduct. Celsius has been left with no choice but to seek Court intervention to protect itself and the estate’s assets.

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC’s principal place of business and the Debtors’ service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

2. Core Scientific’s violations of the automatic stay are many and ongoing. One, Core Scientific is refusing to perform the contractual obligations it owes to Celsius under the parties’ Master Services Agreement (“MSA”) and Order #10 to the MSA (“Order #10”) (together, the “Agreement”). Two, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement until Celsius pays its pre-petition obligations. Three, Core Scientific has started adding improper surcharges, called “Power Costs Pass-through,” to Celsius’ invoices following the Petition Date—charges that only arose after the Bankruptcy filing, that constitute a breach of the fixed-price structure of Order #10 (and the preceding orders), and that are an illegitimate attempt to setoff Celsius’ pre-petition debts.

3. Because Core Scientific has refused to live up to its obligations and honor the automatic stay, pursuant to Sections 105(a), 362, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 9014 and 9020 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtors file this Motion and seek entry of an order: (i) holding Core Scientific in civil contempt for having violated the automatic stay of Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) directing Core Scientific to perform under its Agreement with the Debtors; (iii) ordering Core Scientific to immediately return any improperly invoiced amounts and cease any collection efforts for “Power Costs Pass-through” charges; and (iv) assessing appropriate damages for Core Scientific’s civil contempt, including, but not limited to, the costs and attorneys’ fees associated with bringing this Motion and actual damages Celsius has incurred after the Petition Date arising from Core Scientific’s violations of the automatic stay.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012. This is a contested matter pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 9020. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 (“In a contested matter not otherwise governed by these rules, relief shall be requested by motion, and reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing shall be afforded the party against whom relief is sought.”); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9020 (“Rule 9014 governs a motion for an order of contempt made by the United States trustee or a party in interest.”); In re Chief Exec. Officers Clubs, Inc., 359 B.R. 527, 531 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (Glenn, J.) (treating civil contempt request as a “contested matter”); see also In re Yerushalmi, 2011 WL 65739, at *1 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. Jan. 10, 2011) (same).

5. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

6. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

7. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 362 of title 11 of the United States Code.

BACKGROUND

A. The Agreement

8. On December 18, 2020, Core Scientific and Celsius entered into the MSA,² in which Core Scientific agreed to provide certain services in connection with Celsius’ digital-asset mining rigs, including services relating to colocation, hosting, monitoring, maintenance and repair, technical support, and heat and thermal management. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A (“MSA”), § 1(a). Core Scientific agreed to perform its obligations under the MSA in a

² The Agreement was executed by Celsius Core LLC, which is the former name of Debtor Celsius Mining. Declaration of Quinn Lawlor (“Lawlor Decl.”) ¶¶ 1, 3.

“professional and workmanlike manner.” Id. § 5.

9. The parties further agreed that the MSA would be supplemented by certain “Orders,” which would identify the rigs to be deployed, the deployment schedule for those rigs, and the terms of payment. Id. § 1(a). At the time the parties entered the MSA, they simultaneously entered and executed Order #1 through Order #7. See id. at 10–23. The parties later signed Order #8, but they subsequently cancelled it and refunded all deposits. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 4. On August 22, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #9, which concurrently terminated Order #5. See id., Exhibit B at 1. On September 27, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #10. See id., Exhibit C (“Order #10”).

10. Order #10 obligates Core Scientific to provide a specified power allocation beginning in certain months of the contract. It details this power allocation by identifying the deployment month (e.g., “Sep[tember] 2021”), the approximate quantity of rigs to be deployed (e.g., “2,250”), the type of rig (“M30S+ or Equivalent”), and the assumed power consumption per rig in “KWh” or kilowatt hours (3.57 KWh), as follows:

Equipment hosted:	Deployment Month	Quantity & Type of Unit (the “Units”)	Assumed power consumption per Unit (KWh):
	SEP 2021	2,250 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAR 2022	3,530 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	APR 2022	4,710 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAY 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUNE 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUL 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	AUG 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	SEP 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	OCT 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	NOV 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	DEC 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57

See Order #10 at 1.

11. The monthly power allocation is calculated by multiplying the specified quantity of rigs by the assumed power consumption per rig. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 6. The power allocation is cumulative month over month, such that, by the end of the term of Order #10, Core Scientific must provide up to 105 megawatts (“MWs”) of power to Celsius. Id. Relevant here, as of September 2022, Core Scientific is obligated to provide up to 79.4 MWs of power to Celsius. Id.

12. The Agreement also requires Core Scientific to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability as it becomes available. Order #10 at 4–5. Order #10 states:

[Core Scientific] will notify [Celsius] as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any, and provide [Celsius] up to 10 additional MW per month at a hosting services rate of $0.0625 per KWh. Additional hosting availability if available will be the subject of a separate order and provided to [Celsius] on a priority basis, subject to [Celsius’] acceptance.

Id. at 4–5 (emphasis added).

13. In exchange for these services, Celsius agreed to pay Core Scientific an up-front fee along with a series of additional monthly prepayments. Id. at 1–3. The monthly prepayment amount is based on estimated power usage for the upcoming month, which then is subject to a “true up” in the next billing cycle based on Celsius’ actual usage. See id. at 4. Order #10 has fixed-rate pricing for hosting services (the “Hosting-Services Rate”). Id.; Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. The Hosting-Services Rate includes the cost of energy and services for operating rigs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. In September 2021, the Hosting-Services Rate was fixed at $.0575/KWh; in March 2022, the rate was fixed at $.0594/KWh; and from April 2022 through December 2022, the rate is fixed at $.0625/KWh. Id. ¶ 7; Order #10 at 1. In the section titled “Fees,” Order #10 states that Celsius’ fees will be determined “by reference to the Assumed power consumption per Unit of each deployed Unit, multiplied by the Hosting-Services Rate (each as set forth above in this Order).” Order #10 at 4 (emphasis added).³

³ The preceding orders (Orders #1 through #9) similarly had a fixed-rate pricing structure. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1, Exhibit C at 1.

14. Because Order #10 and the preceding orders are fixed-price agreements, they do not permit Core Scientific to pass through increased power costs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. To the contrary, Section 4(f) of the MSA allows Core Scientific to “pass through” only “new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services”—but not increased power costs. MSA § 4(f) (emphasis added). For Celsius, the fixed Hosting-Services Rate under Order #10, and the preceding orders, were an essential term of the parties’ agreement because it meant that Core Scientific, not Celsius, would bear the risk of rising power rates. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7.

15. To date, Celsius has paid approximately $18.2 million under Order #10 and has continuing payment obligations of approximately $5.4 million under Order #10. Id. ¶ 9.

B. Core Scientific’s Failure to Deploy Celsius’ Rigs

16. Celsius has delivered 10,885 rigs into Core Scientific’s possession under Order #10. To this day, Core Scientific is deploying only 6,564 of Celsius’ rigs and is providing Celsius with only 21.5 MWs of power. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; Order #10 at 1. But Celsius is entitled to 79.4 MWs as of September 2022, which is the hosting capacity to operate approximately 22,000 rigs of the type specified in Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; see Order #10 at 1. Thus, Core Scientific’s current shortfall under Order #10 is 58 MWs of power and at least 15,700 rigs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10.

17. Core Scientific’s current shortfalls are a direct consequence of its pre-petition conduct. Since the MSA was signed, Core Scientific has performed a now-familiar routine: it delays deployment of Celsius’ rigs; it follows those delays with empty promises to catch up; and it follows those promises with even more delays, in contravention of the Agreement and its own interim representations.

18. Celsius delivered its 10,885 rigs under Order #10 to Core Scientific in three tranches prior to the petition, and each time, Celsius had to wait months for its rigs to come online. Id. ¶ 11. For nearly half those rigs, Celsius is still waiting. Id. ¶ 15. Celsius delivered an initial tranche of 2,245 rigs to Core Scientific between the end of October and mid-November 2021. Id. ¶ 11. Core Scientific did not fully deploy those rigs until January 30, 2022. Id.

19. Celsius delivered a second tranche of 3,780 rigs to Core Scientific at the end of March 2022. Id. at ¶ 12. By May 25, 2022, the March rigs were still not deployed. Id. In an attempt to resolve the issue amicably, Celsius reached out to Core Scientific to ask it to confirm that the 3,780 March rigs (and plus an additional 4,710 rigs from other Orders) would be deployed by June so that Celsius could “put [it] into our working assumptions on deployment activities this month.” Id., Exhibit D at 2. Core Scientific wrote back, “Yes sir, it is . . . 8490 confirmed.” Id. at 1. Celsius took Core Scientific at its word and relied upon that promise. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 13. Celsius both built this assumption into its financial projections and reduced the intensity of its search for alternative hosting services providers. Id.

20. But that representation was false, and Core Scientific again failed to deploy the rigs according to its latest representations. Id. Core Scientific even acknowledged its breach of the Agreement. On June 2, 2022, a representative from Core Scientific proposed that Celsius could delay making any further payments to Core until after June 20 “as compensation for our delayed deployment schedule.” Id., Exhibit E at 1.

21. Ultimately, Core Scientific did not fully deploy the March rigs until July 21, 2022. Id. ¶ 14. But even after getting those rigs online, between July 21, 2022 and September 16, 2022, Core Scientific had the March rigs online for a total of approximately eight days. Id. No power was available to the March rigs for the remainder of that time. Id. Core Scientific only brought the March rigs back online on September 16, 2022, after leaving them idle for months. Id. In other words, until two weeks ago, Core Scientific was providing Celsius with only approximately 9.7 MWs (just 12% of the hosting capacity Core Scientific is obligated to provide under Order #10), and only approximately 2,794 of Celsius' rigs were operational. Id.

22. Celsius delivered a third tranche of 4,860 rigs to Core Scientific in June 2022. Id. ¶ 15. Despite having those rigs in its possession for more than three months, Core Scientific has failed to deploy 4,320 of those rigs and, instead, they are sitting idle. Id. Now, Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from sending any more rigs under Order #10. Id. ¶ 16. Thus, rigs that Celsius has been planning to deploy under Order #10 are now sitting in limbo with no place to go, instead of earning revenue for the estate.

23. Core Scientific's delays have caused the Debtors to suffer material losses to their potential gross revenues and profits. Id. The Debtors continue to suffer additional losses with each day that Core Scientific fails to immediately deploy Celsius' rigs.

C. Core Scientific's Failure to Notify Celsius of Additional Availability

24. Core Scientific's performance failures are not limited to delays in deploying rigs. It also continues to fail to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability and to provide that availability on a "priority basis," as the Agreement requires. See Order #10 at 4–5. Core Scientific had availability but used it for itself rather than offering it to Celsius. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 19. In fact, Core Scientific announced to investors that it had increased its own mining fleet from 67,000 to 85,000 mining rigs between December 2021 and April 2022. Id. Core Scientific never informed Celsius of any additional hosting availability. Id.

D. Core Scientific's Post-Petition Termination Threats

25. Following the Petition Date, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement and withhold performance due to Celsius' pre-petition debts. On an August 22,

2022, telephone call between Core Scientific and Celsius, a representative for Core Scientific stated that no new deployments would go forward until Celsius caught up on its payments. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 17. Then, in an August 29, 2022 email, Core Scientific notified Celsius that it had an overdue invoice, and threatened Celsius that, among other things, Core Scientific could “suspend the provision of the Services,” “disconnect Client Equipment and store it,” and “terminate the MSA and all Orders thereunder.” See Id. ¶ 18, Exhibit F at 1. Core Scientific has since disclaimed the August 29 threat, as discussed below, but it did not disclaim or deny the August 22 verbal threat and instead has ginned up different and pretextual potential bases for termination. Id. ¶ 28.

E. Core Scientific’s Attempt to “Pass Through” Its Power Costs

26. Finally, since the Petition Date, Core Scientific has begun adding certain surcharges to Celsius’ invoices that contravene the fixed-price structure of the orders between the parties. Worse, Core Scientific has misrepresented the nature of these surcharges.

27. On July 15, 2022, Celsius received its first post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, which totaled approximately $4.6 million. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 20, Exhibit G. The July 15 invoice contained a new line item that had never before appeared on any previous (i.e., pre-petition) invoice, called “Power Costs Pass-through.” Id., Exhibit G at 3. The charges for “Power Costs Pass-through” totaled just over $911,000. Id. at 3. According to the invoice, these charges were being retroactively imposed for services provided to Celsius between May 2022 and June 2022. Id.

28. Core Scientific explained these charges as follows:

Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs under the Master

Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup.

Id. at 1 (emphasis added). Because the invoice indicated that the “Power Costs Pass-through” charges accrued pre-petition, Celsius did not pay them. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 21.

29. On August 16, 2022, Celsius received its second post-petition invoice from Core Scientific totaling $5.5 million. Id. ¶ 22, Exhibit H. Once again, Core Scientific included a line item for “Power Costs Pass-through.” Exhibit H at 3. This time, the “Power Costs Pass-through” line item was even more significant—accounting for over $1 million of the $5.5 million invoice. Id. Core Scientific again explained this cost as a “tariff increase” that it was “passing through” under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Id. at 1. In reliance on Core Scientific’s representation that the “Power Costs Pass-through” was a “tariff” subject to pass-through under Section 4(f), Celsius paid the post-petition amounts, including the post-petition portion of the “Power Costs Pass through” item, in order to avoid a post-petition breach of the Agreement. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 22.

30. On September 15, 2022, Celsius received a third post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, totaling $6.5 million. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit I. That invoice also included the “Power Costs Pass-through” charge, which totaled more than $1.74 million. Id. at 3. Core Scientific again claimed that this was a “tariff” subject to pass through under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Id. at 1.

31. Giving the timing of these new costs, Celsius became concerned, and on September 20, 2022, Celsius disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through.” Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J. Celsius also asked Core Scientific to provide “any documents and materials reflecting both the ‘tariff increases’ that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific.” Id. at 2.

32. In response, Core Scientific provided information showing increased power rates in the various jurisdictions where Celsius rigs are located. Id. at 5–8. This confirmed that the “Power Cost Pass-through” surcharges Core Scientific had been adding to Celsius’ post-petition invoices were not new “tariffs,” as Core Scientific had claimed, but rather, were simply the incremental increases in power costs to Core Scientific—which were not subject to pass through under the MSA. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 26.

F. Celsius Advises Core Scientific Of Its Automatic Stay Violations

33. On September 9, 2022, the Debtors sent a letter to Core Scientific demanding that Core Scientific fulfill its commitments under the Agreement and advising Core Scientific that its failure to do so is a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362(a). See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit K. Celsius sent this letter in an effort to resolve its issues with Core Scientific without the Court’s involvement.

34. Eleven days later, on September 20, 2022, Core Scientific finally responded by letter to counsel for Celsius. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L. Core Scientific explicitly disclaimed that it had invoked any of the contractual remedies referenced in its August 29, 2022, email, dismissing that email as “automated.” Id. at 1. Without providing any supporting detail, Core Scientific denied that it failed to provide Celsius with the hosting capacity required by the MSA or Order #10. Id. At no point did Core Scientific deny that the Agreement qualifies as an executory contract, nor did it dispute that a failure to perform under the Agreement (if shown) would qualify as a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362.

35. The Debtors therefore are left with no choice but to bring this Motion and seek a Court order of civil contempt, compelling Core Scientific’s compliance with its contractual obligations and imposing other damages that the Court deems proper. The Debtors should not be left at the mercy of a contractual counterparty that both is trying to starve them of critical revenues by refusing to deploy rigs and attempting to bleed their coffers dry by imposing improper “tariffs.”

LEGAL STANDARD

36. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code operates immediately upon a debtor’s filing of a bankruptcy petition to stay various acts that could interfere with the orderly distribution of the bankruptcy estate. See S.E.C. v. Brennan, 230 F.3d 65, 70 (2d Cir. 2000). “[T]he purpose of the automatic stay is to give the debtor a breathing spell from creditors, to stop all collection efforts, and to permit the debtor to attempt repayment or reorganization.” In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201, 211 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (citation omitted, alteration in original). As relevant here, Section 362(a)(3) prohibits “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). Section 362(a)(7) prohibits “the setoff of any debt owing to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title against any claim against the debtor.” Id. § 362(a)(7).

37. Bankruptcy courts can enforce the automatic stay pursuant to their powers under Sections 362 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Congregation Birchos Yosef, 535 B.R. 629, 632 & n.2 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015). Further, through their inherent contempt powers and Section 105, bankruptcy courts can award sanctions for violations of the automatic stay. In re Windstream Holdings, Inc., 627 B.R. 32, 38 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2021); In re Chateaugay Corp., 920 F.2d 183, 186-87 (2d Cir. 1990). To impose civil contempt sanctions, the Court need not make a finding of willfulness; rather, it need only find that there was no objectively “fair ground of doubt” that the party’s conduct was prohibited by the automatic stay. Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 40–41.

ARGUMENT

I. The Agreement Is An Executory Contract Protected By The Automatic Stay.

38. “[E]xecutory contracts and leases are considered a form of property of the estate.” In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. 646, 657 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009), (citation omitted). “[T]hose rights [therefore] are protected by the automatic stay.” Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 (citation omitted). The debtor is entitled to enforce any executory contract pending a decision whether to assume or reject the contract. See McLean Indus. v. Medical Lab’y Automation, Inc., 96 B.R. 440, 449 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. at 656; McLean, 96 B.R. at 448 (“[A]n assumable but unassumed executory contract continues in effect and can be enforced by a debtor-in-possession.”).

39. The Agreement is an executory contract pending the Debtors’ decision to assume or reject it. A federal bankruptcy court uses one of two tests to determine whether an agreement is an “executory contract” enforceable by the debtor, as the Second Circuit has not conclusively adopted either one as the correct standard. See In re NanoDynamics, Inc., 735 F. App’x 762, 764 (2d Cir. 2018). The first test—the “Countryman” test—considers a contract “executory” “if material future performance obligations remain on both sides of the contract.” In re WorldCom, Inc., 343 B.R. 486, 493 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006) (citation omitted). The second test—the “some performance due” test—is “a less demanding inquiry ... [that] defines an executory contract as one ‘on which performance remains due to some extent on both sides.’” NanoDynamics, 735 F. App’x at 764 (quoting In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 85 F.3d 992, 998–99 (2d Cir. 1996)).

40. The Agreement is executory regardless of which test applies, and Core Scientific has never contended otherwise. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit M. The Countryman test is satisfied because the parties’ remaining future performance obligations are “material” to the Agreement. See In re Teligent, Inc., 268 B.R. 723, 730–31 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001). It cannot be seriously disputed that Core Scientific's hosting and notification obligations, on the one hand, and Celsius' payment obligations, on the other, "go[] to the essence" of the parties' bargain under the Agreement. Id.; see also Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 655 ("Based on the parties' respective continuing obligations under the Member Agreement, the Member Agreement is an executory contract.").

41. The "some performance due" test is satisfied because "neither side [has] tendered complete performance on the Agreement." NanoDynamics, 735 F. App'x at 764. Core Scientific owes Celsius 58 MWs of additional power deployment as of the date of this filing, and it has continuing deployment obligations through at least December 2022 under Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; Order #10 at 1, 3. It also has an ongoing obligation to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability on a priority basis. Order #10 at 4–5. Celsius, on the other hand, has continuing payment obligations to Core Scientific through December 2022. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 9.

II. Core Scientific's Failure To Perform And Threats To Terminate The Agreement Violate The Automatic Stay.

42. Core Scientific has violated Section 362(a)(3) by failing to perform its obligations under the Agreement and threatening termination. See In re AMR Corp., 730 F.3d 88, 102 (2d Cir. 2013) ("[T]he bankruptcy court did not err in concluding that any attempt to [rescind a contract provision] would be an attempt to modify contract rights and would therefore be subject to the automatic stay that went into effect when [the debtor] made its § 1110(a) elections."); Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 ("[B]y seeking to enforce the terms of the Employment Agreement, and by unilaterally seeking to terminate same and invoke its damages provisions, the Court finds that Claimant violated the automatic stay."); see also In re 48th Steakhouse, Inc., 835 F.2d 427, 431

(2d Cir. 1987); Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 657; In re The Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. 1019, 1024 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996).

43. First, Core Scientific is providing Celsius with only 21.5 MWs of power under Order #10, even though Celsius is due 79.4 MWs as of the end of September 2022. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 6, 10. Core Scientific is running only 6,564 Celsius rigs under Order #10. Id. ¶ 10. Core Scientific has another 4,320 rigs that it refuses to deploy. Id. ¶ 15. And it is contractually obligated to deploy approximately 11,000 more rigs under Order #10—but Celsius has not provided those to Core Scientific both because Core Scientific has refused to deploy the rigs in its possession and because Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from sending it more rigs. Id. ¶ 16. Not only does Core Scientific’s conduct contravene the deployment schedule, see Order #10 at 1, but it also falls far short of Core Scientific’s obligation to provide services “in a professional and workmanlike manner,” see MSA § 5(a). Core Scientific’s ongoing failure to perform its deployment obligations under Order #10 violates the automatic stay. See Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 657 (“By refusing to perform its obligations under the Member Agreement, NCTC is interfering with Broadstripe’s property rights under the Member Agreement and acting in violation of the automatic stay.”).

44. To the extent Core Scientific attempts to shift blame to Celsius for any delays in delivering the rigs, such an argument should be rejected. Core Scientific has acknowledged that it is to blame for the delays. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 13, Exhibit E at 1. In fact, Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from even sending it any more rigs under Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 16. Regardless, any delivery delays could not possibly excuse Core Scientific’s excessive, repeated delays in deployment, nor could they excuse Core Scientific’s failure to fully deploy the rigs that it has.

45. Second, Core Scientific continues to fail to notify Celsius of the availability of hosting sites “on a priority basis,” as required by Order #10. See Order #10 at 4–5. Celsius has never once been notified of additional hosting availability, and in fact, is aware of at least one pre-petition instance in which Core Scientific breached this obligation. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 19. Core Scientific’s ongoing failure to perform on its notification obligations violates the automatic stay. In re Ernie Haire Ford, Inc., 403 B.R. 750, 760–61 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2009) (“While these agreements are in full force and effect, the parties are bound by their terms and must continue to operate under the agreements in good faith.”).

46. Third, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement due to Celsius’ overdue pre-petition obligations. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 17–18 & Exhibit F. Although Core Scientific now disclaims its August 29, 2022, email threat to terminate the MSA, see Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L at 2, Core Scientific did not disclaim or deny that its representative stated on an August 22, 2022, phone call that Core Scientific would not conduct any more deployments until Celsius became current on its payments. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 28; see Exhibit L. Threats like this to terminate the Agreement or withhold performance until the debtor makes payments violate the automatic stay. See Enron Corp., 300 B.R. at 212 (“In attempting to enforce the Employment Agreement by procuring payment of the Retention Bonus and the Termination Payment, and by sending notice of the termination of such agreement, Claimant acted to obtain possession of property of the estate and to exercise control over property of the estate.”); Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. at 1024 (“It is therefore clear, that Thomasville’s actions in attempting to cancel its contract with Elder–Beerman were in violation of the automatic stay.”).

47. It is no answer to suggest that Celsius’ past due balance somehow gives Core Scientific a valid ground to terminate or otherwise seek to enforce the Agreement against Celsius. Courts have been clear that “an unassumed executory contract is not enforceable against the Chapter 11 debtor,” and therefore “the nondebtor party cannot terminate the contract by reason of the debtor’s defaults thereunder.” United States v. Dewey Freight Sys., Inc., 31 F.3d 620, 625 (8th Cir. 1994) (citation omitted); see also NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 531–32 (1984); In re Monarch Cap. Corp., 163 B.R. 899, 907 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1994).

III. Core Scientific’s Attempt To Collect Pre-Petition Debt Violates The Automatic Stay.

48. Core Scientific’s improper attempt to “pass through” to Celsius increased power costs violates the automatic stay in multiple, independent ways: Core Scientific is attempting to siphon “possession of property of the estate” without any lawful basis, see 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3); Core Scientific is attempting to modify its contractual obligations under the specific orders between the parties, see AMR Corp., 730 F.3d at 102 (stating that “an attempt to modify contract rights” violates the automatic stay); and Core Scientific is attempting to offset Celsius’ pre-petition debts by charging additional fees, see 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(7); In re Rodriguez, 629 F.3d 136, 142 (3d Cir. 2010) (holding that defendant violated the automatic stay by increasing debtor’s post-petition payment requirement to account for a pre-petition obligation).

49. As discussed above, after the Petition Date, Core Scientific began adding the “Power Costs Pass-through” to Celsius’ monthly invoices. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 20-25. This “pass-through” line item—which is significant—has only appeared on the invoices after the Petition Date. Id. As Core Scientific’s own documentation shows, the “Power Cost Pass-through” is simply the incremental increase in Core Scientific’s power costs resulting from price fluctuations for the cost of energy. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J at 5–8.

50. Core Scientific has attempted to pass off its increased power costs as “tariffs” subject to pass through under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 22–24; see Exhibit I at 1. A tariff, as commonly understood and as used in Section 4(f), refers to “duties to be imposed on imports and exports.” Oxford English Dictionary (Online Ed.); Black’s Law Dictionary (11th ed. 2019) (defining “tariff” as “[a] schedule or system of duties imposed by a government on imported or exported goods.”). A fluctuation in the cost of power is neither “new” nor a “tariff[.]” Indeed, such an interpretation would directly contravene the fixed-rate pricing structure under Order #10 and the preceding orders, which entitle Celsius to the fixed Hosting-Services Rate as “set forth . . . in this Order.” See Order #10 at 4 (emphasis added); see also Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1.

51. Core Scientific’s conduct leaves Celsius with a lose-lose choice: either pay the improper charges and sacrifice estate property that Core Scientific is not entitled to, or refuse to pay and give Core Scientific a pretextual basis to terminate the Agreement. Indeed, Core Scientific has already threatened to terminate if Celsius does not remain current on its post-petition obligations. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L at 2.

IV. Core Scientific Is In Contempt Of This Court For Its Violations Of The Automatic Stay.

52. Core Scientific’s actions in violation of the automatic stay “are void and without effect.” 48th St. Steakhouse, 835 F.2d at 431 (2d Cir. 1987) (citation omitted). Core Scientific remains bound by the terms of the Agreement and “must continue to do business with” Celsius “absent an order granting relief from stay.” Ernie Haire Ford, 403 B.R. at 753, 760–61 (granting debtor’s motions to compel non-debtors’ compliance with contracts).

53. Moreover, by withholding performance, threatening termination, and attempting to setoff a pre-petition debt, Core Scientific is in contempt of this Court for violating the automatic stay. Section 362(a) “clearly and unambiguously stays such conduct,” and “[a] reasonable person would not think otherwise.” Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 41. Although a finding of willfulness is not required to hold a party in contempt, id. at 39, Core Scientific had actual notice of its violations, which makes its conduct even more egregious. Celsius both sent a letter to Core Scientific and disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through” on its invoices. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J at 2, Exhibit K. Yet, Core Scientific refused to cure its breaches of the automatic stay. See Exhibit L.

54. The Court has the ability to award sanctions under its civil contempt power for breach of the automatic stay, including “coercive sanctions to encourage compliance” and “damages for monetary harm,” including but not limited to, the “fees and expenses incurred in trying to enforce the stay.” Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 47, 49.

55. Consistent with this authority, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order:

- i. Holding Core Scientific in civil contempt for having violated and disregarded the automatic stay;
- ii. Directing Core Scientific to deploy all Celsius rigs in its possession forthwith, to accept and deploy additional rigs from Celsius as permitted under the Agreement, and to notify Celsius of any additional hosting availability;
- iii. Ordering Core Scientific to immediately return any “Power Costs Pass-through” paid by Celsius to Core Scientific in connection with the August 15, 2022 invoice and to immediately cease and desist from any attempts to collect or further assess charges for “Power Costs Pass-through;” and
- iv. Assessing appropriate compensatory payments in the amount of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in seeking to enforce the stay and actual damages Celsius has incurred after the Petition Date arising from Core Scientific’s violations of the automatic stay.

56. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Committee; (c) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (d) the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f)

EXHIBIT A

MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Master Services Agreement (“Agreement”) effective as of December 18, 2020 (“Effective Date”) is between CORE SCIENTIFIC, INC. (“Company”) and CELSIUS CORE LLC (“Client”).

WHEREAS, Client desires access to locate its Client Equipment (as defined below) at the Company Facility (as defined below) and receive certain Services (as defined below); and

WHEREAS, Company desires to provide such Services at its Company Facility.

The parties agree as follows:

1. AGREEMENT STRUCTURE

a. This Agreement provides general terms applicable to Company’s provision of certain services, including, without limitation, colocation, hosting, rack space, security, monitoring, maintenance, utilities, Client Equipment maintenance and repair, facility management, account management, network and data access, technical support, and heat and thermal management services (“Services”) to Client in a data center owned or operated by Company or its affiliates (“Company Facility”) in mutually agreed transactions described in mutually executed ordering documents in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto that reference and are governed by this Agreement (“Orders”). Each Order will be a separate agreement between Company and Client and will be deemed to incorporate the terms of this Agreement by reference. Company may require Customer to provide evidence of creditworthiness or credit support acceptable to Company in its sole discretion as a condition to accepting any Order. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the specific terms of an Order, the specific terms of the Order govern with respect to such Order.

2. SERVICES AND COMPANY FACILITY

a. Company will provide Client the Services at a Company Facility set forth in an Order. This Agreement is not intended to and does not constitute a lease of any real or personal property or a grant of any other real property interest. Unless otherwise set forth in an Order, Client Equipment is owned by Client will not be construed as fixtures or fittings or otherwise attached to a Company Facility. Company retains title to all racking, connectors, fittings, parts and other materials used or provided by Company at a Company Facility to provide Client the Services. Client acknowledges and agrees that access to a Company Facility may be provided only during Company’s ordinary business hours and only upon Company’s prior written consent, which shall be subject in all events to the terms of this Agreement and may be withheld, conditioned or delayed in Company’s sole discretion.. Client will be liable for the actions of all persons accessing Company Facility on its behalf.

b. Company has the right to review and the sole right to approve any delivery, installation (including, without limitation, the location and position of Client Equipment at the Company Facility), replacement or removal work with respect to Client’s computer hardware or other tangible equipment (“Client Equipment”) at a Company Facility. Client shall be fully responsible for delivering all Client Equipment to Company at a specified Company Facility on or before the applicable scheduled delivery date, each as specified in an Order. Client will be responsible for all risk of loss or damage to Client Equipment at all times until such Client Equipment is accepted by Company at a designated Company Facility.

c. Client Equipment will adhere to Company’s specifications, procedures, rules, and regulations, including, without limitation, equipment labeling and tracking and security practices and policies for the Company Facility, all of which are incorporated herein by this reference. If Company determines in its sole discretion that Client Equipment or related operating software does not conform to its policies or is not suitable for the provision of Services at the Company Facility, Company may suspend installation of Client Equipment and operating software or commencement of the Services until Company approves of the Client Equipment and operating software. Company has no responsibility or liability for any loss or damage to Client Equipment, including without limitation any damage to Client Equipment, failure to adhere to any manufacturer warranty, the voiding of any manufacturer warranty or loss of or inability to collect under any manufacturer warranty, unless directly caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of Company.

d. Client is responsible for costs and expenses regarding the installation, repair, replacement and removal of Client Equipment and tariffs, taxes, shipping costs or other expenses associated with owning, shipping, importing or transporting Client Equipment. Upon any expiration or termination of an applicable Order, Company will provide Client with a written notice, which may be by email (the “Retrieval Notice”), of the date when Client Equipment is ready to be removed from Company Facility, which will be at Client’s sole expense. Such notice will document the condition of Client Equipment being prepared for shipment, any outstanding amounts owed by Client to Company and Client shall have five (5) calendar days from the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice to pay any outstanding amounts owed to Company and remove at Client’s sole cost and expense Client Equipment from Company Facility. Client will hold Company harmless from any damage caused to Client Equipment during such pickup and removal of Client Equipment. The failure or delay by Client to retrieve Client Equipment on or before the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice will constitute abandonment of Client Equipment under the laws of the jurisdiction where the Client Equipment is located and Company will be entitled to pursue at Client’s sole risk and expense all available remedies, including, without limitation, the actions set forth in Section 4(d), as applicable.

e. In order to continue to provide the Services, from time to time Company may request, and Client shall promptly provide, information regarding Client Equipment, Client’s related operating software, Client’s systems, and other information reasonably necessary in Company’s provision of the Services.

f. If software and services of a third party are requested by Client in conjunction with the Services (“Third Party Services”) and identified in an Order, Client acknowledges and agrees that such Third Party Services are the responsibility of the third party, subject to separate terms and conditions between such third party and Client and Company accepts no responsibility for the performance of such Third Party Services or any loss or damage arising from or associated with the provision of such Third Party Services.

3. PAYMENT TERMS AND TAXES

a. Company will invoice Client monthly in advance for all applicable fees for use of Company Facility and provision of Services as set forth in the applicable Order. Client will pay all invoiced amounts in US dollars within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the invoice. All payments must be (i) in US dollars into an ACH account number as set forth in the applicable Order; or (ii) to another account or form of payment directed by Company. Interest shall be charged on past due amounts at the lesser of (A) one and a half percent (1.5%) per month; or (B) the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

b. Client may, in good faith, dispute any invoice or any part thereof (a “Disputed Amount”) by submitting a written notice of such dispute along with reasonable supporting documentation within three (3) calendar days of the date of the initial invoice on which the Disputed Amount appears, failing which Client waives all rights to dispute such Disputed Amount and to file any claim. Company will review the Disputed Amount after its receipt of the relevant notice and if Company determines that Client was billed in error, a credit for the amount invoiced incorrectly will be made to the next invoice. If Company determines that the amount was invoiced correctly, Client will pay the amount by the due date of the next invoice. For clarity, Client shall promptly pay all undisputed amounts.

c. All amounts payable to Company under this Agreement exclude applicable taxes. Client is responsible for (i) taxes related to its activities and the ownership and operation of Client Equipment; and (ii) taxes imposed, levied or assessed thereon by any governmental or other authorities. If Client is required to make any deduction, withholding or payment for taxes in any jurisdiction on amounts payable to Company, such amounts will be increased such that after making such deduction, Company receives an amount equal to what it would have received if such deduction, withholding or payment had not been made.

4. TERM, TERMINATION, MODIFICATION AND SUSPENSION

a. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until terminated as permitted by this Agreement. Each Order commences on the effective date set forth in the Order, has the initial term ("Initial Term") set forth in the Order, and thereafter automatically renews for the additional periods set forth in the Order, or if no renewal period is set forth then one (1) year periods, (each, a "Renewal term" and collectively, the "Term") unless Client notifies Company in writing not less than ninety (90) calendar days before such renewal of its desire for the order not to renew.

b. Either party may terminate an Order upon written notice to the other party and take such other action identified in Section 4 d. below if the other party materially breaches such Order or this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days (5 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance (as defined below) or 2 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance two or more times during any twelve month period). If the breach (other than Client failure to pay amounts when due) cannot be cured within thirty (30) calendar days, the breaching party shall be given a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of the notice, to cure the breach, provided that the breaching party acts promptly and diligently to cure such breach.

c. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party if there have been no Orders in effect for twelve (12) consecutive months.

d. In addition to the remedy set forth in Section 4 b. above if Client fails to pay all invoiced amounts when due (an "Unpaid Balance"), or otherwise fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement after opportunity to cure as provided in Section 4 b above Company may, in its sole discretion, take certain actions including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense:

- (i) suspend the provision of the Services;
- (ii) disconnect Client Equipment and store it;
- (iii) declare all amounts due under the applicable Order through the balance of the Term to be immediately due and payable;
- (iv) operate Client Equipment for cryptocurrency mining and other activities at Company's sole discretion and direct all resulting proceeds to Company's own account until Company has recovered all amounts due, including, without limitation, any reinstatement, disconnection or storage fees or costs;
- (v) terminate this Agreement and all Orders; and
- (vi) exercise all other rights under this Agreement, at law, in equity or otherwise.

Unless Company has terminated this Agreement, Company will reverse the suspension of the provision of the Company Facility and Services and disconnection of Client Equipment as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to the suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee. Thereafter, Company may, at its sole discretion, require an advance payment equal to the amount of one billing invoice.

e. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company may suspend its provision of all or a portion of the Services and disconnect all of a portion of Client Equipment immediately if Company determines in its sole discretion that: Client's use of the Services or Client Equipment (i) may adversely impact or pose a security risk to Company's operation or maintenance of the Company Facility or Company's other clients; (ii) may subject Company to liability; or (iii) is not in compliance with this Agreement or Company's policies. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension or disconnection. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to reverse such suspension or disconnection as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied that Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to such suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee as set forth in the applicable Order. Further, Company may terminate this Agreement and all Orders if such suspension or disconnection continues for at least two (2) calendar days or occurs more than three (3) times in any twelve (12) month period. For clarity, during the period of suspension or disconnection, Client remains responsible for all fees and charges Client incurs during such period. Further, after the Effective Date, if Company determines in its sole and absolute discretion that as a result of any change in, or interpretation, introduction or administration of, any laws, regulations, statutes, treaties, rules, guidelines, ordinances, codes or the like, or any proposed or anticipated changes in, or interpretations, introduction or administration of the foregoing (a "Change in Law"), has resulted in an increase in Company's cost of compliance with such Change in Law then Company may, in its commercially reasonable discretion, take certain actions, including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense: (i) terminate this Agreement, any or all Orders; and/or (ii) modify the Services as may be necessary to account for such Change in Law. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client of such Company actions and the effective date of such actions.

f. Further, and notwithstanding the Change in Law related costs above, after the Effective Date, if there are any increases, changes in, or introduction or administration of, any new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services, Company may, in its sole and absolute discretion, pass through all such amounts to Client ("Increased Costs") and Client shall pay all Increased Costs in accordance with the payment and invoicing procedures as set forth in this Agreement.

g. Company shall not be liable for any Client loss or damage whatsoever as a result of the exercise of its rights under this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement or an Order by Company, Company is entitled to recover from Client all loss or damages incurred by Company as a result of such termination, outstanding fees, costs, charges, assessments, reimbursements, and expenses (including, without limitation, costs of collection and reasonable attorneys' fees).

h. In addition to Section 4(f), the Company may terminate or suspend all or a portion of the Services if necessary to be in compliance with applicable law, rules, regulations, administrative or judicial orders or decree. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension. Hi Jenny and Praveena,

Hope you are doing well! Please see attached invoice INV42672 and associated support for your Hosting Services.

Hi Monica,

We are in receipt of the invoice (INV42672) for August actual hosting cost. Your email indicates that Core Scientific has been notified of "significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs," and that, as a result, "surcharges" have been added to the invoice pursuant to Section 4(f) of the Master Services Agreement ("MSA"). Pursuant to section 3(b) of the MSA, Celsius hereby disputes these surcharges as they appear in the invoice (INV42672) and any prior invoices, including the invoice (INV42658) for July actual hosting cost. While we dispute these surcharges, we do wish to work cooperatively in an effort to understand these charges and resolve this issue. To that end, please provide to Celsius any documents and materials reflecting both the "tariff increases" that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific, in each of the relevant jurisdictions (namely, Georgia, Kentucky, and Texas).

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Hope you are doing well! Please see attached invoice INV42672 and associated support for your Hosting Services.

Kindly note that Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs under the Master Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup. The tariff surcharges for your August 2022 usages in GA, KY and/or Marble 1, and TX sites have been added to this invoice.

Thank you, we appreciate your business and trust in Core Scientific!

Monica

Re: Celsius Network LLC et al., Case No. 22-10964 (MG) (Jointly Administered)

Dear Mr. DuChene:

Our firm represents Celsius Mining LLC (“Celsius”). As you may be aware, on July 13, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), Celsius, Celsius Network LLC, and certain of their affiliates (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed petitions for relief under title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”). I write in regard to Core Scientific’s (“Core”) recent threats to terminate its contractual obligations and failure to otherwise perform under the Master Services Agreement (the “MSA”) and Order #10 to the MSA (“Order #10”) (together, the “Agreement”).¹

Upon the Debtors’ filing of their petitions, all creditors were automatically stayed from taking certain actions against the Debtors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Specifically, section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.” Because the Agreement is an executory contract under which mutual performance remains due, the Debtors’ interest in the Agreement constitutes property of the estate that is subject to the automatic stay. See, e.g., In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201, 212 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 138 B.R. 687, 701 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (holding that executory contracts are property of the estate).

¹ The MSA is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Order #10 is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings given to them in the MSA or Order #10, as applicable.

KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP

Todd DuChene
September 9, 2022

It is blackletter law that threats to withhold contractual performance, or the failure to perform under an executory contract, violates the automatic stay. See, e.g., Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 (“[B]y unilaterally seeking to terminate [the agreement] and invoke its damages provisions, the Court finds that Claimant violated the automatic stay.”); In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. 646, 657 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009), as amended (Mar. 10, 2009) (“By refusing to perform its obligations under the Member Agreement, NCTC is interfering with Broadstripe’s property rights under the Member Agreement and acting in violation of the automatic stay.”); In re Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. 1019, 1024 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996) (“Thomasville’s actions in attempting to cancel its contract with Elder-Beerman were in violation of the automatic stay.”).

By its actions, Core has violated the automatic stay in at least the following ways:

- Following the Petition Date, Core has threatened—both during a phone call on August 22, 2022, and in emails (see email attached hereto as Exhibit C)—to terminate the Agreement or withhold performance.
- Under the Agreement, Celsius is entitled to have, and Core is obligated to provide, 71 megawatts as of August 2022 (the hosting capacity to operate at least 22,536 Celsius rigs). But Core is providing Celsius with only 9.8 megawatts (just 2,785 Celsius rigs).
- Core continues to fail to inform Celsius of additional hosting availability, despite its obligation to do so under the parties’ Agreement.

In addition to violating the automatic stay, Core has breached the parties’ Agreement in numerous ways, both before and after the Petition Date. First, Core deviated substantially from the mining rig deployment schedule the parties agreed upon in Order #10. Core delayed deploying Celsius’s mining rigs several weeks—and even months—past the agreed-upon deployment dates. Second, Core failed to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability. Instead, between December 2021 and April 2022 Core increased its own mining fleet from 67,000 to 85,000 mining rigs, while failing to notify Celsius of any additional hosting availability.

Celsius has attempted to amicably resolve these delays with Core, and Core has acknowledged its fault for the delays on several occasions. For example, on May 25, 2022, Core represented to Celsius that it would deploy 8,490 mining rigs by June 2022. Celsius agreed to that representation and relied upon it. But that representation was false, and Core again failed to meet the parties’ agreed-upon deployment schedule.

Core’s refusal to honor the terms of the Agreement violates the Bankruptcy Code, constitutes a breach of contract, and contravenes the representations that Core made to Celsius and

KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP

Todd DuChene
September 9, 2022

that Celsius relied upon. As a result of Core's delays, as of the end of August 2022, Celsius has suffered losses in excess of $20 million, and continues to suffer additional losses with each day that Core refuses to satisfy its contractual obligations and immediately deploy Celsius's mining rigs.

Because Core's actions violate the automatic stay, they are void and without effect, and may necessitate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court with the attendant possibility of damages, sanctions, costs, and other expenses. See Fidelity Mortg. Inv'rs v. Camelia Builders, Inc., 550 F.2d 47 (2d Cir. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 1093 (1977); Cent. States, Se. and Sw. Areas Pension Fund v. Slotky, 956 F.2d 1369 (7th Cir. 1992).

The Debtors hereby demand that Core remedy its violations, withdraw its threats to withhold performance, and immediately deploy Celsius's mining rigs pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. If Celsius is not promptly provided written assurance that Core will do so, Celsius is fully prepared to take all actions available to it at law and equity, including seeking expedited relief from the Bankruptcy Court, forcing Core to perform pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, and pursuing claims for any and all damages incurred by Celsius as a result of Core's actions.

Please promptly confirm, in writing, that Core will immediately continue to honor its obligations under the Agreement and make no further attempt to terminate or otherwise fail to perform under the Agreement. If you have any questions or would like to discuss, please let me know. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors reserve all rights at law and in equity and waive none.

Sincerely,

/s/ Judson Brown

Client shall be fully responsible for delivering all Client Equipment to Company at a specified Company Facility on or before the applicable scheduled delivery date, each as specified in an Order. Client will be responsible for all risk of loss or damage to Client Equipment at all times until such Client Equipment is accepted by Company at a designated Company Facility.

e. In order to continue to provide the Services, from time to time Company may request, and Client shall promptly provide, information regarding Client Equipment, Client's related operating software, Client's systems, and other information reasonably necessary in Company's provision of the Services.

f. If software and services of a third party are requested by Client in conjunction with the Services ("Third Party Services") and identified in an Order, Client acknowledges and agrees that such Third Party Services are the responsibility of the third party, subject to separate terms and conditions between such third party and Client and Company accepts no responsibility for the performance of such Third Party Services or any loss or damage arising from or associated with the provision of such Third Party Services.

3. PAYMENT TERMS AND TAXES

a. Company will invoice Client monthly in advance for all applicable fees for use of Company Facility and provision of Services as set forth in the applicable Order. Client will pay all invoiced amounts in US dollars within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the invoice. Interest shall be charged on past due amounts at the lesser of (A) one and a half percent (1.5%) per month; or (B) the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

b. Client may, in good faith, dispute any invoice or any part thereof (a "Disputed Amount") by submitting a written notice of such dispute along with reasonable supporting documentation within three (3) calendar days of the date of the initial invoice on which the Disputed Amount appears, failing which Client waives all rights to dispute such Disputed Amount and to file any claim. Company will review the Disputed Amount after its receipt of the relevant notice and if Company determines that Client was billed in error, a credit for the amount invoiced incorrectly will be made to the next invoice. If Company determines that the amount was invoiced correctly, Client will pay the amount by the due date of the next invoice. For clarity, Client shall promptly pay all undisputed amounts.

c. All amounts payable to Company under this Agreement exclude applicable taxes. Client is responsible for (i) taxes related to its activities and the ownership and operation of Client Equipment; and (ii) taxes imposed, levied or assessed thereon by any governmental or other authorities. If Client is required to make any deduction, withholding or payment for taxes in any jurisdiction on amounts payable to Company, such amounts will be increased such that after making such deduction, Company receives an amount equal to what it would have received if such deduction, withholding or payment had not been made.

4. TERM, TERMINATION, MODIFICATION AND SUSPENSION

a. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until terminated as permitted by this Agreement. Each Order commences on the effective date set forth in the Order, has the initial term ("Initial Term") set forth in the Order, and thereafter automatically renews for the additional periods set forth in the Order, or if no renewal period is set forth then one (1) year periods, (each, a "Renewal term" and collectively, the "Term") unless Client notifies Company in writing not less than ninety (90) calendar days before such renewal of its desire for the order not to renew.

b. Either party may terminate an Order upon written notice to the other party and take such other action identified in Section 4 d. below if the other party materially breaches such Order or this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days (5 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance (as defined below) or 2 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance two or more times during any twelve month period) . If the breach (other than Client failure to pay amounts when due) cannot be cured within thirty (30) calendar days, the breaching party shall be given a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of the notice, to cure the breach, provided that the breaching party acts promptly and diligently to cure such breach.

c. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party if there have been no Orders in effect for twelve (12) consecutive months.

d. In addition to the remedy set forth in Section 4 b. above if Client fails to pay all invoiced amounts when due (an "Unpaid Balance"), or otherwise fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement after opportunity to cure as provided in Section 4 b above Company may, in its sole discretion, take certain actions including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense:

- (i) suspend the provision of the Services;
- (ii) disconnect Client Equipment and store it;
- (iii) declare all amounts due under the applicable Order through the balance of the Term to be immediately due and payable;
- (iv) operate Client Equipment for cryptocurrency mining and other activities at Company's sole discretion and direct all resulting proceeds to Company's own account until Company has recovered all amounts due, including, without limitation, any reinstatement, disconnection or storage fees or costs;
- (v) terminate this Agreement and all Orders; and
- (vi) exercise all other rights under this Agreement, at law, in equity or otherwise.

Unless Company has terminated this Agreement, Company will reverse the suspension of the provision of the Company Facility and Services and disconnection of Client Equipment as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to the suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee. Thereafter, Company may, at its sole discretion, require an advance payment equal to the amount of one billing invoice.

e. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company may suspend its provision of all or a portion of the Services and disconnect all of a portion of Client Equipment immediately if Company determines in its sole discretion that: Client's use of the Services or Client Equipment (i) may adversely impact or pose a security risk to Company's operation or maintenance of the Company Facility or Company's other clients; (ii) may subject Company to liability; or (iii) is not in compliance with this Agreement or Company's policies. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension or disconnection. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to reverse such suspension or disconnection as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied that Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to such suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee as set forth in the applicable Order. Further, Company may terminate this Agreement and all Orders if such suspension or disconnection continues for at least two (2) calendar days or occurs more than three (3) times in any twelve (12) month period. For clarity, during the period of suspension or disconnection, Client remains responsible for all fees and charges Client incurs during such period. Further, after the Effective Date, if Company determines in its sole and absolute discretion that as a result of any change in, or interpretation, introduction or administration of, any laws, regulations, statutes, treaties, rules, guidelines, ordinances, codes or the like, or any proposed or anticipated changes in, or interpretations, introduction or administration of the foregoing (a "Change in Law"), has resulted in an increase in Company's cost of compliance with such Change in Law then Company may, in its commercially reasonable discretion, take certain actions, including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense: (i) terminate this Agreement, any or all Orders; and/or (ii) modify the Services as may be necessary to account for such Change in Law. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client of such Company actions and the effective date of such actions.

f. Further, and notwithstanding the Change in Law related costs above, after the Effective Date, if there are any increases, changes in, or introduction or administration of, any new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services, Company may, in its sole and absolute discretion, pass through all such amounts to Client ("Increased Costs") and Client shall pay all Increased Costs in accordance with the payment and invoicing procedures as set forth in this Agreement.

g. Company shall not be liable for any Client loss or damage whatsoever as a result of the exercise of its rights under this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement or an Order by Company, Company is entitled to recover from Client all loss or damages incurred by Company as a result of such termination, outstanding fees, costs, charges, assessments, reimbursements, and expenses (including, without limitation, costs of collection and reasonable attorneys' fees).

h. In addition to Section 4(f), the Company may terminate or suspend all or a portion of the Services if necessary to be in compliance with applicable law, rules, regulations, administrative or judicial orders or decree. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension. Client agrees that the Company shall have no liability whatsoever to Client for any damage, loss, expense or cost as a result of such termination or suspension.

Each party recognizes and agrees that the warranty disclaimers, limitations of liability and remedy limitations in this Agreement are materially bargained for by the parties.

c. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, or at any other time at the request of the other party, each party shall return to the other party, or destroy and delete, as applicable, all Confidential Information and any copies thereof in its possession or control.

d. Re: Master Services Agreement Between Core Scientific Inc. and Celsius Network LLC, Dated December 18, 2020 (the "Master Services Agreement")

Dear Mr. Brown:

Cooley is counsel to Core Scientific, Inc. ("Core"). In that capacity, I am responding to your letter to Todd DuChene dated September 9, 2022 regarding the above referenced Master Services Agreement (the "Agreement") and various Orders that incorporate the Agreement (the "September 9 Letter"). All capitalized terms have the meanings given to them in the Agreement unless otherwise defined.

Your September 9 Letter accuses Core of "threats to terminate" the Agreement and "failure to otherwise perform under the [Agreement]." These accusations are baseless. The sole evidence cited in support of the alleged "threats to terminate" is an automatically generated message from Core's accounts payable email address. (September 9 Letter, Ex. C.) This automatically generated email cites a list of remedies for non-payment that are standard to Core's service agreements, and which appear in Section 4 of the Agreement between Core and Celsius. Notably, the automated email does not actually invoke any of the referenced remedies, let alone termination. Furthermore, there is no indication that any real person from Core initiated the email transmission to Celsius or had its debtor in possession status in mind. No reasonable person could form a belief that the automated communication constituted a threat to terminate the Agreement.¹ To resolve all doubt, Core disclaims the automated email as an invocation of Section 4 of the Agreement.

Celsius' accusations of breach also lack merit. First, Core is not obligated to "inform Celsius of additional hosting availability." The Agreement contains no such requirement, and Core identifies no provision in the Agreement to support such a claim. Core disputes Celsius' claim that Core has failed to provide Celsius with hosting capacity in accordance with the Agreement or any Order. For example, Celsius does not allege that Core has taken any Client Equipment off-line or refused to install any Client Equipment. Celsius alleges certain delays from earlier in 2022 but does not specify any pending uncured breaches by Core, let alone any threats by Core to breach the Agreement. Moreover, any alleged breaches would be subject to the cure periods set forth in Section 4(b) of the Agreement and subject to the limitation of liability provisions of Section 5.

¹ Also notable are the extensive redactions to subsequent messages among personnel for Celsius and a non-lawyer at its outside consultants Alvarez & Marsal, casting doubt over whether Celsius actually perceived the automated email as a "threat to terminate" the Agreement. The September 9 Letter also references an alleged verbal threat to terminate the Agreement "during a phone call on August 22, 2022 email, but does not identify a source of the alleged threat. In any event Core has never invoked the termination provisions of Section 4 of the Agreement.

Judson Brown, P.C.

For these reasons, the authorities cited in the September 9 Letter are inapposite to the facts. Core reserves all of its legal rights, including without limitations, all rights as a creditor under the Bankruptcy Code.

While Celsius prematurely and without basis rushes to judgment that Core has threatened to terminate the Agreement (or is in material uncured breach), the fact remains that Celsius has accrued, and is accruing, post-petition obligations under the Agreement, and it appears that Celsius desires that its contractual arrangement with Celsius be a central piece of its reorganization plans. (See e.g. Ex. C to September 9, 2022 Letter.) If that is indeed the case, and as I'm sure you are aware (i) Celsius must perform its own monetary obligations under the Agreement during the pendency of its chapter 11 proceeding in order to continue to enjoy the benefits of a continuing relationship with Core; and (ii) to the extent it wishes to assume the Agreement, it must make the requisite showing of adequate assurances of future performance and cure its outstanding obligations, including any payments owed to Celsius at this time. Otherwise, Core will have no option but to seek remedies and relief from the Court with respect to the Agreement. The September 9, 2022 Letter is conspicuously silent on those vital issues, which are necessary to continue the current commercial arrangement. As I described in our telephone call on September 14, Core had been expecting the parties to continue in discussions of how they may wish to proceed with their relationship under the Agreement, now that Celsius is a debtor in possession. Core welcomes such discussions and is committed to engaging in good faith and reserves all rights with respect to all of the foregoing.

Sincerely,

Addendum to Proof of Claim for Celsius Mining LLC

Total Claim Amount: $312,318,000 plus an unliquidated amount

This Claim is comprised of five parts, described below. Liquidated amounts relating to the applicable contracts assume that any limitations of liability in the contracts do not apply. Additional supporting documentation of the below claims is available upon request.

1. Prepetition Breach of Contract Claim

- Nature of Claim: Prepetition Breach of Contract
- Estimated Amount: $111,998,000
- As discussed more fully in the Debtors' Motion to Enforce the Automatic Stay and for Civil Contempt, In re Celsius Network LLC, Case No. 22-10964 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. September 28, 2022) [Celsius Docket No. 915], Core breached the Celsius Contracts (as defined below) both before and after it filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and Celsius is entitled to damages as result. This amount relates to the prepetition breach.

2. Postpetition, Pre-Rejection Breach of Contract Claim

- Nature of Claim: Postpetition Breach of Contract
- Estimated Amount: $1,497,000
- As noted above, Core breached the Celsius Contracts (as defined below) both before and after it filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, and these breaches continued after the voluntary petition was filed. Celsius is entitled to damages as result. This amount relates to the postpetition breach.

3. Claim for Return of Postpetition Pre-Rejection Prepayment

- Nature of Claim: Return of Prepayment
- Estimated Amount: $4,719,000
- Celsius prepaid Core $4,719,000 postpetition for amounts due under the Celsius Contracts (as defined below) for January 2023, which services were not rendered due to Core's rejection of the Celsius Contracts. Celsius expects to file a motion for payment of this administrative claim but includes on this proof of claim form to preserve all rights.

4. Contract Rejection Damages Claim

- Nature of Claim: Contract Rejection Damages

- Estimated Amount: $194,104,000
- As discussed more fully in the Declaration of Michael Bros in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief [Core Docket No. 5] and the Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Rejection of Executory Contracts with Celsius Mining LLC [Core Docket No. 189], Celsius and Core were party to hosting service contracts including: (i) the 2020 Master Services Agreement (the "2020 MSA") by and between Debtor Core Scientific Operating Company (formerly known as Core Scientific, Inc.) and Celsius, (ii) the 2021 Master Services Agreement between Core and Celsius (the "2021 MSA"), and (iii) Order Nos. 1–10 to the 2020 MSA and Order No. 1A to the 2021 MSA (the "MSA Orders" and, together with the 2020 MSA and 2021 MSA, and any other contracts between the Debtors and Celsius relating to hosting, the "Celsius Contracts"). The court approved rejection of the Celsius Contracts on January 4, 2023 and entered the Order Authorizing Rejection of Executory Contracts with Celsius Mining, LLC [Core Docket No. 232].

5. Claim for Damages to Mining Rigs

- Nature of Claim: Prepetition and/or Postpetition Breach of Contract
- Estimated Amount: Unliquidated
- Core breached the Celsius Contracts by failing to inspect and maintain Celsius's mining rigs in an ideal working condition during the hosting period. As a direct result of Core's actions or inactions, foreign substances (including what appears to be coal dust, pollen, and other airborne debris) accumulated on the hashboards of Celsius's mining rigs. This failure to maintain the rigs resulted in the hashboards operating at higher temperatures of about 10 degrees Fahrenheit hotter than comparable rigs maintained in an ideal working condition. Celsius's mining rigs in Core's care were therefore at risk of burning out faster and were operating less efficiently with decreased performance. Celsius is entitled to damages as result.

Celsius Mining LLC reserves all rights related to the claims described herein, including but not limited to the right to amend the estimated claim amounts.

DEBTORS' MOTION TO ENFORCE THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") respectfully state the following in support of this motion (this "Motion");

INTRODUCTION

1. Since the Debtors filed their Chapter 11 petitions on July 13, 2022 (the "Petition Date"), Core Scientific, Inc. ("Core Scientific") has knowingly and repeatedly violated the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Debtor Celsius Mining LLC ("Celsius") has informed Core Scientific of its violations, but Core Scientific has refused to conform its conduct. Celsius has been left with no choice but to seek Court intervention to protect itself and the estate's assets.

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC's principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

2. Core Scientific's violations of the automatic stay are many and ongoing. One, Core Scientific is refusing to perform the contractual obligations it owes to Celsius under the parties' Master Services Agreement ("MSA") and Order #10 to the MSA ("Order #10") (together, the "Agreement"). Two, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement until Celsius pays its pre-petition obligations. Three, Core Scientific has started adding improper surcharges, called "Power Costs Pass-through," to Celsius' invoices following the Petition Date—charges that only arose after the Bankruptcy filing, that constitute a breach of the fixed-price structure of Order #10 (and the preceding orders), and that are an illegitimate attempt to setoff Celsius' pre-petition debts.

3. Because Core Scientific has refused to live up to its obligations and honor the automatic stay, pursuant to Sections 105(a), 362, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 9014 and 9020 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtors file this Motion and seek entry of an order: (i) holding Core Scientific in civil contempt for having violated the automatic stay of Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) directing Core Scientific to perform under its Agreement with the Debtors; (iii) ordering Core Scientific to immediately return any improperly invoiced amounts and cease any collection efforts for "Power Costs Pass-through" charges; and (iv) assessing appropriate damages for Core Scientific's civil contempt, including, but not limited to, the costs and attorneys' fees associated with bringing this Motion and actual damages Celsius has incurred after the Petition Date arising from Core Scientific's violations of the automatic stay.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012. This is a contested matter pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 9020. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 (“In a contested matter not otherwise governed by these rules, relief shall be requested by motion, and reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing shall be afforded the party against whom relief is sought.”); Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9020 (“Rule 9014 governs a motion for an order of contempt made by the United States trustee or a party in interest.”); In re Chief Exec. Officers Clubs, Inc., 359 B.R. 527, 531 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (Glenn, J.) (treating civil contempt request as a “contested matter”); see also In re Yerushalmi, 2011 WL 65739, at *1 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. Jan. 10, 2011) (same).

5. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

6. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

7. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 362 of title 11 of the United States Code.

BACKGROUND

A. The Agreement

8. On December 18, 2020, Core Scientific and Celsius entered into the MSA,² in which Core Scientific agreed to provide certain services in connection with Celsius’ digital-asset mining rigs, including services relating to colocation, hosting, monitoring, maintenance and repair, technical support, and heat and thermal management. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A (“MSA”), § 1(a). Core Scientific agreed to perform its obligations under the MSA in a

² The Agreement was executed by Celsius Core LLC, which is the former name of Debtor Celsius Mining. Declaration of Quinn Lawlor (“Lawlor Decl.”) ¶¶ 1, 3.

“professional and workmanlike manner.” Id. § 5.

9. The parties further agreed that the MSA would be supplemented by certain “Orders,” which would identify the rigs to be deployed, the deployment schedule for those rigs, and the terms of payment. Id. § 1(a). At the time the parties entered the MSA, they simultaneously entered and executed Order #1 through Order #7. See id. at 10–23. The parties later signed Order #8, but they subsequently cancelled it and refunded all deposits. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 4. On August 22, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #9, which concurrently terminated Order #5. See id., Exhibit B at 1. On September 27, 2021, Core Scientific and Celsius signed Order #10. See id., Exhibit C (“Order #10”).

10. Order #10 obligates Core Scientific to provide a specified power allocation beginning in certain months of the contract. It details this power allocation by identifying the deployment month (e.g., “Sep[tember] 2021”), the approximate quantity of rigs to be deployed (e.g., “2,250”), the type of rig (“M30S+ or Equivalent”), and the assumed power consumption per rig in “KWh” or kilowatt hours (3.57 KWh), as follows:

Equipment hosted:	Deployment Month	Quantity & Type of Unit (the “Units”)	Assumed power consumption per Unit (KWh):
	SEP 2021	2,250 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAR 2022	3,530 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	APR 2022	4,710 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	MAY 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUNE 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	JUL 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	AUG 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	SEP 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	OCT 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	NOV 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57
	DEC 2022	2,350 - M30S+ or Equivalent	3.57

See Order #10 at 1.

11. The monthly power allocation is calculated by multiplying the specified quantity of rigs by the assumed power consumption per rig. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 6. The power allocation is cumulative month over month, such that, by the end of the term of Order #10, Core Scientific must provide up to 105 megawatts (“MWs”) of power to Celsius. Id. Relevant here, as of September 2022, Core Scientific is obligated to provide up to 79.4 MWs of power to Celsius. Id.

12. The Agreement also requires Core Scientific to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability as it becomes available. Order #10 at 4–5. Order #10 states:

[Core Scientific] will notify [Celsius] as soon as practicable of additional hosting availability, if any, and provide [Celsius] up to 10 additional MW per month at a hosting services rate of $0.0625 per KWh. Additional hosting availability if available will be the subject of a separate order and provided to [Celsius] on a priority basis, subject to [Celsius’] acceptance.

Id. at 4–5 (emphasis added).

13. In exchange for these services, Celsius agreed to pay Core Scientific an up-front fee along with a series of additional monthly prepayments. Id. at 1–3. The monthly prepayment amount is based on estimated power usage for the upcoming month, which then is subject to a “true up” in the next billing cycle based on Celsius’ actual usage. See id. at 4. Order #10 has fixed-rate pricing for hosting services (the “Hosting-Services Rate”). Id.; Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. The Hosting-Services Rate includes the cost of energy and services for operating rigs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. In September 2021, the Hosting-Services Rate was fixed at $.0575/KWh; in March 2022, the rate was fixed at $.0594/KWh; and from April 2022 through December 2022, the rate is fixed at $.0625/KWh. Id. ¶ 7; Order #10 at 1. In the section titled “Fees,” Order #10 states that Celsius’ fees will be determined “by reference to the Assumed power consumption per Unit of each deployed Unit, multiplied by the Hosting-Services Rate (each as set forth above in this Order).” Order #10 at 4 (emphasis added).³

³ The preceding orders (Orders #1 through #9) similarly had a fixed-rate pricing structure. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1, Exhibit C at 1.

14. Because Order #10 and the preceding orders are fixed-price agreements, they do not permit Core Scientific to pass through increased power costs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7. To the contrary, Section 4(f) of the MSA allows Core Scientific to “pass through” only “new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services”—but not increased power costs. MSA § 4(f) (emphasis added). For Celsius, the fixed Hosting-Services Rate under Order #10, and the preceding orders, were an essential term of the parties’ agreement because it meant that Core Scientific, not Celsius, would bear the risk of rising power rates. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 7.

15. To date, Celsius has paid approximately $18.2 million under Order #10 and has continuing payment obligations of approximately $5.4 million under Order #10. Id. ¶ 9.

B. Core Scientific’s Failure to Deploy Celsius’ Rigs

16. Celsius has delivered 10,885 rigs into Core Scientific’s possession under Order #10. To this day, Core Scientific is deploying only 6,564 of Celsius’ rigs and is providing Celsius with only 21.5 MWs of power. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; Order #10 at 1. But Celsius is entitled to 79.4 MWs as of September 2022, which is the hosting capacity to operate approximately 22,000 rigs of the type specified in Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; see Order #10 at 1. Thus, Core Scientific’s current shortfall under Order #10 is 58 MWs of power and at least 15,700 rigs. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10.

17. Core Scientific’s current shortfalls are a direct consequence of its pre-petition conduct. Since the MSA was signed, Core Scientific has performed a now-familiar routine: it delays deployment of Celsius’ rigs; it follows those delays with empty promises to catch up; and it follows those promises with even more delays, in contravention of the Agreement and its own interim representations.

18. Celsius delivered its 10,885 rigs under Order #10 to Core Scientific in three tranches prior to the petition, and each time, Celsius had to wait months for its rigs to come online. Id. ¶ 11. For nearly half those rigs, Celsius is still waiting. Id. ¶ 15. Celsius delivered an initial tranche of 2,245 rigs to Core Scientific between the end of October and mid-November 2021. Id. ¶ 11. Core Scientific did not fully deploy those rigs until January 30, 2022. Id.

19. Celsius delivered a second tranche of 3,780 rigs to Core Scientific at the end of March 2022. Id. at ¶ 12. By May 25, 2022, the March rigs were still not deployed. Id. In an attempt to resolve the issue amicably, Celsius reached out to Core Scientific to ask it to confirm that the 3,780 March rigs (and plus an additional 4,710 rigs from other Orders) would be deployed by June so that Celsius could “put [it] into our working assumptions on deployment activities this month.” Id., Exhibit D at 2. Core Scientific wrote back, “Yes sir, it is . . . 8490 confirmed.” Id. at 1. Celsius took Core Scientific at its word and relied upon that promise. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 13. Celsius both built this assumption into its financial projections and reduced the intensity of its search for alternative hosting services providers. Id.

20. But that representation was false, and Core Scientific again failed to deploy the rigs according to its latest representations. Id. Core Scientific even acknowledged its breach of the Agreement. On June 2, 2022, a representative from Core Scientific proposed that Celsius could delay making any further payments to Core until after June 20 “as compensation for our delayed deployment schedule.” Id., Exhibit E at 1.

21. Ultimately, Core Scientific did not fully deploy the March rigs until July 21, 2022. Id. ¶ 14. But even after getting those rigs online, between July 21, 2022 and September 16, 2022, Core Scientific had the March rigs online for a total of approximately eight days. Id. No power was available to the March rigs for the remainder of that time. Id. Core Scientific only brought the March rigs back online on September 16, 2022, after leaving them idle for months. Id. In other words, until two weeks ago, Core Scientific was providing Celsius with only approximately 9.7 MWs (just 12% of the hosting capacity Core Scientific is obligated to provide under Order #10), and only approximately 2,794 of Celsius' rigs were operational. Id.

22. Celsius delivered a third tranche of 4,860 rigs to Core Scientific in June 2022. Id. ¶ 15. Despite having those rigs in its possession for more than three months, Core Scientific has failed to deploy 4,320 of those rigs and, instead, they are sitting idle. Id. Now, Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from sending any more rigs under Order #10. Id. ¶ 16. Thus, rigs that Celsius has been planning to deploy under Order #10 are now sitting in limbo with no place to go, instead of earning revenue for the estate.

23. Core Scientific's delays have caused the Debtors to suffer material losses to their potential gross revenues and profits. Id. The Debtors continue to suffer additional losses with each day that Core Scientific fails to immediately deploy Celsius' rigs.

C. Core Scientific's Failure to Notify Celsius of Additional Availability

24. Core Scientific's performance failures are not limited to delays in deploying rigs. It also continues to fail to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability and to provide that availability on a "priority basis," as the Agreement requires. See Order #10 at 4–5. Core Scientific had availability but used it for itself rather than offering it to Celsius. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 19. In fact, Core Scientific announced to investors that it had increased its own mining fleet from 67,000 to 85,000 mining rigs between December 2021 and April 2022. Id. Core Scientific never informed Celsius of any additional hosting availability. Id.

D. Core Scientific's Post-Petition Termination Threats

25. Following the Petition Date, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement and withhold performance due to Celsius' pre-petition debts. On an August 22,

2022, telephone call between Core Scientific and Celsius, a representative for Core Scientific stated that no new deployments would go forward until Celsius caught up on its payments. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 17. Then, in an August 29, 2022 email, Core Scientific notified Celsius that it had an overdue invoice, and threatened Celsius that, among other things, Core Scientific could “suspend the provision of the Services,” “disconnect Client Equipment and store it,” and “terminate the MSA and all Orders thereunder.” See Id. ¶ 18, Exhibit F at 1. Core Scientific has since disclaimed the August 29 threat, as discussed below, but it did not disclaim or deny the August 22 verbal threat and instead has ginned up different and pretextual potential bases for termination. Id. ¶ 28.

E. Core Scientific’s Attempt to “Pass Through” Its Power Costs

26. Finally, since the Petition Date, Core Scientific has begun adding certain surcharges to Celsius’ invoices that contravene the fixed-price structure of the orders between the parties. Worse, Core Scientific has misrepresented the nature of these surcharges.

27. On July 15, 2022, Celsius received its first post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, which totaled approximately $4.6 million. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 20, Exhibit G. The July 15 invoice contained a new line item that had never before appeared on any previous (i.e., pre-petition) invoice, called “Power Costs Pass-through.” Id., Exhibit G at 3. The charges for “Power Costs Pass-through” totaled just over $911,000. Id. at 3. According to the invoice, these charges were being retroactively imposed for services provided to Celsius between May 2022 and June 2022. Id.

28. Core Scientific explained these charges as follows:

Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs under the Master

Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup.

Id. at 1 (emphasis added). Because the invoice indicated that the “Power Costs Pass-through” charges accrued pre-petition, Celsius did not pay them. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 21.

29. On August 16, 2022, Celsius received its second post-petition invoice from Core Scientific totaling $5.5 million. Id. ¶ 22, Exhibit H. Once again, Core Scientific included a line item for “Power Costs Pass-through.” Exhibit H at 3. This time, the “Power Costs Pass-through” line item was even more significant—accounting for over $1 million of the $5.5 million invoice. Id. Core Scientific again explained this cost as a “tariff increase” that it was “passing through” under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Id. at 1. In reliance on Core Scientific’s representation that the “Power Costs Pass-through” was a “tariff” subject to pass-through under Section 4(f), Celsius paid the post-petition amounts, including the post-petition portion of the “Power Costs Pass through” item, in order to avoid a post-petition breach of the Agreement. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 22.

30. On September 15, 2022, Celsius received a third post-petition invoice from Core Scientific, totaling $6.5 million. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit I. That invoice also included the “Power Costs Pass-through” charge, which totaled more than $1.74 million. Id. at 3. Core Scientific again claimed that this was a “tariff” subject to pass through under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Id. at 1.

31. Giving the timing of these new costs, Celsius became concerned, and on September 20, 2022, Celsius disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through.” Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J. Celsius also asked Core Scientific to provide “any documents and materials reflecting both the ‘tariff increases’ that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific.” Id. at 2.

32. In response, Core Scientific provided information showing increased power rates in the various jurisdictions where Celsius rigs are located. Id. at 5–8. This confirmed that the “Power Cost Pass-through” surcharges Core Scientific had been adding to Celsius’ post-petition invoices were not new “tariffs,” as Core Scientific had claimed, but rather, were simply the incremental increases in power costs to Core Scientific—which were not subject to pass through under the MSA. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 26.

F. Celsius Advises Core Scientific Of Its Automatic Stay Violations

33. On September 9, 2022, the Debtors sent a letter to Core Scientific demanding that Core Scientific fulfill its commitments under the Agreement and advising Core Scientific that its failure to do so is a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362(a). See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit K. Celsius sent this letter in an effort to resolve its issues with Core Scientific without the Court’s involvement.

34. Eleven days later, on September 20, 2022, Core Scientific finally responded by letter to counsel for Celsius. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L. Core Scientific explicitly disclaimed that it had invoked any of the contractual remedies referenced in its August 29, 2022, email, dismissing that email as “automated.” Id. at 1. Without providing any supporting detail, Core Scientific denied that it failed to provide Celsius with the hosting capacity required by the MSA or Order #10. Id. At no point did Core Scientific deny that the Agreement qualifies as an executory contract, nor did it dispute that a failure to perform under the Agreement (if shown) would qualify as a violation of the automatic stay under Bankruptcy Code Section 362.

35. The Debtors therefore are left with no choice but to bring this Motion and seek a Court order of civil contempt, compelling Core Scientific’s compliance with its contractual obligations and imposing other damages that the Court deems proper. The Debtors should not be left at the mercy of a contractual counterparty that both is trying to starve them of critical revenues by refusing to deploy rigs and attempting to bleed their coffers dry by imposing improper “tariffs.”

LEGAL STANDARD

36. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code operates immediately upon a debtor’s filing of a bankruptcy petition to stay various acts that could interfere with the orderly distribution of the bankruptcy estate. See S.E.C. v. Brennan, 230 F.3d 65, 70 (2d Cir. 2000). “[T]he purpose of the automatic stay is to give the debtor a breathing spell from creditors, to stop all collection efforts, and to permit the debtor to attempt repayment or reorganization.” In re Enron Corp., 300 B.R. 201, 211 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (citation omitted, alteration in original). As relevant here, Section 362(a)(3) prohibits “any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). Section 362(a)(7) prohibits “the setoff of any debt owing to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title against any claim against the debtor.” Id. § 362(a)(7).

37. Bankruptcy courts can enforce the automatic stay pursuant to their powers under Sections 362 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Congregation Birchos Yosef, 535 B.R. 629, 632 & n.2 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015). Further, through their inherent contempt powers and Section 105, bankruptcy courts can award sanctions for violations of the automatic stay. In re Windstream Holdings, Inc., 627 B.R. 32, 38 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2021); In re Chateaugay Corp., 920 F.2d 183, 186-87 (2d Cir. 1990). To impose civil contempt sanctions, the Court need not make a finding of willfulness; rather, it need only find that there was no objectively “fair ground of doubt” that the party’s conduct was prohibited by the automatic stay. Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 40–41.

ARGUMENT

I. The Agreement Is An Executory Contract Protected By The Automatic Stay.

38. “[E]xecutory contracts and leases are considered a form of property of the estate.” In re Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. 646, 657 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009), (citation omitted). “[T]hose rights [therefore] are protected by the automatic stay.” Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 (citation omitted). The debtor is entitled to enforce any executory contract pending a decision whether to assume or reject the contract. See McLean Indus. v. Medical Lab’y Automation, Inc., 96 B.R. 440, 449 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); Broadstripe, LLC, 402 B.R. at 656; McLean, 96 B.R. at 448 (“[A]n assumable but unassumed executory contract continues in effect and can be enforced by a debtor-in-possession.”).

39. The Agreement is an executory contract pending the Debtors’ decision to assume or reject it. A federal bankruptcy court uses one of two tests to determine whether an agreement is an “executory contract” enforceable by the debtor, as the Second Circuit has not conclusively adopted either one as the correct standard. See In re NanoDynamics, Inc., 735 F. App’x 762, 764 (2d Cir. 2018). The first test—the “Countryman” test—considers a contract “executory” “if material future performance obligations remain on both sides of the contract.” In re WorldCom, Inc., 343 B.R. 486, 493 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006) (citation omitted). The second test—the “some performance due” test—is “a less demanding inquiry ... [that] defines an executory contract as one ‘on which performance remains due to some extent on both sides.’” NanoDynamics, 735 F. App’x at 764 (quoting In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 85 F.3d 992, 998–99 (2d Cir. 1996)).

40. The Agreement is executory regardless of which test applies, and Core Scientific has never contended otherwise. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit M. The Countryman test is satisfied because the parties’ remaining future performance obligations are “material” to the Agreement. See In re Teligent, Inc., 268 B.R. 723, 730–31 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001). It cannot be seriously disputed that Core Scientific's hosting and notification obligations, on the one hand, and Celsius' payment obligations, on the other, "go[] to the essence" of the parties' bargain under the Agreement. Id.; see also Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 655 ("Based on the parties' respective continuing obligations under the Member Agreement, the Member Agreement is an executory contract.").

41. The "some performance due" test is satisfied because "neither side [has] tendered complete performance on the Agreement." NanoDynamics, 735 F. App'x at 764. Core Scientific owes Celsius 58 MWs of additional power deployment as of the date of this filing, and it has continuing deployment obligations through at least December 2022 under Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 10; Order #10 at 1, 3. It also has an ongoing obligation to notify Celsius of additional hosting availability on a priority basis. Order #10 at 4–5. Celsius, on the other hand, has continuing payment obligations to Core Scientific through December 2022. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 9.

II. Core Scientific's Failure To Perform And Threats To Terminate The Agreement Violate The Automatic Stay.

42. Core Scientific has violated Section 362(a)(3) by failing to perform its obligations under the Agreement and threatening termination. See In re AMR Corp., 730 F.3d 88, 102 (2d Cir. 2013) ("[T]he bankruptcy court did not err in concluding that any attempt to [rescind a contract provision] would be an attempt to modify contract rights and would therefore be subject to the automatic stay that went into effect when [the debtor] made its § 1110(a) elections."); Enron, 300 B.R. at 212 ("[B]y seeking to enforce the terms of the Employment Agreement, and by unilaterally seeking to terminate same and invoke its damages provisions, the Court finds that Claimant violated the automatic stay."); see also In re 48th Steakhouse, Inc., 835 F.2d 427, 431

(2d Cir. 1987); Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 657; In re The Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. 1019, 1024 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996).

43. First, Core Scientific is providing Celsius with only 21.5 MWs of power under Order #10, even though Celsius is due 79.4 MWs as of the end of September 2022. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 6, 10. Core Scientific is running only 6,564 Celsius rigs under Order #10. Id. ¶ 10. Core Scientific has another 4,320 rigs that it refuses to deploy. Id. ¶ 15. And it is contractually obligated to deploy approximately 11,000 more rigs under Order #10—but Celsius has not provided those to Core Scientific both because Core Scientific has refused to deploy the rigs in its possession and because Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from sending it more rigs. Id. ¶ 16. Not only does Core Scientific’s conduct contravene the deployment schedule, see Order #10 at 1, but it also falls far short of Core Scientific’s obligation to provide services “in a professional and workmanlike manner,” see MSA § 5(a). Core Scientific’s ongoing failure to perform its deployment obligations under Order #10 violates the automatic stay. See Broadstripe, 402 B.R. at 657 (“By refusing to perform its obligations under the Member Agreement, NCTC is interfering with Broadstripe’s property rights under the Member Agreement and acting in violation of the automatic stay.”).

44. To the extent Core Scientific attempts to shift blame to Celsius for any delays in delivering the rigs, such an argument should be rejected. Core Scientific has acknowledged that it is to blame for the delays. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 13, Exhibit E at 1. In fact, Core Scientific has prohibited Celsius from even sending it any more rigs under Order #10. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 16. Regardless, any delivery delays could not possibly excuse Core Scientific’s excessive, repeated delays in deployment, nor could they excuse Core Scientific’s failure to fully deploy the rigs that it has.

45. Second, Core Scientific continues to fail to notify Celsius of the availability of hosting sites “on a priority basis,” as required by Order #10. See Order #10 at 4–5. Celsius has never once been notified of additional hosting availability, and in fact, is aware of at least one pre-petition instance in which Core Scientific breached this obligation. See Lawlor Decl. ¶ 19. Core Scientific’s ongoing failure to perform on its notification obligations violates the automatic stay. In re Ernie Haire Ford, Inc., 403 B.R. 750, 760–61 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2009) (“While these agreements are in full force and effect, the parties are bound by their terms and must continue to operate under the agreements in good faith.”).

46. Third, Core Scientific has threatened to terminate the Agreement due to Celsius’ overdue pre-petition obligations. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 17–18 & Exhibit F. Although Core Scientific now disclaims its August 29, 2022, email threat to terminate the MSA, see Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L at 2, Core Scientific did not disclaim or deny that its representative stated on an August 22, 2022, phone call that Core Scientific would not conduct any more deployments until Celsius became current on its payments. Lawlor Decl. ¶ 28; see Exhibit L. Threats like this to terminate the Agreement or withhold performance until the debtor makes payments violate the automatic stay. See Enron Corp., 300 B.R. at 212 (“In attempting to enforce the Employment Agreement by procuring payment of the Retention Bonus and the Termination Payment, and by sending notice of the termination of such agreement, Claimant acted to obtain possession of property of the estate and to exercise control over property of the estate.”); Elder-Beerman Stores Corp., 195 B.R. at 1024 (“It is therefore clear, that Thomasville’s actions in attempting to cancel its contract with Elder–Beerman were in violation of the automatic stay.”).

47. It is no answer to suggest that Celsius’ past due balance somehow gives Core Scientific a valid ground to terminate or otherwise seek to enforce the Agreement against Celsius. Courts have been clear that “an unassumed executory contract is not enforceable against the Chapter 11 debtor,” and therefore “the nondebtor party cannot terminate the contract by reason of the debtor’s defaults thereunder.” United States v. Dewey Freight Sys., Inc., 31 F.3d 620, 625 (8th Cir. 1994) (citation omitted); see also NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 531–32 (1984); In re Monarch Cap. Corp., 163 B.R. 899, 907 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1994).

III. Core Scientific’s Attempt To Collect Pre-Petition Debt Violates The Automatic Stay.

48. Core Scientific’s improper attempt to “pass through” to Celsius increased power costs violates the automatic stay in multiple, independent ways: Core Scientific is attempting to siphon “possession of property of the estate” without any lawful basis, see 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3); Core Scientific is attempting to modify its contractual obligations under the specific orders between the parties, see AMR Corp., 730 F.3d at 102 (stating that “an attempt to modify contract rights” violates the automatic stay); and Core Scientific is attempting to offset Celsius’ pre-petition debts by charging additional fees, see 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(7); In re Rodriguez, 629 F.3d 136, 142 (3d Cir. 2010) (holding that defendant violated the automatic stay by increasing debtor’s post-petition payment requirement to account for a pre-petition obligation).

49. As discussed above, after the Petition Date, Core Scientific began adding the “Power Costs Pass-through” to Celsius’ monthly invoices. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 20-25. This “pass-through” line item—which is significant—has only appeared on the invoices after the Petition Date. Id. As Core Scientific’s own documentation shows, the “Power Cost Pass-through” is simply the incremental increase in Core Scientific’s power costs resulting from price fluctuations for the cost of energy. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J at 5–8.

50. Core Scientific has attempted to pass off its increased power costs as “tariffs” subject to pass through under Section 4(f) of the MSA. Lawlor Decl. ¶¶ 22–24; see Exhibit I at 1. A tariff, as commonly understood and as used in Section 4(f), refers to “duties to be imposed on imports and exports.” Oxford English Dictionary (Online Ed.); Black’s Law Dictionary (11th ed. 2019) (defining “tariff” as “[a] schedule or system of duties imposed by a government on imported or exported goods.”). A fluctuation in the cost of power is neither “new” nor a “tariff[.]” Indeed, such an interpretation would directly contravene the fixed-rate pricing structure under Order #10 and the preceding orders, which entitle Celsius to the fixed Hosting-Services Rate as “set forth . . . in this Order.” See Order #10 at 4 (emphasis added); see also Lawlor Decl., Exhibit A at 10–23, Exhibit B at 1.

51. Core Scientific’s conduct leaves Celsius with a lose-lose choice: either pay the improper charges and sacrifice estate property that Core Scientific is not entitled to, or refuse to pay and give Core Scientific a pretextual basis to terminate the Agreement. Indeed, Core Scientific has already threatened to terminate if Celsius does not remain current on its post-petition obligations. See Lawlor Decl., Exhibit L at 2.

IV. Core Scientific Is In Contempt Of This Court For Its Violations Of The Automatic Stay.

52. Core Scientific’s actions in violation of the automatic stay “are void and without effect.” 48th St. Steakhouse, 835 F.2d at 431 (2d Cir. 1987) (citation omitted). Core Scientific remains bound by the terms of the Agreement and “must continue to do business with” Celsius “absent an order granting relief from stay.” Ernie Haire Ford, 403 B.R. at 753, 760–61 (granting debtor’s motions to compel non-debtors’ compliance with contracts).

53. Moreover, by withholding performance, threatening termination, and attempting to setoff a pre-petition debt, Core Scientific is in contempt of this Court for violating the automatic stay. Section 362(a) “clearly and unambiguously stays such conduct,” and “[a] reasonable person would not think otherwise.” Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 41. Although a finding of willfulness is not required to hold a party in contempt, id. at 39, Core Scientific had actual notice of its violations, which makes its conduct even more egregious. Celsius both sent a letter to Core Scientific and disputed the “Power Costs Pass-through” on its invoices. Lawlor Decl., Exhibit J at 2, Exhibit K. Yet, Core Scientific refused to cure its breaches of the automatic stay. See Exhibit L.

54. The Court has the ability to award sanctions under its civil contempt power for breach of the automatic stay, including “coercive sanctions to encourage compliance” and “damages for monetary harm,” including but not limited to, the “fees and expenses incurred in trying to enforce the stay.” Windstream Holdings, 627 B.R. at 47, 49.

55. Consistent with this authority, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order:

- i. Holding Core Scientific in civil contempt for having violated and disregarded the automatic stay;
- ii. Directing Core Scientific to deploy all Celsius rigs in its possession forthwith, to accept and deploy additional rigs from Celsius as permitted under the Agreement, and to notify Celsius of any additional hosting availability;
- iii. Ordering Core Scientific to immediately return any “Power Costs Pass-through” paid by Celsius to Core Scientific in connection with the August 15, 2022 invoice and to immediately cease and desist from any attempts to collect or further assess charges for “Power Costs Pass-through;” and
- iv. Assessing appropriate compensatory payments in the amount of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in seeking to enforce the stay and actual damages Celsius has incurred after the Petition Date arising from Core Scientific’s violations of the automatic stay.

NOTICE

56. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Committee; (c) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (d) the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f)

WHEREAS, Company desires to provide such Services at its Company Facility.

The parties agree as follows:

1. AGREEMENT STRUCTURE

a. This Agreement provides general terms applicable to Company’s provision of certain services, including, without limitation, colocation, hosting, rack space, security, monitoring, maintenance, utilities, Client Equipment maintenance and repair, facility management, account management, network and data access, technical support, and heat and thermal management services (“Services”) to Client in a data center owned or operated by Company or its affiliates (“Company Facility”) in mutually agreed transactions described in mutually executed ordering documents in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto that reference and are governed by this Agreement (“Orders”). Each Order will be a separate agreement between Company and Client and will be deemed to incorporate the terms of this Agreement by reference. Company may require Customer to provide evidence of creditworthiness or credit support acceptable to Company in its sole discretion as a condition to accepting any Order. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the specific terms of an Order, the specific terms of the Order govern with respect to such Order.

2. SERVICES AND COMPANY FACILITY

a. Company will provide Client the Services at a Company Facility set forth in an Order. This Agreement is not intended to and does not constitute a lease of any real or personal property or a grant of any other real property interest. Unless otherwise set forth in an Order, Client Equipment is owned by Client will not be construed as fixtures or fittings or otherwise attached to a Company Facility. Company retains title to all racking, connectors, fittings, parts and other materials used or provided by Company at a Company Facility to provide Client the Services. Client acknowledges and agrees that access to a Company Facility may be provided only during Company’s ordinary business hours and only upon Company’s prior written consent, which shall be subject in all events to the terms of this Agreement and may be withheld, conditioned or delayed in Company’s sole discretion.. Client will be liable for the actions of all persons accessing Company Facility on its behalf.

b. Company has the right to review and the sole right to approve any delivery, installation (including, without limitation, the location and position of Client Equipment at the Company Facility), replacement or removal work with respect to Client’s computer hardware or other tangible equipment (“Client Equipment”) at a Company Facility. Client shall be fully responsible for delivering all Client Equipment to Company at a specified Company Facility on or before the applicable scheduled delivery date, each as specified in an Order. Client will be responsible for all risk of loss or damage to Client Equipment at all times until such Client Equipment is accepted by Company at a designated Company Facility.

c. Client Equipment will adhere to Company’s specifications, procedures, rules, and regulations, including, without limitation, equipment labeling and tracking and security practices and policies for the Company Facility, all of which are incorporated herein by this reference. If Company determines in its sole discretion that Client Equipment or related operating software does not conform to its policies or is not suitable for the provision of Services at the Company Facility, Company may suspend installation of Client Equipment and operating software or commencement of the Services until Company approves of the Client Equipment and operating software. Company has no responsibility or liability for any loss or damage to Client Equipment, including without limitation any damage to Client Equipment, failure to adhere to any manufacturer warranty, the voiding of any manufacturer warranty or loss of or inability to collect under any manufacturer warranty, unless directly caused by the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of Company.

d. Client is responsible for costs and expenses regarding the installation, repair, replacement and removal of Client Equipment and tariffs, taxes, shipping costs or other expenses associated with owning, shipping, importing or transporting Client Equipment. Upon any expiration or termination of an applicable Order, Company will provide Client with a written notice, which may be by email (the “Retrieval Notice”), of the date when Client Equipment is ready to be removed from Company Facility, which will be at Client’s sole expense. Such notice will document the condition of Client Equipment being prepared for shipment, any outstanding amounts owed by Client to Company and Client shall have five (5) calendar days from the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice to pay any outstanding amounts owed to Company and remove at Client’s sole cost and expense Client Equipment from Company Facility. Client will hold Company harmless from any damage caused to Client Equipment during such pickup and removal of Client Equipment. The failure or delay by Client to retrieve Client Equipment on or before the date set forth in the Retrieval Notice will constitute abandonment of Client Equipment under the laws of the jurisdiction where the Client Equipment is located and Company will be entitled to pursue at Client’s sole risk and expense all available remedies, including, without limitation, the actions set forth in Section 4(d), as applicable.

e. In order to continue to provide the Services, from time to time Company may request, and Client shall promptly provide, information regarding Client Equipment, Client’s related operating software, Client’s systems, and other information reasonably necessary in Company’s provision of the Services.

f. If software and services of a third party are requested by Client in conjunction with the Services (“Third Party Services”) and identified in an Order, Client acknowledges and agrees that such Third Party Services are the responsibility of the third party, subject to separate terms and conditions between such third party and Client and Company accepts no responsibility for the performance of such Third Party Services or any loss or damage arising from or associated with the provision of such Third Party Services.

3. PAYMENT TERMS AND TAXES

a. Company will invoice Client monthly in advance for all applicable fees for use of Company Facility and provision of Services as set forth in the applicable Order. Client will pay all invoiced amounts in US dollars within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the invoice. All payments must be (i) in US dollars into an ACH account number as set forth in the applicable Order; or (ii) to another account or form of payment directed by Company. Interest shall be charged on past due amounts at the lesser of (A) one and a half percent (1.5%) per month; or (B) the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

b. Client may, in good faith, dispute any invoice or any part thereof (a “Disputed Amount”) by submitting a written notice of such dispute along with reasonable supporting documentation within three (3) calendar days of the date of the initial invoice on which the Disputed Amount appears, failing which Client waives all rights to dispute such Disputed Amount and to file any claim. Company will review the Disputed Amount after its receipt of the relevant notice and if Company determines that Client was billed in error, a credit for the amount invoiced incorrectly will be made to the next invoice. If Company determines that the amount was invoiced correctly, Client will pay the amount by the due date of the next invoice. For clarity, Client shall promptly pay all undisputed amounts.

c. All amounts payable to Company under this Agreement exclude applicable taxes. Client is responsible for (i) taxes related to its activities and the ownership and operation of Client Equipment; and (ii) taxes imposed, levied or assessed thereon by any governmental or other authorities. If Client is required to make any deduction, withholding or payment for taxes in any jurisdiction on amounts payable to Company, such amounts will be increased such that after making such deduction, Company receives an amount equal to what it would have received if such deduction, withholding or payment had not been made.

4. TERM, TERMINATION, MODIFICATION AND SUSPENSION

a. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until terminated as permitted by this Agreement. Each Order commences on the effective date set forth in the Order, has the initial term (“Initial Term”) set forth in the Order, and thereafter automatically renews for the additional periods set forth in the Order, or if no renewal period is set forth then one (1) year periods, (each, a “Renewal term” and collectively, the “Term”) unless Client notifies Company in writing not less than ninety (90) calendar days before such renewal of its desire for the order not to renew.

b. Either party may terminate an Order upon written notice to the other party and take such other action identified in Section 4 d. below if the other party materially breaches such Order or this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days (5 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance (as defined below) or 2 days in the case of failure to pay an Unpaid Balance two or more times during any twelve month period). If the breach (other than Client failure to pay amounts when due) cannot be cured within thirty (30) calendar days, the breaching party shall be given a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of the notice, to cure the breach, provided that the breaching party acts promptly and diligently to cure such breach.

c. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party if there have been no Orders in effect for twelve (12) consecutive months.

d. In addition to the remedy set forth in Section 4 b. above if Client fails to pay all invoiced amounts when due (an “Unpaid Balance”), or otherwise fails to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement after opportunity to cure as provided in Section 4 b above Company may, in its sole discretion, take certain actions including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client’s sole risk and expense:

- (i) suspend the provision of the Services;
- (ii) disconnect Client Equipment and store it;
- (iii) declare all amounts due under the applicable Order through the balance of the Term to be immediately due and payable;
- (iv) operate Client Equipment for cryptocurrency mining and other activities at Company’s sole discretion and direct all resulting proceeds to Company’s own account until Company has recovered all amounts due, including, without limitation, any reinstatement, disconnection or storage fees or costs;
- (v) terminate this Agreement and all Orders; and
- (vi) exercise all other rights under this Agreement, at law, in equity or otherwise.

Unless Company has terminated this Agreement, Company will reverse the suspension of the provision of the Company Facility and Services and disconnection of Client Equipment as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to the suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee. Thereafter, Company may, at its sole discretion, require an advance payment equal to the amount of one billing invoice.

e. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company may suspend its provision of all or a portion of the Services and disconnect all of a portion of Client Equipment immediately if Company determines in its sole discretion that: Client's use of the Services or Client Equipment (i) may adversely impact or pose a security risk to Company's operation or maintenance of the Company Facility or Company's other clients; (ii) may subject Company to liability; or (iii) is not in compliance with this Agreement or Company's policies. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension or disconnection. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to reverse such suspension or disconnection as soon as reasonably practical after it is satisfied that Client has cured the acts or omissions giving rise to such suspension and disconnection. In connection with the foregoing, Company may charge a reinstatement fee as set forth in the applicable Order. Further, Company may terminate this Agreement and all Orders if such suspension or disconnection continues for at least two (2) calendar days or occurs more than three (3) times in any twelve (12) month period. For clarity, during the period of suspension or disconnection, Client remains responsible for all fees and charges Client incurs during such period. Further, after the Effective Date, if Company determines in its sole and absolute discretion that as a result of any change in, or interpretation, introduction or administration of, any laws, regulations, statutes, treaties, rules, guidelines, ordinances, codes or the like, or any proposed or anticipated changes in, or interpretations, introduction or administration of the foregoing (a "Change in Law"), has resulted in an increase in Company's cost of compliance with such Change in Law then Company may, in its commercially reasonable discretion, take certain actions, including, without limitation, the following actions, at Client's sole risk and expense: (i) terminate this Agreement, any or all Orders; and/or (ii) modify the Services as may be necessary to account for such Change in Law. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client of such Company actions and the effective date of such actions.

f. Further, and notwithstanding the Change in Law related costs above, after the Effective Date, if there are any increases, changes in, or introduction or administration of, any new taxes, levies, tariffs or governmental fees and charges with respect to the provision of Services, Company may, in its sole and absolute discretion, pass through all such amounts to Client ("Increased Costs") and Client shall pay all Increased Costs in accordance with the payment and invoicing procedures as set forth in this Agreement.

g. Company shall not be liable for any Client loss or damage whatsoever as a result of the exercise of its rights under this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement or an Order by Company, Company is entitled to recover from Client all loss or damages incurred by Company as a result of such termination, outstanding fees, costs, charges, assessments, reimbursements, and expenses (including, without limitation, costs of collection and reasonable attorneys' fees).

h. In addition to Section 4(f), the Company may terminate or suspend all or a portion of the Services if necessary to be in compliance with applicable law, rules, regulations, administrative or judicial orders or decree. Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Client, which may be via email or telephone, of such suspension. Client agrees that the Company shall have no liability whatsoever to Client for any damage, loss, expense or cost as a result of such termination or suspension.

Hi Jenny and Praveena,

Hope you are doing well! Please see attached invoice INV42672 and associated support for your Hosting Services.

Kindly note that Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. The tariff surcharges for your August 2022 usages in GA, KY and/or Marble 1, and TX sites have been added to this invoice.

Thank you, we appreciate your business and trust in Core Scientific!

Hi Monica,

We are in receipt of the invoice (INV42672) for August actual hosting cost. Your email indicates that Core Scientific has been notified of "significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs," and that, as a result, "surcharges" have been added to the invoice pursuant to Section 4(f) of the Master Services Agreement ("MSA"). Pursuant to section 3(b) of the MSA, Celsius hereby disputes these surcharges as they appear in the invoice (INV42672) and any prior invoices, including the invoice (INV42658) for July actual hosting cost. While we dispute these surcharges, we do wish to work cooperatively in an effort to understand these charges and resolve this issue. To that end, please provide to Celsius any documents and materials reflecting both the "tariff increases" that Core Scientific claims it has incurred and the payment of those charges by Core Scientific, in each of the relevant jurisdictions (namely, Georgia, Kentucky, and Texas).

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
Jenny

Hope you are doing well! Please see attached invoice INV42672 and associated support for your Hosting Services.

Kindly note that Core Scientific has incurred continuing significant tariff increases since the implementation of our Master Services Agreement – Core Scientific has been notified by its electrical utility suppliers of significant tariff increases due to rising fuel costs. As an Increased Costs under the Master Services Agreement (Section 4f), Core will be passing through such tariff increases without markup. The tariff surcharges for your August 2022 usages in GA, KY and/or Marble 1, and TX sites have been added to this invoice.

Thank you, we appreciate your business and trust in Core Scientific!

Regards,
Monica
